GOSPEL MEDITATION

4th Sunday of Easter

John 10:27-30

A few years back, I felt as if I couldn't hear God's voice the way I used to. The words in the Bible seemed like cold ink on a page. Prayer felt like sitting anxiously in a lonely room. I was worried – how could I, a priest, preach or help others if I couldn't hear God's voice? It went on for months.

Then a friend encouraged me to go on a retreat and spend as much time as possible in silence. After a day or two of quiet prayer, I noticed gentle but clear thoughts of repentance in two specific areas of my life. I asked God for the grace to change, and I went to confession. Suddenly, the divine silence that haunted me was filled with a sense of God's closeness and goodness. I realized, gratefully, that God had been speaking to me in the quiet voice of my conscience.

This week we hear Jesus say, "My sheep hear my voice. I know them and they follow me" (John 10:27). Jesus links the hearing of his voice to following him. He speaks to us in our conscience in an intimate, personal way, when we most need to hear him. When you feel deaf to God's voice, perhaps it is time to listen in silence for His voice in your conscience calling you to hear and follow the Good Shepherd of your soul.

Thank You Fr. Eduino!

Happy ordination anniversary! Thank you for your faithful service to the people of God!

Congratulations First Communicants!

At the 11:00 a.m. Sunday Mass on May 4th, we celebrated First Holy Communion with our young parishioners. The church was full of parishioners, visitors, friends, and family members. Thank you to the sibling and friend choir and to all of the siblings who participated in liturgical ministries. Special thanks to Fr. Eduino, our catechists, teachers, and families for making this day possible!

OLA Gabriel Project

Please join us at the Sacramento Life Center on Monday, May 12th, from 5 to 7 pm. The Life Center is a key partner of the OLA Gabriel Project, and they've kindly offered to give us a tour and share more about the essential services they provide. Please RSVP to Rose Ross at ross1671@sbcglobal.net or Sharon Kropf at skropf@winfirst.com.

On Friday, May 16th, from 10 am to 2 pm, the Diocese is holding a Regional Gabriel Project meeting at the Pastoral Center. We would love to have the OLA Gabriel Project represented. If you are interested in attending, please RSVP to Rose Ross ross1671@sbcglobal.net.

World Day of Prayer for Vocations

It takes many people to create and sustain a community. For those of us who are Catholic, we believe in the power of vocations to help spread the Gospel message, and vocations are an important part of the community. The vocations to priesthood, or the diaconate, or religious life are at the center of our efforts to spread the good news. However, we need to also speak about the vocation of married life as service to the church; and furthermore, the vocation of single life. It is at our baptism that we are given the mandate to spread the Gospel through our vocation in the church.

"Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, then I will enter his house and dine with him, and he with me." (Rv 3:20) We hear in Scripture that Jesus stands at the door of our heart and knocks. He only invites and never demands or breaks into our lives without our acceptance. He knocks, we open the door, and the invitation and welcome are complete.

Let us pray...

God of the invitation,
you knock upon the door of everyone's heart.
We seek the courage to open that door,
for we know the responsibility of saying yes.
We humbly ask you for your wisdom to serve your church with compassion and acceptance.
We believe that when we say yes,
you will provide the grace for the work ahead.
Give grace to those men and women who have dedicated their lives to constant service to your church.
Also give grace to those couples and single men and women who work for the church in their secular lives.
We ask all this through Christ our Lord and brother, who live and reign with you and the Holy Spirit. Amen. ©LPi

The OLA Vocations Committee works to foster vocations, especially to ordained ministry and religious life. The committee's tasks include organizing a campaign of prayer for vocations, creating Parish awareness of vocations, and inviting individuals to consider the call to be a priest, deacon, sister, or brother. Would you like to be involved with this committee? Please contact Ministry Coordinator Jane Ricci to learn more at: ministrycoordinator@olaparish.net.

Resources to Help You Grow in Faith and Knowledge for New and Existing Parishioners

If you are returning to your Catholic Faith, we would like to offer an informal conversation with a member of the parish staff to help facilitate a comfortable active return to our church community by sharing information on topics that may have changed in your absence: Sacraments, Explanation of Mass, Church Terminology, Divorce/Annulment, etc. as well as discussing OLA ministry options. If you are interested, please leave a message for Jane at (916) 481-5115 or send an email: ministrycoordinator@olaparish.net. We are very excited to have you join our faith family!

Check out our parish website which has links to several spiritual and educational resources for your faith journey: <https://olaparish.net/formation/resources>.

COMMUNITY

St. Vincent de Paul Society - OLA Conference

Your kindness to those in need is greatly appreciated!

We need small jars of peanut butter and jelly as well as soup for the OLA Food Locker. We also need paper grocery bags. Please drop off donations at the parish office or in the church SVdP collection boxes.

For those who need assistance and live within our parish boundaries, the food locker is open Tuesdays and Thursdays from 10 A.M. - 12 P.M. We can also help with utility and rent payments. Questions? Call (916) 481-6352.

Jackson is shown giving SVdP's Food Locker his earnings from recycling. His father said that Jackson saved up money from recycling through several months to donate it to SVdP. Thank you, Jackson, for helping your community here at OLA. You are a good example to your school mates and to others. Your kindness "lights a candle" in these difficult times. We at SVdP salute you. Your family and teachers are proud of you. Thank you!

Learn And Share Good News About Love

Love—true love—is a verb! Love is a decision made every single day, sometimes every minute, to actively place the needs of the beloved ahead of one's own. This is not easy, nor popular today in an age of personal empowerment. Nevertheless, as Christians we find our inspiration for marital love in Scripture. The love between a husband-and-wife points to the love between Jesus and his Church. Jesus lays down his life for each of us, and his last words on the cross were to ask forgiveness for those who put him to death.
