GOSPEL MEDITATION

17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The world is filled with people whose basic needs aren't met, whether for clean water, nutrition, safety, education, meaningful work, stable family life, basic medical resources, religious freedom, and the right to life. So how can we possibly believe what Psalm 145 says to us this week? "The hand of the Lord feeds us, he answers all our needs." Does he? What about the countless poor? Can't we identify at least a few unmet needs in our own lives right now? Is the Bible promoting wishful thinking and laziness in helping others?

No. The psalm flows from Israel's experience of God's relentless fidelity again and again – especially in the Passover from Egypt. This divine providence is recalled when Jesus feeds the needy multitudes in the Gospel of John. Passover arrives once again, and the people are hungry like the ancient Israelites on the wilderness journey. What is new is that in Jesus God not only provides for their needs, but He learns what it's like to have those human needs. He shares them too. He feeds them bread and fish; and even more, He hungers to provide them, and us, much more than just that kind of perishable food. Our deepest need is for God. Like the multiplied bread, all earthly provisions ultimately fail, for we all finally die. Of course, our obligation to meet the needs of the poor is basic. But Christ promises to feed us with the one bread that never fails: God Himself. He is humanity's eternal food. If we eat this bread, we taste the faithfulness of God who answers all our needs, even when every earthly thing fails.

– Father John Muir ©LPI

For those in our community who have passed away...

Mary Tapparo

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

Amen.

PARISH AND SCHOOL NEWS

Faith Formation Update

The OLA Faith Formation Program for 2024-2025 will begin Sunday, September 15th. The program takes place on Sunday mornings following the 9:00 a.m. Mass from 10:15 a.m. - 11:30 a.m. in Bannon Hall.

Registration will be available electronically in mid-August. You may also register in-person after the morning Masses on the following Sundays: August 18th, August 25th, and September 1st.

If you would like to volunteer as a catechist or support team member, or if you have questions about the OLA Faith Formation Program, please contact Tracy at faithformation@olaparish.net. You may also learn more by visiting the Children's Faith Formation page on our parish website: <https://olaparish.net/formation/faith-formation/becoming-catholic-children>.

Save the Date: Parish Feast Day Dinner and Social Committee Update

Save the date! Our annual Parish Feast Day Dinner will take place on Saturday, August 17th, in Affinito Hall following the 5:00 p.m. vigil Mass. The menu will include hamburgers, hot dogs, macaroni salad, and of course Leatherby's ice cream for dessert!

Our parish dinners are made possible by the OLA Social Committee. Each year, the Social Committee organizes the Parish Feast Day Dinner in August, the Harvest Dinner in November, the Pasta Dinner in February, and the Fish Fry during Lent. This committee consists of volunteers who serve in a variety of roles, including organization and planning, permitting and licensing, promotions, set-up, cooking, decorating, serving, clean-up, and more. OLA School parents volunteer to assist with many of these tasks, but we also need parishioners to serve on the Social Committee to plan the dinners and help make sure they are successful.

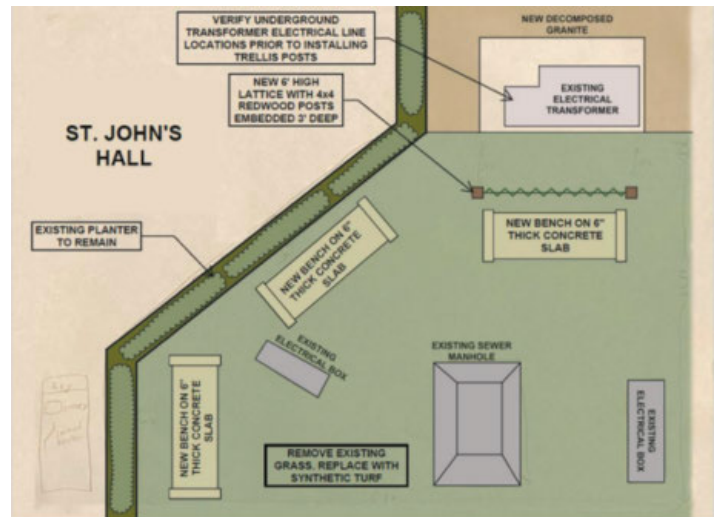

Are you interested in helping with our parish dinners this year? Consider joining the OLA Social Committee! Please contact our Ministry Coordinator Jane Ricci, and she can answer any questions you have and help find the perfect role for you. Jane can be reached via email at ministrycoordinator@olaparish.net. You can also leave a message for her via phone by calling the parish office at (916) 481-5115.

See you at the parish dinner in August!

BSA Eagle Project Fundraising Update – St. John's Landscaping

Thank you to all who have donated towards John Rockenstein's Eagle Scout project, and thank you to John for embarking on this ambitious project to create a beautiful new space for prayer and contemplation at OLA. So far he has raised 35% of his fundraising goal of $9,000. More contributions are still needed.

John's Eagle Scout Project for St John's Hall

John will be installing turf in place of the grass on the right side of St. John's Hall (opposite side from Mary). He will also be putting in new rose bushes, as well as new wood benches.

If you would like to donate to this project, you can drop off a check to the church office addressed to Troop 328, or you can also donate via the Venmo app: @Mike-Rockenstein-2. Bench sponsorship is also available if you are interested. This is a wonderful opportunity for a family or parish ministry to make a commemorative contribution to the beautification of the OLA campus.

Please contact johnmrockenstein@gmail.com and rockusc@gmail.com with any questions you have. Any help is appreciated. Thank you for your support!

OLA Ministry Information

Want to join a ministry? Does your ministry need assistance? We can help you!

OLA Meditation Group

This group gathers weekly on Monday afternoons at 4:00 p.m. and follows guided meditations to help participants grow in relationship with Christ.

Meetings are in the church on the first Monday of the month and then on Zoom for the rest of the month.

Email Fran Rider at birider2808@sbcglobal.net for more information.

Living the Word Scripture Study

All are welcome for the Living the Word Scripture Study on Thursday evenings at 7:00 p.m. in Affinito Hall Meeting Room 3. At Living the Word, we discuss the Sunday scripture readings and how they apply to our daily lives.

Catholic Q&A – Church Teaching About Suicide

Question: What does the Church say about suicide?

Answer: Unfortunately, despite the Church's clear teachings in resources like the Catechism of the Catholic Church and the United States Catholic Catechism for Adults, there are still many people who are confused about what the Church teaches regarding the tragic reality of suicide. While we hold that all life is sacred, we are also all-too aware that psychological, emotional and even physical illness – as well as extreme anxiety, fear, and abuse – can lead individuals to take their own lives.

Speaking to this, the United States Catholic Catechism for Adults reflects, "Although suicide is always objectively sinful, one should not despair of the eternal salvation of persons who have taken their own lives. By ways known to him alone, God can provide the opportunity for salutary repentance. The Church prays for persons who have taken their own lives" (pg. 294). The text also states the reality of illness or other extreme influences can "diminish the responsibility of one committing suicide" (pg. 293).

Parishes and grief support groups should show special care and concern for those families that have lost a loved one to suicide. Communities should always try to be mindful of those who might be at risk of suicide or self-harm. If someone is contemplating suicide, please know that help is available, including the National Suicide Prevention Lifeline (1-800-273-8255). ©LPi

Adult Small Group Studies

Fr. Eduino strongly encourages small groups to meet together to grow in faith, knowledge, and friendship!

This fall could be a great time to start a small group study with friends, family, or even fellow parishioners.

Did you know that our parish has access to Flocknote Engage, which includes free and complete access to Bishop Barron's Word on Fire ENGAGE video library and study programs? This resource includes access to the complete Catholicism series/study program with free pdf study materials for leaders and participants. Additional study programs available include The Mass, The Creed, and The Sacraments. Interested in leading a small group study? Contact Casey Oliver at worship@olaparish.net for more information.

Internet Safety for Kids and Teens Webinar

The Central California Intelligence Center, working with the FBI and the Placer County Sheriff's Department, is presenting a two-hour Internet Safety for Kids and Teens Webinar on August 6 from 6:00- 8:00 PM. The webinar will focus on protecting children and young adults from individuals using the internet for predatory purposes including human trafficking and sextortion.

Federal officials have recently described the ever-increasing number of victims of sextortion schemes designed to extort money from unsuspecting young people. Investigators will describe the risks youths face and the best practices parents can follow to keep young people safe from these crimes as the new school year approaches.

Please scan the QR code below or visit the training calendar at <https://sacrtac.org/> for registration information.
