OUR PARISH

A warning against greed

One could argue that the rich man is not foolish because he makes provision for the future. But his own future is his only concern, not that of others. He does not think to use his abundance to help others. Lord, make me a grateful person, aware that all that is good in my life comes from you, and is held I trust, for others.

DID YOU KNOW?

Church Councils

Let's go for a different topic today. While teaching a class recently it became necessary to explain something that happened due to a church council. Believe it or not, there are major points of teaching that were set by Councils.

The first time we hear of a "council" is actually in Acts of the Apostles (Acts 15:1-12) and St. Paul's Letter to the Galatians (Galatians 2:1-10). While this is not counted among the councils because it was only attended by the Apostles, it is the first time clarification was needed to verify Church teaching. In this case, it was about circumcision and whether it was necessary in order to follow Christ. (By the way, the answer was no since circumcision was a sign of the old covenant (Mosaic law) and not the new.)

An ecumenical (general) council is a gathering of the bishops of the world called together by the pope to share the responsibility of teaching and guiding the Church.

There have been twenty-one such worldwide councils. The first seven, "The Seven Great Councils of the Early Church," are the only ones on which many Eastern and Western Churches agree; they are the only test of orthodoxy among many Eastern Churches separated from Rome.

1. Nicaea I, 325
2. Constantinople, 381
3. Ephesus, 431
4. Chalcedon, 451
5. Constantinople II, 553
6. Constantinople III, 680-681
7. Nicaea II, 787

These first Councils were also central in defending the teachings of the Apostles about things such as Jesus' divinity and humanity, Trinity, and Mary as the Mother of God. They were battles against the heresies of Arius, Nestorius, Macedonius, Pelagius, and Monophysitism. This is more than you probably want to know, but it is important to realize that these councils mattered.

SPIRITUAL GROWTH

SOMETHING TO PONDER ABOUT

All Will Be Well

There can be so much chaos in our world and in our lives. So many people are flooded by experiences of violence, war, famine and disaster. Of course, sometimes it's not big headline news that creates chaos for us and leaves us feeling flooded. Sometimes it's everyday stuff: debt, worry, grief, poor self-image, hatred, broken relationships, and addiction. At some stage or other in our lives we have all had the feeling of being flooded, of being overwhelmed.

In Psalm 29:10 we read, 'The Lord sits enthroned above the flood'. This line can remind us also of the image from Genesis of the Spirit 'hovering over the chaos.' However, God doesn't just hover over the chaos. God joins us in our chaos. It's more challenging to see God in our chaos than in the good times, but God is no less present in our chaos. God's presence consoles us and challenges us at the same time. God consoles us through God's immense love for us and assurance that all will be well in the end. God challenges us to see God in all things. When we do see God in all things, in all people, we want to reach out and help/serve those we can, thereby becoming the presence of good, i.e. God, in the chaos for others.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

Question for Children: What is the most important thing in your life?

Question for Youth: It is easy to get self-centered and greedy. What do you have in your life that is unnecessary? In your life, what keeps you close to God? What distracts you from your relationship with God?

Question for Adults: What wisdom do you pull out of this reading to help you set priorities in your life?

WORD OF LIFE

Love Can Make The "Unwanted Child" Wanted!

"One hundred fifty years ago, President Abraham Lincoln issued the Emancipation Proclamation declaring that slaves held in Confederate territory were free men and women. One hundred fifty years later, children in every part of the country still face the degradation and hopelessness of the practice President Lincoln sought to end. For the last 40 years and even earlier in some states, many of our judges and lawmakers have treated people like property. They've held babies in the womb to be like chattel, possessions to be discarded or destroyed, with their mothers cast as owners.

These officials, along with the abortion industry itself, feign ignorance of the unborn child's humanity.... We can't stop all evil in this fallen world, but we can fight it in our own neck of the woods with love. Love never ends. Love can save lives.

Love declares that there is no such thing as an unwanted child.... With love, children are adopted, not aborted. With love, children are cherished, not abused. With love, there is less room for the oppressor because his hunting grounds are smaller. We simply need to see no child as unwanted and it can start with just one. One life loved can make all the difference. After all, one life changed the entire world." ~Alveda King

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHTS

August 4, 2019

Stewardship Values

18th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions." LUKE 12:15

The Gospel message today is contrary to our modern culture where advertising continually tries to convince us that our value lies in the things we possess. Jesus showed us that our true value lies in the way we live our lives. He challenges us to not hoard material possessions, but rather to live a grateful and generous life of Stewardship becoming more "other-centered" and less "self-centered."

STEWARDSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Do you have a few hours each week that you would like to devote to some volunteer and charitable endeavor? The St. Vincent de Paul society of our Parish could use your assistance in our food locker or on a home visitation team. Drop by our facility any Tuesday or Thursday from 8:45 am to 11:00 am, and see what we are all about. We are located in the metal building north of the school. Or you may also call the SVdP office at 916-481-6352, for more information.

Drivers Needed for St. Vincent de Paul

Drivers needed with truck or SUV to pick up food from various sources and transport to Our Lady of the Assumption's St. Vincent de Paul food locker facility. Needed especially for Tuesday or Thursday and takes about 3 hours (7am to 10 am) to perform this vital function to help provide for the pressing needs of our OLA parish community. We also need drivers for Monday, Friday and Saturday mornings to pick up early and or be able to substitute for drivers when on vacation. Please contact Marylee Johnson at 916-3591225 or email at jmjohn@surewest.net, if you can help. Thank you!
