GOSPEL MEDITATION

The Baptism of the Lord

Luke 3:15-16, 21-22

In my second year of theology studies, I went to confession to a priest visiting the seminary for a three-day retreat. My heart wasn't in it. I was going through the motions. I confessed my sins and waited for his response. The priest said, "For your penance, I'd like you to go into the chapel and repeat the words 'You are my beloved Son, with you I am well pleased' (Luke 3:22) until they mean something to you." Easy penance, I thought.

But to my surprise, I struggled to say those words. I sensed a strong interior resistance blocking them. How could God be well-pleased with me? He couldn't be, I thought. A battle within me ensued. Two hours later, the resistance vanished, and I found myself able to speak, and claim as my own, those marvelous words. I emerged from the chapel with a new, deep, peaceful conviction that I was indeed God's beloved son.

Those words are a precious gift from heaven to all of us. Jesus' baptism, which we celebrate this week, offers them to us. Are we willing to receive these words anew? Many things can block this deepening of our baptismal identity: failings, sins, disappointments, traumas, problems, and so on. Yet God's love is always greater. This week I challenge you to prayerfully repeat these words over yourself – or perhaps over someone you're struggling to love – until those words find a home in your heart.

– Father John Muir ©LPI

For those in our community who have passed away...

All Souls

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

Amen.

Flocknote Database Update

Over the past year, parish staff have been working on a new database to improve how we manage parishioner information, registrations, and communications. The database is provided through Flocknote, which we have been using for the parish's electronic communications for a few years. We chose Flocknote for our database because it provides on-line access and a host of applications for our parish and parishioners to use. We will be sending out the giving information for your tax records for 2024 in January through Flocknote. To accomplish this, we need to ensure the parishioner information we have on file is correct.

We will be available in St. Paul's Room after all the Masses this weekend to assist you with updating your information and to instruct you on how to access your Flocknote account, including your Faith Formation and Enrichment Resources. You may also update/verify your information or register using the new parishioner registration webform (see bulletin page 3).

We are pleased to inform you that nearly all of our parish information has been successfully transferred to Flocknote from our previous system. Starting March 1, 2025, new parishioners will be able to register, current parishioners will be able to make changes to their information, and everyone will have easy access to their giving history and other important communications.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to reach out to Deacon Michael Tateishi via email at deacon@olaparish.net, or you may call the parish office.

Faith Enrichment and Formation Resources from Flocknote Engage

Did you know that our parish has Flocknote Engage, which includes free access to Bishop Barron's Word on Fire ENGAGE video library and study programs? All that is required is an OLA Parish Flocknote account.

Login to Flocknote and visit Word on Fire (WOF) Digital to watch any of the videos at any time. This is a robust faith formation resource that includes access to the popular Catholicism series and other study programs (including free pdf study materials).

Fr. Eduino encourages parishioners to gather in small groups to learn more about our faith. The Flocknote Engage library is a great resource if you want to bring together a small group to learn about a variety of topics. On Flocknote Engage, the educational series available include Catholicism, The Mass, The Sacraments, The Creed, The Pivotal Players, and so much more. If you have any questions or are interested in leading a group, please contact Casey Oliver at worship@olaparish.net.

St. Vincent de Paul Society - OLA Conference

Thank you for your continued support! On Thursday January 2nd we opened again after the holiday. A young woman with tears in her eyes told one of our servers that she was so grateful for the Christmas Giving Tree. She never imagined that someone would be that caring and generous. It made Christmas so special for her children, and it was very appreciated.

We need soup for the OLA Food Locker. We also need paper grocery bags. Please drop off donations at the parish office or in the church SVdP collection boxes.

For those who need assistance and live within our parish boundaries, the food locker is open Tuesdays and Thursdays from 10 A.M.-12 P.M. We can also help with utility and rent payments. Call (916) 481-6352 for more information.

Interested in volunteering for SVdP? Please call us at (916) 481-6352 to leave a message, or email Marylee Johnson at jmjohn@surewest.net.

Hats for the Homeless Appeal

Winter weather is now upon us, and the need for hats is great! Hats have already been distributed to Mercy Pedalers, Loaves and Fishes, and Carmichael HART and this will continue through March. Contributions are needed and much appreciated! They can be left in the containers at the back of church or at the parish office during office hours. Donations of yarn (#4 weight worsted machine washable) are also welcome. Gloves and scarves also welcome. Matt. 25:37-40. Questions? Contact Angie at amstrawn@comcast.net.

Weekly Meetings at OLA

Join Catholic in Recovery Wednesday nights at 6 p.m. in St. Anne's Room. The meetings combine the spiritual principles of 12-step recovery and the sacraments of the Catholic Church. Join others in recovery as we overlap scripture from Sunday's Mass readings, liturgical themes, and recovery topics with honest discussion and prayer. Confidentiality is protected. We welcome those recovering from any addiction, compulsion, or unhealthy attachment: alcoholism; drug addiction; compulsive overeating; restricted eating; lust/pornography addiction; gambling addiction; technology addiction; compulsive spending/debting; codependency; control, fear, resentment, and grief.

For more information, please go online to our website www.catholicinrecovery.com, or you may contact Bill B. at bbefort@bellsouth.net or at (561) 827-0624.
