OUR PARISH

Jesus came to seek the lost...

In our Eucharistic Prayer on Reconciliation number 1 we pray: "when we were lost you loved us more than ever for Your Son Who alone is Just handed Himself for us." This is the nature of God who constantly offers forgiveness and reconciliation for He desires that all people be saved. Unfortunately the Pharisees and scribes, and all who are like them, do not understand this. Jesus addressed to them the parables of the lost sheep and of the prodigal son, one of the most beautiful stories ever told. Like Jesus, the mission of the Church is to seek the lost and offer them the Good News of Salvation in Jesus Christ. If people repent and convert to Christ, they are saved and receive His amazing Grace that comforts and guides them. In our Parish there are many people who take it seriously to help their brothers and sisters. I invite you to check out our ministries next weekend and pray for the Holy Spirit to guide you on how you could get involved.

POPE'S TALKS TO YOUTH

Do not let go of joy, Pope Francis urges youth in Mozambique

Pope Francis encouraged young people of different faiths in Mozambique Thursday.

"How do you make your dreams come true? How do you help to solve your country's problems?" the pope asked, repeating questions asked him by Mozambican young people.

"My words to you are these. Do not let yourselves be robbed of joy. Keep singing and expressing yourselves in fidelity to all the goodness that you have learned from your traditions. Let no one rob you of your joy!"

The interreligious meeting with youth was held at the Maxaquene Pavilion. Maxaquene is a sports club based in Maputo.

During the encounter, Pope Francis told the estimated 4,500 young people present that "together, you are the beating heart of this people and all of you have a fundamental role to play in one great creative project: to write a new page of history, a page full of hope, peace and reconciliation."

"I would like to ask you a question," he added. "Do you want to write this page? When you were singing you sang the word reconciliation."

He also told them "God loves you, and this is something on which all our religious traditions are agreed." For him, you have worth; you are not insignificant. You are important to him, for you are the work of his hands and he loves you," he said.

SPIRITUAL GROWTH

SOMETHING TO PONDER ON

Mystics in the Making: In Celebration of the Season of Creation

The popular image of a mystic is of someone who spends a lot of time alone in solitary prayer, cut off from the distracting world. The mysticism of nature, however, is a gift for everyone in the audience!

The Pope says:

To sense each creature singing the hymn of its existence is to live joyfully in God's love and hope. This contemplation of creation allows us to discover in each thing a teaching which God wishes to hand on to us, since for the believer; to contemplate creation is to hear a message, to listen to a paradoxical and silent voice (85, Laudato Si')

To be a mystic, then you don't have to be a person whose knees are wearing out – though God draws some hearts to that silent intimacy. All you have to do is to look long and lovingly at creation, and let it speak to your heart. Do this for a while today, and you will experience what it is like 'to live joyfully in God's love and hope'. Every garden is a divine schoolroom.

~Excerpted from Finding God in a Leaf – The Mysticism of Laudato Si' by Brian Grogan SJ

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

Question for Children: The father in this story welcomed his son home, even after he ran away and did bad things. How do you know God welcomes you after you do that?

Question for Youth: The prodigal son was welcomed home even though he had sinned. How hard is it for you to ask for forgiveness? Is it hard for you to believe that you are still loved even when you have sinned?

Question for Adults: When you wander away from being true to your faith, how do you know God will take you back? What signs do you see?

SUNDAY READINGS SYNOPSIS

Moses intercedes on behalf of the people who had turned away from the covenant (1). The Lord delights not in sin, but in turning back to him (3), for a contrite and humbled heart God will never spurn (Ps). He sent his son into the world not to condemn but to save sinners (2).

WORD OF LIFE

Abortion Removes the Unloved and Unwanted – Wrong

I was saddened when I read a letter which appeared to justify abortion because "it does away with the unwanted and unloved." What a callous, selfish and inhumane mentality! Are we to value life only if it is "productive" or "useful" to us, or happens to be "in favor" at any given time? What about children who become "unwanted" after birth? Should we allow mothers or fathers to murder such children, just because they are considered a "burden?"

After all, this is precisely the reason given by Susan Smith for drowning her two young sons -- because they were coming between her and her lover and had therefore become "unwanted."

But what makes the crime any different had she been eight months pregnant with her twins and aborted them to keep her boyfriend? Presumably, ardent pro-abortionists would have applauded her for making a sensible, morally-correct decision based on her own best interests.

The truth is that there is no justice in a system that allows innocent people to be harmed at the whim of others. Just as government has the responsibility and the right to prevent armed robbery, slavery and rape, it has the same responsibility and right to prevent the killing of innocent human beings, including those waiting to be born.

This Monday afternoon, September 16, the Independent Compensation Program (ICP) will begin accepting registrations. The Diocese of Sacramento is joining those in Los Angeles, Fresno, Orange, San Bernadino and San Diego in a program that brings compensation and justice to those who were sexually abused as minors by diocesan priests. All claims, regardless of how long ago they may have occurred, will be considered by the program. The ICP is independent, outside the control of any diocese. For more information, including how to submit a claim, please visit www.CaliforniaDiocesesICP.com. Let us always remember to pray for the victims of priest sexual abuse. As their pain is ongoing, so must our prayers for them be.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHTS

24th Sunday in Ordinary Time
Brings Lasting Values

Stewardship

"Everything I have is yours." LUKE 15:31

Our Heavenly Father gives us everything, including the chance to share in His eternal kingdom. Yet, like the Prodigal Son we are often lured away by the materialism of our society. Do we really want to turn our backs on Stewardship and all that God offers in exchange for a material wealth that has no lasting value?

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

Reach out in Love

We are all called to be accountable to one another. As brothers and sisters in Jesus Christ, we have a responsibility to reach out in love when we see someone lost and to offer support when the need is the greatest. In that same regard, we must never stand between a loved one and him. Our goal when it comes to those we love is to lead them toward heaven and eternal life with the source of all love, Jesus Christ.

This is the "why" of our stewardship. Our generosity and our giving of very selves back to God need to bear witness to the transforming power of Jesus. It is easy to fall into the trap of loving someone so much that we place them before God. We make our human relationships the main thing and ultimately make decisions that keep our loved ones away from that which they need the most. If we truly love another, we will offer them the example of how we love God even more than them.

We live in a world where romantic and parental love are seen as the highest forms of affection. Stories are often told in books and on the screen of how nothing will keep someone from his or her beloved. Although we are called to love one another, we must never be trapped into the portrayal of love that comes from the world. We are gifts from God to one another, and like all other gifts given to us, we are accountable to God for that which He has given. If you can give a loved one back to God completely, then you are worthy of their love in the first place.
