When we commit to serve the Lord, we must be willing to become a partner in the work of the Lord. A partner is a person who invests time in prayer every day, joyfully participates in charitable works and generously supports the parish and Church mission. ### Saint Monica Feast Day: August 27

Our knowledge of St. Monica comes almost entirely from the writings of her much-loved son, the great Doctor of the Church, St. Augustine of Hippo. His relationship with his mother was a close one, especially during Monica's last years. In Book IX of St. Augustine's <Confessions> he gives us many details of her life, and expresses his gratitude for her devotion in moving terms. Monica was born about the year 332 in Tagaste, North Africa, of a Christian family of some substance. Early in life she struggled with alcoholism, sneaking draughts of wine from the family cellar, before being caught and subsequently giving up the habit. She was later given in marriage to a pagan Roman man, Patricius. He was not an entirely bad man, but was licentious and had a violent temper; Monica had to endure this daily as well as live with his similarly ill-tempered mother.

Monica suffered greatly, and she fervently prayed for long years for the conversion of her family members. Her patience and kindness became a source of encouragement to other unhappy housewives with whom she came in contact. Monica gave birth to three children and was grieved that her husband would not allow them to be baptized.

Her eldest son, Augustine, was the most wayward of her children and caused her the most pain, and for his conversion she prayed fervently for years. Monica made her life mission to convert her husband and son to Christianity. Through her persistence in prayer and good example, her husband (and her mother-in-law) became a Christian shortly before his death.

Meanwhile Augustine was caught up with heretical sects and moved away to Milan, Saint Monica followed him. A holy bishop comforted her, saying, "The child of those tears shall never perish."

Monica became friends with the Bishop of Milan, Saint Ambrose, who eventually led Augustine to convert to the Christian faith. He was baptized shortly before her death, but not before they had spent peace-filled, joyous days together, discussing the mysteries of God, whom they loved so much.

There is much we can learn from the life of Saint Monica to better our own spiritual journeys and relationships with those we love the most. Here are five integral aspects of her life and devotion to our Lord that we can mirror to become better in all the facets of our lives: Perseverance in prayer, Patience in the midst of conflict, Self-sacrifice, Expectant faith, Seeking the help of others.

Prayer makes us see the signs of God in History

Prayer is, as it were, an open window that enables us to keep our gaze turned to God, not only to remember the destination towards which we are bound but also to let God's will illuminate our earthly pilgrimage and help us live it with intensity and commitment.

The Book of Revelation tells us that prayer nourishes this vision of light and of deep hope in each one of us and in our communities: it invites us not to let ourselves be overcome by evil, but to overcome evil with good, to look at the Crucified and Risen Christ who associates us with his victory.

The Church lives in history, she does not withdraw into herself but courageously continues on her journey through difficulty and suffering, forcefully asserting that in the end evil does not overcome good, that darkness does not conceal God's splendor. This is an important point for us; as Christians we can never be pessimistic; we know well that on our journey through life we often encounter violence, falsehood, hatred and persecution, but this does not discourage us. Prayer teaches us above all to see God's signs, his presence and his action, indeed, to be lights of goodness ourselves, spreading hope and showing that the victory is God's.

The Book of Revelation, despite the complexity of its symbols, involves us in an extremely rich prayer, which is why we too listen, praise, give thanks, contemplate the Lord and ask him for forgiveness. Its structure as a great liturgical prayer of the community is also a strong appeal to recognize the extraordinary, transforming power of the Eucharist. I would particularly like to extend a pressing invitation to be faithful to Sunday Mass on the Lord's Day, Sunday, the true center of the week!

Marian Reflection

Listen: "Let us not imagine that we obscure the glory of the Son by the great praise we lavish on the Mother; for the more she is honored, the greater is the glory of her Son."

~St. Bernard of Clairvaux

Ponder: How does honoring Mary increase the glory of Jesus? How do I honor Mary?

Respond: Giver of All Gifts, you are good and gracious!

Family Connection

Theme: Jesus - the Bread of Life Eternal

Breaking Open the Word

Suggested text for faith sharing: Today's Gospel

Step One: Listen to the Word

As you hear this reading, what words or phrases strike you? What in this reading touches your heart?

Step Two: Look into Your Life

Question for Children: Who and what help you believe in Jesus?

Question for Youth: Who do you know who really struggles with believing? What can you do to help them struggle through doubt?

Question for Adults: To whom do you go when you are looking for meaning or answers to life's questions?

OUR FAITH TEACHES

WELCOMING THE REFUGEE AND MIGRANT

"What our Church Teaches"

During all this movement, the Church sought to minister to refugees and to protect their rights, both in their homelands and their adopted lands.

We are to love our neighbor as ourselves, Christ said. And in the words of Pope Benedict XVI, "Anyone who needs me and whom I can help is my neighbor."

During his visit to the United States, Pope Francis spoke as brother to us: "We, the people of this continent, are not fearful of foreigners, because most of us were once foreigners. I say this to you as the son of immigrants, knowing that so many of you are also descended from immigrants."

And he called on us to remember the Golden Rule: "Let us treat other with the same passion and compassion with which we want to be treated. Let us seek for others the same possibilities which we would like to be helped ourselves. In a word, if we want security, let us give security, if we want life, let us give life; if we want opportunities, let us provide opportunities."

St. John Paul II taught that ministering to the needs of the refugee or migrant does not depend on legal status: An "irregular legal status cannot allow the migrant to lose his dignity, since he is endowed with inalienable rights that can neither be violated nor ignored."

OUR PARISH

Lord You have the Words of eternal life

When Jesus fed the crowd they got excited and wanted to make Him King, but Jesus was interested in giving them an eternal Kingdom; eternal life, not an earthly kingdom. He told them He was the bread of life that came from Heaven to give them eternal life. Many got disappointed and left Him but Simon Peter and the other disciples were with Jesus for the long haul. They understood that His words were life and spirit. When Jesus asked them if they too wanted to leave Him Peter responded: "Lord to whom should we go, you have the words of eternal life and we have come to believe that you are the Holy One from God." We too believe in His Words and recognize Him as Our Savior.
