GOSPEL MEDITATION

32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Once at an evening Mass as a poor college student, the collection basket was fast approaching, and I only had a ten-dollar bill. I was planning on using that to buy my favorite Chipotle burrito that night for dinner. Should I keep the money? Who would know if I did? If I gave it away, what would I eat? Would I be okay? I kissed my future burrito goodbye, dropped the money in the basket, and winced. But strangely, the rest of the Mass I felt more engaged than usual. I had skin in the game. I left the Mass excited to see how God would take care of me. And he did, in amazing ways.

When the poor widow places two copper coins in the temple treasury, Jesus doesn't pity her. He praises her. He blesses her. He brags about her. He celebrates her as the temple's largest benefactor. Her giving is an act of radical, concrete trust in God. It is as if she is entering a new level of giving that excites Jesus, because she contributes not out of her abundance, but she gives "everything she had."

What a challenge this is to each one of us! How easy it is to ignore this! But imagine the eruption of the energy of faith, hope, and love that would be unlocked if our financial sacrifices to the Church actually tapped into daily bread and not only our disposable income. I challenge us to try this in some way this coming week and see what happens in our hearts. Even if it costs us a burrito. — Father John Muir ©LPI

For those in our community who have passed away...

All Souls

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

Amen.

OLA Saint Vincent de Paul Food Locker Client Story

A retreat master during an SVdP recollection once said that "Liturgy begins in the parking lot." A couple of weeks ago, a homeless man named John and well known by our Food Locker volunteers came to get food on a hot Tuesday morning. While waiting for his turn, a volunteer sat beside him on a bench and began a conversation with him. It turned out that John lives near the creek in Carmichael in a tent and that he spent 29 years in prison. He was not collecting SSI or SSA (yet) and he lived on very little. "I have friends who help me," he said when asked how he survives. "I keep out of trouble and trouble keeps away from me," he added. When asked how he was going to bring the food that we were going to give him, he gave a big toothless smile and said, "I can balance everything on my bike." SVdP made sure he brought his food home in plastic bags which he promptly secured on the bike handles and away he went with a big smile on his face. At the Food Locker's parking lot, SVdP experienced the Liturgy that day.

Diaconal Formation Panel

On October 20, Deacon Paul and Sharon Friedrich, along with Deacon Alberto and Rosa Vargas from Saint Dominic Catholic Church in Orland, participated in a panel discussion at Christ the King Retreat Center in Citrus Heights. The event focused on their experiences with the Ministry of the Word within the Permanent Diaconate and was attended by the diaconal formation Class of 2028.

The Ministry of the Word for the Permanent Diaconate encompasses preaching, teaching, writing, and various other activities. The two deacon couples were honored to share their involvement in this ministry, their ongoing preparation (including continuing education), and how this ministry has impacted their lives and spirituality as missionary disciples and family members. They also discussed the attitudes and practices that help people flourish in their roles within the Ministry of the Word.

The diaconal formation Class of 2028, consisting of six couples from across our Diocese, began their four-year diaconal formation this year. Meanwhile, the diaconal formation Class of 2026 consisting of 11 couples is now halfway through their discernment and formation.

For more information regarding discernment and formation to be a deacon, visit the Diocese of Sacramento Deacon Formation webpage. The Office of Clergy Formation will post its Inquiry Form to this web page on January 1, 2025 for the diaconal formation Class of 2030. Sharon Friedrich, from our parish, currently serves as Chair of the Diocese of Sacramento's Deacon Formation Policy Board that supports diaconal formation. Contact her and/or Deacon Paul Friedrich at deaconpaul@olaparish.net for more information.

Deacon Paul's Ordination Prayer Card features these words from St. Francis of Assisi, one of the most beloved deacons in our Catholic faith: "Remember that when you leave this earth, you can take nothing of what you have received, but only what you have given: a full heart, enriched by honest service, love, sacrifice, and courage."

Let us pray that these 17 couples in diaconal formation are surrounded by God's protection, wisdom, and grace as they continue to discern His will for them; and for a fruitful increase in vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, and consecrated life.
