OUR PARISH

Jesus's love heals all things

As Jesus continued His journey to Jerusalem ten people with leprosy cried out to Him to have mercy on them. Normally such people had to proclaim “unclean, unclean” when they saw someone, but, when these ten saw Jesus, they asked for mercy probably hoping that Jesus would give them a comforting word. Instead, Jesus healed them by restoring them to health, to their loved ones, and to the community. First of all, we learn from this that Jesus can heal all things and that love is the force that can heal all things. Let us cry out to Jesus, in faith, to heal us and, in gratitude, for His great love to reach out to all our hurting brothers and sisters in love.

Christian Meditation Group. In an age of rush and noise, it is essential that we find time to be still and quiet. “Be still and know that I am God,” says the Psalmist. In this prayer of silence called Christian Meditation we find God who dwells in our own heart. And, in finding Him, we find our own selves and thus, are renewed. A Christian Meditation Group regularly meets Mondays at 4:00pm in the Chapel. Please call Fran at 488-4229 to learn more about this program.

POPE'S TALKS TO YOUTH

Jesus, himself eternally young, wants to give us hearts that are ever young. God's word asks us to "cast out the old leaven that you may be fresh dough" (1 Cor 5:7). Saint Paul invites us to strip ourselves of the "old self" and to put on a "young" self (Col 3:9-10). In explaining what it means to put on that youthfulness "which is being renewed" (v. 10), he mentions "compassion, kindness, humility, meekness and patience, bearing with one another and forgiving each other if anyone has a complaint against another" (Col 3:12-13). In a word, true youth means having a heart capable of loving, whereas everything that separates us from others makes the soul grow old. And so he concludes: "above all, clothe yourselves with love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony" (Col 3:14).

Let us also keep in mind that Jesus had no use for adults who looked down on the young or lorded it over them. On the contrary, he insisted that "the greatest among you must become like the youngest" (Lk 22:26). For him age did not establish privileges, and being young did not imply lesser worth or dignity.

~ Christus Vivit of Holy Father Pope Francis

SPIRITUAL GROWTH

SOMETHING TO PONDER ON

A Civilization of Love

A civilization of love is everyone's dream. It is also the dream of God. It was the dream of Jesus, who commanded us to love one another as he loves us. It is the task of the Holy Spirit – with our participation – to bring about this civilization of love. God's dream cannot be otherwise, since God is love, and all relationships emanating from God are relationships of love. We are invited to enter into the divine vision of a world in harmony, where everyone is at home with one another, where all feel wanted and included, where everything is shared and each rejoices in the uniqueness of those around them. This vision would transfigure economics, politics, social life. But it demands that we move way beyond personal concerns. 'This pool of private charity must flow as a world-embracing sea.' Like God, we are to be committed to the common good, we are to be resolutely for our neighbors and our planet, even at personal cost. We live as one family in a common home, of which both the members and the contents are entrusted to us by God. This is Laudato Si's mystical way of seeing the world. There is a generosity all around us: we are caught into 'a universal fraternity that inspires us to love and accept the wind, the sun and the clouds' (228 Laudato Si'). Nature herself is filled with words of love'. We are to reciprocate that love.

~Excerpted from Finding God in a Leaf – The Mysticism of Laudato Si' by Brian Grogan SJ

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

Question for Children: Make up a prayer which tells God you are thankful for everything you have, even if it's not all you want.

Question for Youth: Only one of the lepers returned to give thanks. This past week, when have you stopped to thank someone for something good they have done for you? When have you thanked God this week?

Question for Adults: What are some ways you can think of to show gratitude to God? Make them concrete and real.

SUNDAY READINGS SYNOPSIS

The Lord has revealed his saving power to all the nations (Ps)! Naaman, a Syrian, is healed (1), and lepers are made whole, but only the Samaritan returns to give thanks (3). Let us remain steadfast in faith (2), and thankful for the Lord's blessings (Ps).

WORD OF LIFE

40 Days for Life Novena

Prayer of Saint John Paul II for Life prayer cards were distributed the weekend of September 28 & 29 after all masses. Help save lives by praying for an end to abortion from now through November 3. Don't forget to use your prayer cards to complete a nine day Novena. Just use the prayer card for nine days in a row to make the Novena. If you did not receive a prayer card, there are extra cards in the OLA parish office.

A Prayer for Life

O Mary, bright dawn of the new world,
Mother of the living, to you do we entrust the cause of life
Look down, O Mother, upon the vast numbers of babies not allowed to be born, of the poor whose lives are made difficult, of men and women who are victims of brutal violence, of the elderly and the sick killed by indifference or out of misguided mercy. Grant that all who believe in your Son may proclaim the Gospel of life with honesty and love to the people of our time.
Obtain for them the grace to accept that Gospel as a gift ever new, the joy of celebrating it with gratitude throughout their lives and the courage to bear witness to it resolutely, in order to build, together with all people of good will, the civilization of truth and love, to the praise and glory of God, the Creator and lover of life.
~Pope John Paul II

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHTS

28th Sunday in Ordinary Time Thankful Stewardship

"Has none but this foreigner returned to give thanks to God?" LUKE 17:18

Most of us live "easy" lives. We have food, shelter and clothing. We go on vacation every year and own a car or two. Most of us take this all for granted. Did you ever notice that people with the least amount of possessions are usually the most grateful? Shouldn't Stewardship be the other way around? Take time every day and thank God for all He has given you.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

Called to Compassion

What does a homeless person need? That may seem like an odd question since being homeless would indicate they certainly need a home. Beyond that though, what does a homeless person need? Most would guess the person needs food, money, clothing, medical care, and toiletries. Many parishes put together drives for those items. Is that all the person needs? It is easy to get caught up in all the things that easily come to mind so that we miss a key thing needed by someone homeless as well as all human beings: to be seen.

How many of us pass by homeless people and pretend they are not even there. We don't have money in our pocket, we don't have food to give, and we don't have material items that they need, so we offer them nothing. We don't even offer ourselves.

Welcoming someone with a kind word is free. Amazingly, we act like it costs us more than anything else. It is easier to hand someone $5 than it is to engage in a 15-second exchange of words. We talk about being generous, but we need to remember that sometimes the greatest gift we have to give is simply ourselves. The Jesus in me meets the Jesus in you. One day, you or I may find ourselves in a tough spot, and we will be looking for compassion. Let's hope that all those who profess to know Jesus don't simply pass on by pretending not to see us.
