OUR PARISH

Jesus offers eternal life

The Church continues to reflect on sixth chapter of St John's Gospel where Jesus said that He is the Bread of life that God gave to the world to give eternal life. Jesus, Who is God took a body like ours and came to live with us. He is God in the flesh which He took to destroy death and give eternal life to all who believe and feed on Him. He gave His Body and Blood to give us life. The giving of His Body and Blood shows His great love for us.

FULFILLING

The Queenship of Mary

Mary is Queen because she is uniquely conformed to her Son, both on the earthly journey and in heavenly glory. Ephrem the Syrian, Syria's great saint, said of Mary's queenship that it derives from her motherhood: she is Mother of the Lord, of the King of Kings (cf. Is 9:1-6) and she points Jesus out to us as our life, our salvation, and our hope....

She shares in God's responsibility for the world and in God's love for the world.... The royalty and kingship of Christ is interwoven with humility, service, and love. It is above all serving, helping, and loving....

Mary is Queen in her service to God for humanity; she is a Queen of love who lives the gift of herself to God so as to enter into his plan of man's salvation... She helps us. She is Queen precisely by loving us, by helping us in our every need; she is our sister, a humble handmaid.

How does Mary exercise this queenship of service and love? By watching over us, her children: the children who turn to her in prayer, to thank her or to ask her for her motherly protection and her heavenly help, perhaps after having lost our way, or when we are oppressed by suffering or anguish because of the sorrowful and harrowing vicissitudes of life. In serenity or in life's darkness let us address Mary, entrusting ourselves to her continuous intercession so that she may obtain for us from the Son every grace and mercy we need for our pilgrimage on the highways of the world.

Through the Virgin Mary let us turn with trust to the One who rules the world and holds in his hand the future of the universe....

The title "Queen" is thus a title of trust, joy, and love. And we know that the One who holds a part of the world's destinies in her hand is good, that she loves us and helps us in our difficulties.

(Source: Pope Benedict XVI, Magnificat)

Marian Reflection

Listen: "The modern man gets back to nothingness through despair; the Christian knows nothingness only through self-negation, which is humility . . . Mary went so deep down into Nothingness that she became exalted... And her exaltation was also her Assumption."

~Ven. Fulton Sheen

Ponder: Which form of nothingness do I experience most often? Where do I find God in nothingness? How can such humility bring exaltation?

Respond: Mother Mary, give me your wisdom that I might embrace my lowliness. also rise.

Theme: Eternal Life.

Breaking Open the Word

Suggested text for faith sharing: Today's Gospel

Step One: Listen to the Word

As you hear this reading about Jesus as the living bread, what words or phrases strike you? What part of this promise touches you most deeply?

Step Two: Look into Your Life

Question for Children: How does receiving communion help you grow in your faith? How does it help you love others?

Question for Youth: Jesus promises us eternal life if we follow him and believe. What makes it hard for you to believe? What is easy about faith?

Question for Adults: How does your faith in Jesus nourish your own life? How does the Eucharist nourish you?

OUR FAITH TEACHES

WELCOMING THE REFUGEE AND MIGRANT

"God Shows No Partiality"

From its earliest days, the Church viewed itself as a pilgrim people, "strangers in a strange land" (Exodus 2:22). Jesus embraced the undesirable – the leper and the Samaritan – and taught in Matthew 25: "For I was hungry and you gave me food... a stranger and you welcomed me..."

His followers understood that they were to see the face of Christ in the other, and that Jew or Greek, free or slave, all are made in the image of God and therefore possess equal dignity. "God shows no partiality," Paul tells us (Romans 2:11).

The Compendium of the Social Doctrine of the Church teaches that "since something of the glory of God shines on the face of every person, the dignity of every person before God is the basis of the dignity of man before other men."

This notion that we all have equal dignity because we all are made in the image and likeness of God is central to the Church's social Gospel, and central to its teaching on the treatment of migrant and refugees.

St Joseph Calasanz (Calasancius) August 25

Joseph Calasanz was a Spanish priest, born in Aragon (Spain) in 1557. He was well educated in philosophy, law and theology. His father wanted him to marry and continue the family, but on recovery from an illness which brought him close to death, he decided to become a priest.

In 1592 Joseph went to Rome, where he became a theologian in the service of Cardinal Marcoantonio Colonna and a tutor to his nephew; he also worked alongside St. Camillus de Lellis during the plague that hit Rome at the time and helped carry the bodies of the dead on his own shoulders to burial.

Rome offered a splendid field for works of charity, especially for the instruction of neglected and homeless children, many of whom had lost their parents. Joseph joined a Confraternity of Christian Doctrine and gathered the boys and girls from the streets and brought them to school. After some struggles with the teachers and with the help of some fellow priests, in November of 1597, he opened the first public free school in Europe. He was a man of great moral courage. He accepted Jewish children into his schools and made sure they were treated equally.

He founded the Clerks Regular of the Christian Schools (Piarists) and suffered many trials in later life at the hands of jealous colleagues and Church authorities, due to his friendship with the scientist Galileo Galilei; he shared and defended Galileo's heliocentric view of the cosmos and even after Galileo was condemned and became blind, he stood by him. He was noted especially for his patience in the midst of suffering.

Joseph Calasanz died in Rome on August 25, 1648, at the age of 90. Eight years after his death, Pope Alexander VII cleared his name and that of the Pious Schools. He was beatified in 1748 by Pope Benedict XIV and canonized by Pope Clement XIII in 1767. In 1948, Pope Pius XII declared him the patron of Christian popular schools. Today the congregation has 1421 members in 32 countries on four continents (Europe, Asia, Africa and America).

Among those taught in Piarist schools were Francisco Goya, Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart, Franz Schubert, Gregor Mendel, and Victor Hugo. A beautiful painting of him by Francisco de Goya entitled The Last Communion of Saint Jose de Calasanz (1819) hangs in the Church of the Escuelas Pias de San Antón, Madrid, Spain.
