5th SUNDAY OF LENT

Jesus said, "Neither do I condemn you. Go, and from now on do not sin any more." - Jn 8:11b

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD. ©LPI

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

The Mission of the parish community at Our Lady of the Assumption Church is to proclaim the Word of God more fully, to gain a more intimate knowledge of God through our Catholic traditions, and to serve the people of God, especially in our efforts to meet the needs of the poor in our community, and when possible around the world. We strive to build a sense of community among our parishioners, with the entire family of God.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

April 3, 2022

5th Sunday of Lent

We love to make examples out of those who have erred and done wrong. Publicly punishing others serves as a means of demonstrating the consequences for what is deemed inappropriate or wrongful behavior. While this may appear an effective way of achieving conformity to established rules, it runs the real risk of distorting motivation. Obviously, we want people to do what is right and pursue healthy, virtuous behaviors and ideals. But is fear of punishment ever the best motivation for avoiding one action in favor of another?

Doing something out of fear is never healthy. Focusing exclusively on our behavior and what others expect or think, leads to living life with a self-focused superficiality.

We become more concerned about protecting ourselves from something negative and unpleasant, than investing ourselves in the freedom, wonder and awe of being human! We can still find our way to the unacceptable or inappropriate behavior as long as we do not get caught! Being a whole, focused, and God-centered human being requires more. It demands an investment of the heart. Virtuous, moral, and mature lifestyles reflective of the Gospel necessitate love. When we experience and recognize love, God's unconditional love, in the depth of our soul, we fall in love with what we have found.

We then find ourselves leaving destructive and sinful actions behind in search of something more holy, dignified, true, integral, and loving. This is really "mercy realized." God's tremendous, loving, eternal forgiveness and willingness to bring us back to something more real and tender is transformational. The respect for myself that I receive from God is so life changing that it causes me to run quickly away from anything sinful and self-destructive to things that are whole and holy. There are many people who want nothing more than to judge or criticize us.

What would actually stoning the woman caught in adultery really accomplish? Nothing more than the inflation of the already self-righteous egos of a few men who think they have power. They have no power because they are sinners too, just like everyone else. What all of us have is the humble ability to express sorrow for pursuing destructive thoughts and actions and receive the power of God's mercy. Then, Jesus' request to "go and sin no more" will be one we proudly heed and follow.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHTS

Living Stewardship

April 3, 2022

5th Sunday of Lent

"...For his sake I have accepted the loss of all things and I consider them so much rubbish, that I may gain Christ..." (philippians 3:8)

The first commandment says that we should not put other gods before the Lord. Living Stewardship by sharing all of our gifts - our time in prayer, our talent in charitable works and our treasure to support the Church helps us keep God first in everything. It helps us from putting other gods before God. It helps us from becoming a slave to our possessions. It helps us to use our gifts for the glory of God and not for the glory of ourselves.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

Fifth Sunday of Lent

Jesus' love and forgiveness offer true freedom.

Breaking Open the Word

Suggested text for faith sharing: Today's Gospel

Step One: Listen to the Word

As you hear this reading, what words or phrases strike you? What in this reading touches your heart? What lingers in your memory?

Step Two: Look into Your Life

Question for Children: How does the Sacrament of Reconciliation help us experience God's forgiveness?

Question for Youth: Who among your family and friends do you need to forgive so that you can heal a broken relationship and experience newness?

Question for Adults: Against whom do you hold prejudices? Who do you believe is a greater sinner than yourself?

OLA Choir Information for Holy Week

An engaged and singing assembly glorifies God and helps evangelize! Lift your voices in song at OLA and help us be a welcoming presence to others during Holy Week and throughout the year. We need prepared singers to participate during our Holy Week liturgies, especially in the pews to help to support the full, conscious, and active participation of the assembly. We also welcome singers to participate in the music ensembles.

You are encouraged to access the resources on our parish website, <https://olaparish.net/music-ministry>. There you will find digital worship aids with the sheet music and prayer service videos featuring the music for the upcoming liturgies. The Holy Week worship aids and videos will be posted during the week before Palm Sunday, and we will also have one in-person music rehearsal in the church on Wednesday, April 6th, at 6:30 pm.

If you would like to be part of our Choir in the Pews community, or if you wish to participate in a music ensemble, please email Casey Oliver, Music Director, worship@olaparish.net. Thank you for your participation!

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Make a Way

What's your comfort zone: emotionally, professionally, personally? We all have one. But did you realize that you can have one spiritually? Think about what you like and what you don't particularly enjoy when it comes to church, prayer, and liturgy. We all have "those songs" we crinkle our noses at, either because they're too modern or too old-fashioned. We all have "those people" in our parish whose ideas we aren't so sure about, whether that's because they're trying to change too much or because they seem always to be looking toward the past. Also, when was the last time you sat on the OTHER side of the church during Mass?

As much as we may not want to admit it, even (and especially) as people of God, we get deeply attached to our own personal comfort zones — and we tend to view those outside with distrust.

But what if God had a comfort zone? What if He viewed us, in our sin and our misery, as too "far away" from Himself to reach? Thankfully, our God is a God who "opens a way in the sea and a path in the mighty waters." Our God is a God who does "something new."

The call to stewardship demands that we look outside of ourselves. Our thoughts, our opinions, our preferences — these things are not important to the steward. Even if there is a vast, dry desert of discord, or a seemingly endless wasteland of opposing views between us and our neighbor, God challenges us to "make a way" out of our comfort zone, that together we may announce His praise.

FROM THE RCIA Team....

Congratulations to Sherri Gregory and Priselda Okita who participated in the Rite of Election with Bishop Soto on March 6, 2022 at the Cathedral. [See photo: Front - Sherri Gregory and Priselda Okita, Back - Jose Lopez (Godfather) and Dcn. Paul].

As part of the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA), it is the custom of the Church to celebrate the Scrutinies on the Third, Fourth and Fifth Sundays of Lent with those preparing for the Sacraments of Initiation at the Easter Vigil. The Scrutinies serve to lead the Elect to a deeper understanding of and preparation for the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and First Eucharist. Please pray for Sherri and Pri, our newly Elect, as they continue their discernment and understanding of God's will for them in their life.

If you are over the age of 16 and interested or know someone who is interested in becoming a Catholic, we will be holding Inquiry Information Sessions on April 20 and April 27 from 7:00 pm - 8:00 pm in Affinito Hall (Meeting Room 3). Please feel free to stop by on either or both evenings so we can chat about your questions regarding our rich Catholic faith and the RCIA process. For more information, please contact Dcn. Paul Friedrich at deaconpaul@olaparish.net or 916.481.5115.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Mercy makes us attentive to the voice of truth. We do not know what ever happened to the woman caught in adultery, after her encounter with Jesus. It is hoped that she found what she needed to feel true sorrow. What we do know is that through his gentle and wise persuasiveness, Jesus puts the Pharisees in their place and opens the door to grace for this child of God. Being exploited and used to test and discredit Jesus, she who is publicly known to be a sinner is now the victim. Jesus never tolerates people being used and immediately rushes to her defense. As the author of mercy, Jesus became her advocate and opened the door for her to God's love. Jesus also stands between us and the harsh, judgmental, and often hurtful stance of our world. He invites us to grace, to leave the sin that binds us, and for which we are often criticized, and pursue a life of virtue and freedom.
