GOSPEL MEDITATION

4th Sunday in Ordinary Time

In my parents' bedroom there were on the wall two photos of my mom and dad from their early adulthoods. The photo of my mother entranced me when I was a boy. I loved looking at it, even though I saw her in daily life. Something about that picture captured her perfectly. It was an image of the joy, wisdom, beauty, and strength that enveloped me from the start of my life. It was an icon of the woman who fed, taught, and encouraged me. I felt a deep pride that I came from such beauty.

The beatitudes of Jesus are a kind of self-portrait. But it is a strange picture. At first, the blessings of being poor, mourning, and hungering and thirsting for righteousness may seem bizarre or, worse, a religious delusion. Who wants to look like that? But if we look again, we begin to see the characteristics of Jesus' form. He becomes poor and fills it with his riches for us, he weeps and mourns for us, and fills it with his joy, he hungers and thirsts for us to be righteous, and so satisfies us. And so on. It's the way he appears on the cross.

Perhaps we should put on our bedroom room walls the words of the beatitudes next to a crucifix of the Lord Jesus. Then we can do what the beatitudes are designed for, to gaze at the joy, wisdom, beauty, and strength of the one who is our origin, and who is with us every day. And little by little, we'll start to look like him.

PARISH & SCHOOL NEWS

From the Pastor

Dear OLA Family,

I am pleased to share with you that Bishop Soto has appointed Deacon Paul to chair the Diocesan Ecumenical and Interreligious Commission for the Diocese of Sacramento effective 2 January 2023. With this new appointment, Deacon Paul and his wife Sharon will need to divide their time and energies to both parish and diocesan duties. Essentially, it means stepping down from some of the parish ministries they currently lead. In the next few weeks, I plan to work with Deacon Paul and Sharon in creating a plan of transition and a new service agreement. I ask that you pray for Deacon Paul and Sharon to be successful in their new role and that the process of replacing them will occur smoothly.

Thank you, and God Bless.

Father Eduino

2023-25 OLA Pastoral Plan Now Available

Fellow Parishioners, I am pleased to announce that the 2023-25 OLA Pastoral Plan: Implementing Stewardship is now available. The Strategic Planning Committee composed of parishioners and staff has worked hard over many months and many challenges to complete the Plan. We thank Father Eduino and the Pastoral Council for their support and encouragement to persist in this endeavor. We also thank the parishioners who submitted their thoughts and recommendations. We reviewed them carefully. Finally, we thank our fellow parishioners for their patience.

Done properly, strategic planning is an iterative and never-ending process. Upon review of the new Plan, feel free to submit to me any recommendations or questions you may have. We will be sure to consider them as we start the new cycle in the coming months.

If you do not have a copy of the Plan yet, it is available electronically on the OLA website and via Flocknote. Hard copies are available in the church and in the parish office.

In Christ,

Juan C. Yñiguez, jcyniguez@att.net, C: 916.207.9512
