GOSPEL MEDITATION

28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

This week we hear of the man who inquires of Jesus how to obtain eternal life. He rejects Jesus' invitation to sell his goods, give to the poor, and follow Jesus. Mark tells us this devastatingly sad line, "At this saying, his countenance fell and he went away sorrowful; for he had great possessions" (Mark 10:22). The man's heart wasn't centered on Jesus, but on his possessions. Perhaps Jesus intuited this. Now, we don't know if Jesus intended to actually make him go through with it, like God's call to test Abraham's willingness to sacrifice Isaac. But sadly, in this case the willingness was not there to entrust everything to Jesus. And this made the man deeply sad.

For most of us, the literal dispossessing of our goods is not our call. But as Christians, a consistent renouncing of them is. This week, especially if you're noticing a persisting sadness, I invite you to hear Jesus calling you to acknowledge that none of your possessions are finally yours. They are God's and on loan to you. We get so addicted to that stuffy and sad word, "mine." At Mass, we rehearse this attitude of joyful detachment by giving bread, wine, and money to the Lord, as if to say, "Lord, all I have is yours." And what we get back is a sadness-defeating joy beyond all description: knowing that He is ours, and we are His.

What possessions are pre-occupying you at the moment? Write them down. Intentionally offer them to the Lord at the next Mass you attend.

— Father John Muir ©LPi

For those in our community who have passed away...

Theda Lord

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

Amen.

PARISH AND SCHOOL NEWS

Mass on the Grass Recap

On Saturday October 5th, Bishop Rey Bersabal celebrated a special "Mass on the Grass" at William B. Pond Park, joined by Father Alvaro Perez, Dean of the American River Deanery. Four deacons were also present: Deacon Paul Friedrich from Our Lady of the Assumption, Deacon Keith Johnson from St. John the Evangelist, Deacon Kevin Staszko from St. Lawrence, and Deacon Abel Mejia from Our Lady of Lourdes. Over 170 people from the ten-parish American River Deanery gathered on this glorious morning as part of the RADIATE LOVE INITIATIVE, which celebrates the gift of SACRAMENTAL MARRIAGE and FAMILY.

During the Mass, Bishop Rey shared several key reflections. He asked, "What do you see at Mass that you are called to go out and live?" He emphasized the Eucharist is Love and reminded us the Church is a family of families. He encouraged everyone to use words to communicate, not emojis, and extended an invitation for participants to bring their neighbors to the next gathering, saying, "There is lots of space."

Following the Mass, everyone enjoyed fellowship and a picnic, with hot dogs, chips, and an assortment of delicious food generously provided by the Knights of Columbus and parishioners.

2024 Radiate Love - Letter from the Bishops

What is Radiate Love?

Under the title "Radiate Love," the bishops of California invite every Catholic to celebrate the beauty and goodness of marriage and family. We invite all families to radiate their love to the world—parents, grandparents, children, spouses, sisters, and brothers. This initiative will include monthly reflections, prayers, videos, and other materials to help families become witnesses of God's love.
