OUR PARISH

Gospel Reflection

Nobody is excluded from the healing touch of God

The man of the Gospel is doubly afflicted – being a foreigner he suffers isolation and is also excluded by his physical impairment. Jesus' action initiates a new age. He doesn't heal from a distance. He comes close enough to touch us, one by one. He indeed does all things well.

THE FULFILLING PROMISE
OUR LADY OF THE ASSUMPTION

Please say this special prayer for our Parish as we all continue our work to make the Capital Campaign a success. God Bless OLA!

Loving God,
at this time in the life of our Parish,
we turn to You with grateful hearts for what we have,
and with great anticipation
for what is yet to be.
Bless us with a sense of unity,
a spirit of cooperation,
and a generous sacrificial heart
as we face the responsibilities and challenges of this Capital Campaign.
We know there is much to do.
We believe our goals are rooted in Your Word and in Your Work.
These are not just buildings,
but the fulfillment of a promise and the renewal of our Parish.
Please guide us, strengthen us,
and bless us with Your Presence,
now and through the years to come.
We ask this through Jesus Christ,
Your Son,
Who lives and reigns forever.
Amen.

On the Way With Jesus

In this Liturgical Year during which the Gospel of St. Luke is proclaimed, we journey with Jesus as He goes up to Jerusalem. There He will give of His life revealing to us what it means to be faithful disciples. Jerusalem is deeply symbolic of "going home" to God – a journey we are invited to do in every moment of our lives. We pray in the Jerusalem of our hearts, we worship in the Temple of our souls, and we journey to God in our care for one another and all the World. This Retreat invites us to walk anew, as if for the first time, in the footsteps of Jesus.

“Did not God choose those who are poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom that he promised to those who love him?” James 2:5

What is more important – being rich in faith or rich in possessions? Society teaches us that possessions are most important. God teaches a different lesson. When we are rich in faith, we keep God first in all things and realize that material things really don't matter and that it's more important to share with those who have less.

St. John Chrysostom Feast day: September 13

John was born in Antioch on c.347, well educated; studied rhetoric under Libanius, one of the most famous orators of his day. Monk, preacher and priest for a dozen years in Syria. While there he developed a stomach ailment that troubled him the rest of his life.

This incomparable doctor of the Church, on account of the fluency and sweetness of his eloquence, obtained soon after his death the surname of Chrysostom or Golden Mouth, which we find given him by Saint Ephrem of Antioch, Theodoret, and Cassiodorus. But his tender piety, and his undaunted courage and zeal in the cause of virtue, are titles far more glorious, by which he holds an eminent place among the greatest pastors and saints of the church.

His sermons were always on point, they explained the Scriptures with clarity, and they sometimes went on for hours. Made a reluctant bishop of Constantinople in 398, a move that involved him in imperial politics. He criticized the rich for not sharing their wealth, fought to reform the clergy, prevented the sale of ecclesiastical offices, called for fidelity in marriage, encouraged practices of justice and charity. He was Archbishop and Patriarch of Constantinople and revised the Greek Liturgy. Because John's sermons advocated a change in their lives, some nobles and bishops worked to remove him from his diocese; he was twice exiled from his diocese. On 407 he was banished to Pythius; on the journey his sickness increased, and he was warned that his end was nigh. Thereupon, exchanging his travel-stained clothes for white garments, he received Viaticum, and with his customary words, "Glory be to God for all things, amen," passed to Christ.

He was proclaimed Doctor of the Church on 451.

Matthew 25 Medicine Bottle Project

In September we will move the Medicine Bottle Project to the 4th Saturday, September 22nd, at 9am in St. Paul's Room. We hope to see you there. Also, we are looking for bottle washers! If you can help, please call the office and leave your contact information! Thanks!
