OUR PARISH

Jesus gives eternal life to all who believe in Him

In the Gospel for today the Church continues its meditation on the sixth chapter of the Gospel of John where Jesus declared Himself as the Bread that came down from Heaven to give eternal life. Eternal life means much more than the life we will share with Jesus in Heaven. It means that even now, through faith in Jesus Christ, we share the life of God, which is love. This is the love that St. Paul, in the second reading, challenges us to live. He says we are to be compassionate, loving, and forgiving like Christ. The first reading reminds us that God does not abandon us, but feeds us with life for the journey even when, like the prophet Elijah, we feel like giving up. Through our communion with Jesus we are given the strength and the Grace to accomplish the works of love that God has destined for us.

OLA SCHOOL NEWS

OLA SCHOOL STATEMENT OF PHILOSOPHY

The faith community of Our Lady of the Assumption School is based on Catholic teachings as expressed through the message of the Gospel of Jesus. Each student is a unique creation of God. Students, in partnership with parents, teachers, staff, and the parish community, strive to grow and develop spiritually, morally, intellectually, personally, socially, physically, and culturally. Parents are recognized as the primary educators of their children and teachers as the facilitators of learning. In addition to learning Catholic teachings, students within our faith community develop an awareness and practice of social justice and respond with opportunities for Christian outreach and service. As students are faced with growing challenges and complexities of life in the 21st century, they develop patterns of thought and behavior that bring forth age-appropriate Christian responses that will be based on Catholic ideals and the examples of Jesus Christ.

"The greatest love story of all time is contained in a tiny white Host."

-Ven. Fulton J. Sheen.

How did the celebration of the Assumption come about in the Catholic Church?

A very simplified “history” of the Church’s celebration of the Assumption goes like this:

- As early as 451 AD, the cycle of readings used by the Armenian Church shows evidence of a Feast honoring Our Lady’s exaltation in heaven after her life on earth closes.
- In 602 AD, the Emperor Maurice established throughout the entire Roman Empire, a celebration that commemorated Our Lady’s passage from this world. The Feast of the Dormition of Mary,” as it was known in the East, would eventually come to be known in the Latin Rite (Roman Catholic) of the Church as “The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary.” It should be noted that at this time in both the Church and the Roman Empire, the Feast of the Theotokos (pronounced Thay-yo-toke-kos, which means, “Mother of God”) was already an established celebration. The Pausation (Assumption of Mary) was celebrated along with these other “ancient” Marian Feasts: the Purification (February 2), the Annunciation (March 25), and the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary (September 8).
- By 687-701 AD, the Feast of the Assumption was being celebrated in Rome by Pope Sergius – at that time the Assumption was known by the name Pausatio (pronounced pow-sot-see-yo).
- It was not until the 8th century that the Feast was given the title “The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary” in the Gregorian Sacramentally. Key features of the celebration at the time included: a night procession from the Church of St. Adrian to St. Mary Major in Rome; there was a vigil and fasting, and a special Collect (opening prayer) was used from this time all the way up until 1566. On November 1, 1950, the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary was solemnly defined as dogma of the Catholic Church by Pope Pius XII.

Marian Reflection

Listen: “Love in its nature is an ascension in Christ and an assumption in Mary...One thing is certain: the Assumption is easy to understand if one loves God deeply, but it is hard to understand if one loves not.”

~Ven. Fulton Sheen

Ponder: How do I ascend with Christ? What do I understand about Mary’s Assumption? How is love an assumption in Mary?

Respond: Lord Jesus Christ, you have risen body and soul to the right hand of the Father; remember me that I may also rise.

Theme: Jesus the Living Bread

Breaking Open the Word

Suggested text for faith sharing: Today’s Gospel

Step One: Listen to the Word

As you hear this reading, what words or phrases strike you? How do these words of Jesus touch your heart? What single line remains in your memory?

Step Two: Look into Your Life

Question for Children: Name one way that your faith nourishes you? How does it help your life?

Question for Youth: Bread nourishes us physically, and Jesus as the living bread nourishes spiritually. How can you be more open to Jesus and the ways that he can feed you?

Question for Adults: What nourishes your life? What does the phrase “living bread” mean for you?

OUR FAITH TEACHES

WELCOMING THE REFUGEE AND MIGRANT

What Scripture Teaches

In Genesis, God calls on Abraham to abandon his home and migrate to a new land. Later, Jacob and the Israelites follow Joseph to Egypt, migrants escaping a famine in their homeland. In the Book of Exodus, the tribes of Israel flee Egypt and wander in the desert for 40 years, refugees in search of the Promised Land.

This early history of migration had a profound impact on the Israelites. Hospitality was a prized virtue, and in Leviticus the people were told that they must love the foreigner in their midst:

“When an alien resides with you in your land, do not mistreat such a one. You shall treat the alien who resides with you no differently that the natives born among you; you shall love the alien as yourself; for you too were once aliens in the land of Egypt” (19:33-34).

This theme continues in the Nativity story, The Holy Family became refugees when they fled to Egypt to escape Herod’s slaughter of the innocents. Later in Mathew (8:20) Jesus describes himself as one without a home who “has nowhere to rest his head.”

The word parish reflects our own self-image as a pilgrim people. It comes from the Greek word paroikos, which means a body of migrants or sojourners living in a specific territory.

Jesus knows that our stewardship journey will be difficult; we are not designed to do it on our own. Fortunately, Jesus gave us the greatest gift of all – the gift of the Eucharist; His own body and blood. When we join our sacrifices with the sacrifice of the Mass, we find the strength and courage to be His joyful disciples.

St. Maximilian Kolbe August 14

Maximilian Kolbe was born in Poland on January 8, 1894. He was canonized on October 10, 1982 by Pope John Paul II, who acclaimed him as “martyr for Charity”, and also declared him “The Patron Saint of Our Difficult Century”.

He became a Franciscan monk as a teenager, and was later ordained as a priest who served a small parish community.

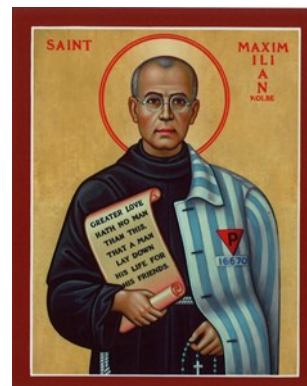

Maximilian created an association called the “Militia of Mary Immaculate,” which was dedicated to promote devotion to the Mother of God, and in doing so, bring others closer to Christ and his Church.

The Nazis arrested Maximilian in a purge of Poland's clergy and intellectuals. He was sent to the death camp in Auschwitz. On July 30, 1941, in retaliation for the escape of a prisoner from the camp, ten men in Maximilian's cellblock were chosen at random to be executed. Maximilian, seeing that one of the prisoners had a wife and children, volunteered to take the man's place. Maximilian and the other men were stripped naked, locked in a basement cell and left to starve to death. Impatient that prisoners were not dying fast enough, Maximilian and the other remaining prisoners were killed by a lethal injection on August 14, 1941.

While there are many things we can learn from the life of St. Maximilian Kolbe, one which stands out above others is the power of hope. Here we do not speak of hope as a natural human virtue, such as we might find in the personal conviction that we will somehow “get through the day” or complete a difficult task, but rather as one of the three theological virtues of faith, hope and charity that are infused into the human person by God.

In the midst of the world's dorkiness, we are called by our Baptism to be a light in the shadows of this fallen world. Saint Maximilian is one such light. His life and death stand as a testimony to Christ, the eternal light, whom the darkness cannot overcome.

For too many Christians, the faith is a safe routine, a kind of philosophy of self-improvement, something meant to be comfortable and comforting. The witness of St. Maximilian stands against this illusion. Christian faith is not so much about safety as it is about risk. It is meant to take us out into the world, into the shadows, to be a light to show the way home to those who live in darkness.
