SUNDAY READINGS SYNOPSIS

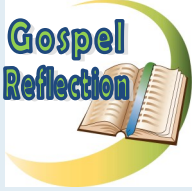

In bargaining with God, Abraham demonstrates a real persistence in prayer (1). Jesus invites us to persist in prayer as well, to "ask...seek...knock" (3). May our prayer open us to God's will, and so build up his strength within us (Ps.). In baptism we have died to Christ, and have been raised to life with him (2).

OUR PARISH

Increase of Faith, Hope and Love

Jesus encourages to pray with persistence. Not just to keep asking, but to have a rhythm of prayer in our lives – times when we pray, places, spontaneity during the day. He also gives an indication of what it does for you. It brings an increase in faith, hope and love. We may not get the specific intention we ask for, but we always get the Holy Spirit. In asking, knocking on God's door, in seeking, we always find God opening to us, giving us something, and finding a new rootedness in life.

WEEKLY ACTIVITIES

Christian Meditation Group. In an age of rush and noise, it is essential that we find time to be still and quiet. "Be still and know that I am God," says the Psalmist. In this prayer of silence called Christian Meditation we find God who dwells in our own heart. And, in finding Him, we find our own selves and thus, are renewed. A Christian Meditation Group regularly meets Mondays at 4:00pm in the Chapel. Please call Fran at 488-4229 to learn more about this program.

Legion of Mary. The Legion of Mary is an international evangelical organization dedicated to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. There are weekly prayer meetings each Wednesday at 8:45am following the 8:00am morning Mass, in St. Anne's Room Room (in parish office). Interested? Please call Maggie at 483-6897, Gloria at 916-487-5203 or the parish office at 916-481-5115.

SCHOOL & YOUTH MINISTRY

Share what you love about being Catholic

We choose to be Catholics because we know joyful practice help us to become the people God wants us to be. A good way to help children to find the same joy in our faith is to share what we love about it ourselves:

"My grandmother prayed the Rosary everyday of her life", said Lisa. "When I was old enough she gave me my own Rosary and taught me how to pray it. This prayer has helped me through many tough times in my life and I pray it often with my own children."

"I enjoy celebrating the seasons of the liturgical year and marking the milestones of our faith", said Chris. "My children love changing the colors of our displays, singing seasonal hymns, and learning stories of saints from long ago."

"I fell away from Church when I was in college," said Erica. Then I started dating a man who was devout a Catholic and I went to Mass a few times with him. We fell in love and he asked that I go to confession so we could receive Communion together. I did it for him, but felt such a thrill when I heard the words of absolution and realized that Jesus really did forgive me. Now we tell our children that Confession brought us together."

Please continue to save the Box Tops for Education. Thank you to everyone who turned them in to the school. We earned $1,000.00 for the school with them!

DID YOU KNOW?

Ordinary Time

Ordinary time...it sounds so plain after a long and beautiful Easter season. Yet Ordinary Time is what we call the long summer season where green is the primary color in the church. Why green? Green is a sign of growth and life to us Catholics. It symbolizes our ever-growing faith.

Why do we call it Ordinary Time? Ordinary Time is that part of the liturgical year when no particular moment or aspects of the Christian mystery (Christ's birth, death, and resurrection) is celebrated. There are two phases of Ordinary Time. The shorter phase takes place during winter between the Season of Christmas and the Season of Lent. The longer one goes through the summer and fall between the Season of Easter and the Season of Advent.

So, delight in the summer season and the green. Let it remind us of our ever-growing faith and need and love for Christ. It gives us time to glory in his creation as we prepare to celebrate His Birth again!

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

Question for Children: Prayer is talking with God and listening to God in our hearts. Where do you talk to God and how do you listen to what God says to you?

Question for Youth: Jesus teaches us how important it is to pray. How do you ask God for what you need? How do you listen for his response?

Question for Adults: Jesus teaches us how to pray. When this past week did you take the time to pray, to talk to and listen to God?

POPE FRANCIS TWEETS

Pope Francis

@Pontifex

"We pray for the sick who are abandoned and left to die. A society is human if it protects life, every life, from its beginning to its natural end, without choosing who is worthy to live or who is not. Doctors should serve life, not take it away."

WORD OF LIFE

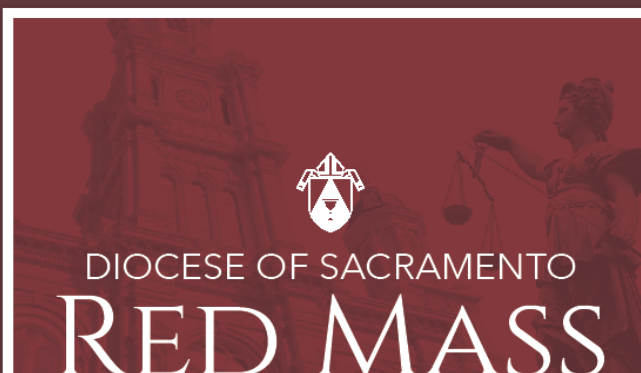

God, our Spouse and Lord of Life

“The fact that we know that we are right about the sacred value of human life should make us humble and more determined to spread this message by the love shown in our lives and our willingness to be servants of life. As St. John reminds us, “If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us.” Pro-lifers are convinced – mightily convinced – of the boundless mercy of God. That is the light we bring to the world: the truth about God's love, about forgiveness, about the beauty of human life in all its stages and states.”

- J. Michael Miller, CSB, Archbishop of Vancouver, Jan 12, 2010

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

Do not forget the Creator

"The heavens declare the glory of God, The vault of heaven proclaims his handiwork"

Psalms 19.1

To you, humanity, who look with pleasure on the works of your hand, the fruit of your genius, Christ says to you: Do not forget the One who gave birth to us all! Do not forget the Creator!

Further, the more profoundly you know the laws of nature, the more you discover its wealth and potential, the more intensely you must remember him.

Do not forget the Creator – Christ tells us – and respect Creation! Do your work using the resources that God has given you as they should be used! Transform these riches with the help of science and technology, but do not abuse them; be neither a usurper nor an exploiter, without considering the goods that have been created! Do not destroy or contaminate! Remember your neighbor and the poor! Think of the future generations!

- Saint John Paul II

Be a GOOD STEWARD
over God's Creation.

THEN THE LORD
GOD TOOK THE MAN AND PUT HIM IN THE GARDEN OF EDEN TO TEND AND KEEP IT.

GENESIS 2:15

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHTS

17th Sunday in Ordinary Time Good Stewardship

"Ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you." LUKE 11:9

Jesus assures us that if we ask, God will take care of what we need. The problem is that our culture often confuses what we really need with what we simply want. Many people need very little. However, we usually want so much more. A good Steward only asks God for what he needs.
