GOSPEL MEDITATION

2nd Sunday of Easter

John 20:19-31

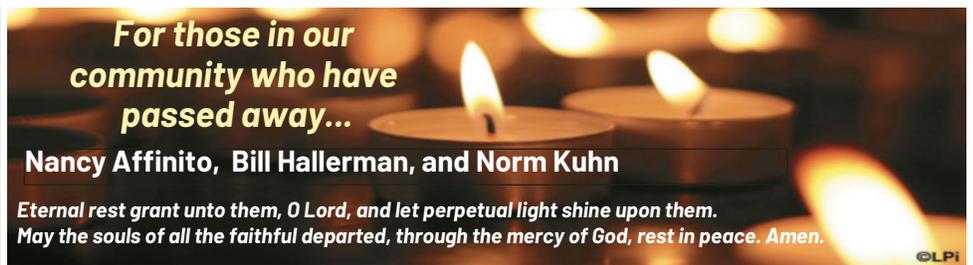

It's common for Catholics to hear the question, "Why do I have to go to a priest to have my sins forgiven?" I've never liked that question because not only is it clunky (confession is the ordinary way for the pardoning of serious sins, not lesser ones). But it misses the larger context: the wonderful origins of the sacrament itself. And this context is deeply Jewish.

Ancient Jews associated forgiveness of sins with priests offering sacrifices in the Jerusalem temple. It was a solemn, public, and tangible way to access God's mercy. So, when the risen Jesus breathes on the Apostles and says, "Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained" (John 20:23), the upshot is remarkable: he is the new temple, and his Apostles are the new priests. Jerusalem is no longer the place to find forgiveness from sin. Jesus' body, the Church, is.

So why should we go to the Sacrament of Confession? For the same reason ancient Jews went to the temple in Jerusalem: to experience the intimacy, joy, and life-giving power of God's eternal forgiveness. — Father John Muir ©LPI

PARISH AND SCHOOL NEWS

Lent and Holy Week Recap

Each Friday of Lent we shared a Soup Supper followed by the Stations of the Cross. Thank you to everyone from our ministries who brought soups and bread, and special thanks to Joan Cotton for her assistance. We also thank the readers and musicians for making every week a beautiful and prayerful experience for all.

Holy Week began with Palm Sunday. Thank you to our youth choir and to all of the liturgical ministers and environment committee members for making Palm Sunday extra special.

On Holy Thursday, the foot washing took place, and many youth and adult parishioners participated. Adoration of the Most Blessed Sacrament occurred in the chapel at the end of the Mass.

On Good Friday, the most solemn day of the liturgical year, our faith community gathered to hear the Passion of the Lord, to pray for those throughout the world, to venerate the cross, and to receive Communion (consecrated hosts from the Holy Thursday Mass of the Lord's Supper). The cross used in the Good Friday service this year was made by parishioner Andrew Cunha.

At Easter Vigil, we welcomed several new members into our Catholic family of faith. In next week's bulletin, we will share more pictures and information about the beautiful Easter Vigil liturgy.

Thank you to all who assisted in the Holy Week liturgies and to all who donated the beautiful Easter lilies!

Gabriel Project - Sacramento Life Center

If you are returning to your Catholic Faith, we would like to offer an informal conversation with a member of the parish staff to help facilitate a comfortable active return to our church community by sharing information on topics that may have changed in your absence: Sacraments, Explanation of Mass, Church Terminology, Divorce/Annulment, etc. as well as discussing the many OLA ministry options. If you are interested, please leave a message for Jane at (916) 481-5115 or email: ministrycoordinator@olaparish.net. We are very excited to have you join our faith family!

Did you know that our parish has access to Flocknote Engage, which includes free and complete access to Bishop Barron's Word on Fire ENGAGE video library and study programs? All that is required is a Flocknote account. You can sign up for OLA Parish Flocknote emails and the Flocknote Engage educational resources at <https://olaparish.flocknote.com/>. Once you are signed up, login to OLA Parish Flocknote and visit Word on Fire (WOF) Digital to watch any of the videos at any time. This is a robust faith formation resource that includes access to multiple study programs (including free pdf study materials).

Flocknote Engage is a great resource if you want to bring together a small group to grow in faith. If you have questions or are interested in leading a group, contact Casey Oliver at worship@olaparish.net.

Remembering Pope Francis

“Whenever we take a step towards Jesus, we come to realize that He is already there, waiting for us with open arms.”

POPE FRANCIS
1936 - 2025

Pope Francis, born Jorge Mario Bergoglio on December 17, 1936, in Buenos Aires, Argentina, was the first pope from the Americas and the first Jesuit to lead the Catholic Church.

Before his election as pope on March 13, 2013, he served as Archbishop of Buenos Aires, where he was known for his humility, simple lifestyle, and dedication to the poor.

Raised in a family of Italian immigrants, he studied chemistry before entering the seminary and joining the Jesuits. Ordained a priest in 1969, he later became the Provincial of the Jesuits in Argentina and played a key role in guiding the Church during a period of economic and social crises in the country. When he was appointed bishop in 1992 and archbishop in 1998, he prioritized evangelization, social justice, and pastoral outreach.

As pope, Francis emphasized mercy, care for the marginalized, and environmental stewardship. His papacy was marked by a call for a “poor Church for the poor,” interfaith dialogue, and reform within the Vatican. His teachings focused on compassion, the dignity of every person, and the need for a missionary Church.

On April 21, 2025, Pope Francis passed away, leaving behind a legacy of love, humility, and service.
