Our Mission Statement

The Mission of the parish community at Our Lady of the Assumption Church is to proclaim the Word of God more fully, to gain a more intimate knowledge of God through our Catholic traditions, and to serve the people of God, especially in our efforts to meet the needs of the poor in our community, and when possible around the world. We strive to build a sense of community among our parishioners, with the wider Diocesan community, and with the entire family of God.

OUR PARISH

Jesus leads us to true greatness

In the Gospel for today, the Apostles John and James ask Jesus to grant them a high place in His Kingdom. Jesus teaches them and us to strive for true greatness, to become like Him which is to serve others. Jesus did not chastise the Apostles for their ambition, but, with love, led them to see what really matters in God's eyes and what God counts as greatness. Jesus wanted His disciples to be ambitious for the greater gift which is love. It is good to be ambitious. The world enjoys lots of blessings from people who were ambitious and set out to accomplish great things, especially when it was done for the good of humanity like the advances in medicine and technology. So Jesus is not telling us not to be ambitious. He is simply leading us to what is truly great, to live for others as He did.

How Do We Change Our Culture of Death?

Pope John Paul II noted that the structure of man's sin is characterized or manifest on a universal scale in our Culture of Death. He pointed out that the powerful are easily able to manhandle the weak (e.g. abortion and euthanasia).

The culture of death is not the result of philosophy or decrepit ethics, or political theory.

The culture of death is a result of sin committed freely by persons.

Thus it is fundamentally a personal problem, not a political one. So, the battle will not be won solely by a political action or movement, because the battle is not against human beings or arid philosophies, but is a battle against sin: "For our struggle is not with flesh and blood but with the principalities, with the powers, with the world rulers of this present darkness, with the evil spirits in the heavens" (Eph. 6:12).

Therefore, first and foremost, we must first recognize God's saving action and saving mission, and then participate in it. This has always been, and will always be the Church's role. We love because He loved us first (1 Jn. 4:19), and we spread that love through our testimony to the nations (Acts 1:8).

We must try to influence our culture with our words and deeds, realizing that the purpose of evangelization is always to introduce man to the Person of Christ, and the Person of Christ to man, that man might enter into His mystical body, the Church.

Thus, through grace attained by turning to Him, the culture of death can indeed be transformed, simply because the Gospel always has the power to transform the hearts of men...even when the culture seems most evil, hopeless and perverse.

WISDOM OF THE DAY

"If you say the Rosary faithfully until death, I do assure you that, in spite of the gravity of your sins, you shall receive a never fading crown of glory. For even if you are now on the brink of damnation, even if you have one foot in hell, even if you have sold your soul to the devil...sooner or later you will be converted and will amend your life and save your soul. If- you say the Rosary devoutly every day of your life."

~St. Louis de Montfort

Why Pray the Rosary

Many great popes, saints, and Christian leaders have exhorted us to pray the rosary. It's a powerful prayer, they say, one that can change your life, strengthen the family, bring peace to the world, convert entire nations, and win the salvation of souls.

But does the average person experience the rosary this way?

Many Catholics, unfortunately, have the impression that the rosary is not relevant for them. It might be a sacred prayer for very religious people—priests, religious sisters, and exceptional Catholics—but not for "an ordinary lay person like me." Even some devout Catholics admit that they are a bit intimidated by this prayer. They have tremendous respect for the rosary, know it's important, but feel bad that they don't love it more. Many view it as the marathon of Catholic devotions. "I know it's an important prayer, but it takes fifteen to twenty minutes. I'm too busy. I don't have time for that." "It's too hard to stay focused for that much time. I prefer shorter prayers."

Some have questions about the rosary: Does all this attention to Mary distract us from a relationship with God? Why do we repeat the same prayers over and over? Are we supposed to concentrate on the prayers, the mysteries, or both? Still others think the rosary is just plain boring—a monotonous, dry, mechanical way of talking to God, not as personal and meaningful as other forms of prayer. "It's like taking the garbage out for your wife. You know you should do it, but date night is more exciting." "Sure, the rosary might be good for you—like flossing your teeth—but it's not as interesting and meaningful to me as spiritual reading or adoration."

Others wonder if all the repetition has any meaning. "I know the rosary is important, but it just seems like rote prayer," one young adult said. "It's like saying magical words and something good is supposed to happen. What's the point? Is simply saying these words actually doing anything for me spiritually?"

But what if I were to show you that there is a lot more going on in the rosary than simply saying these words and counting them with beads? What if I were to tell you that the rosary is not beyond you—that you, wherever you may be in your relationship with God, can actually experience a profound, intimate, personal encounter with Jesus through this devotion? And what if you were to discover that there are many different ways to pray the rosary—indeed, some that can easily fit within your schedule and help you with whatever challenges you face right now in your life.

Think of the rosary as being like the ocean: There's something in it for everyone, whether you consider yourself a veteran mystic longing to go deeper in prayer with our Lord, a novice struggling to learn how to pray, or someone seeking the Lord's help, right now, with something going on in your life. The deep-sea explorer and the child making sand castles on the beach can fully enjoy the same ocean while playing at different levels. And this is true with the rosary.

Holy Hour of Adoration
October 25, 2018
St. John the Evangelist Parish

Join us at St. John the Evangelist Parish as we pray together for our Church and Priest.
A special Holy Hour of Adoration to the Blessed Sacrament with Meditations on the Seven Sorrows of Our Lady of Kibeho will take place in the main church on Thursday October 25, 2018 from 6:30-8:30 PM.

Kirkin' o' th' Tartan
Friday, November 30, at 7:00 PM
St. Michael's Episcopal Church

Come join us for the first Kirkin' o' th' Tartan at St. Michael's Episcopal Church, hosted by the Daughters of Scotia, Kilwinning Lodge # 203. There will be a special Evening Prayer Service in the church for the blessing of clan tartans, followed by a reception (desserts and beverages) in Johnstone Hall. There will be pipers, Highland dancers, a Scottish music ensemble, and lots of yummy shortbread and other Scottish sweets to make this a special event. The service will benefit the River City Food Bank at the Center at St. Matthew's.

Wearing of kilts and your tartan finery is encouraged (but not mandatory). You don't have to be Scottish to enjoy this evening of celebration.

Questions of the Week

Theme: We are called to serve as Jesus served.

Breaking Open the Word

Suggested text for faith sharing: Today's Gospel, the short form

Step One: Listen to the Word

When you hear Jesus' teaching today, what words or phrases strike you? What image from Mark's Gospel lingers in your memory?

Step Two: Look into Your Life

Question for Children: Name some ways that you can serve others.

Question for Youth: Jesus changed the way we think of leadership to be someone who serves others. How are you a leader in school, your family, the parish and/or your community?

Question for Adults: What are some times in your own life when you have the chance to be last instead of first?

“For the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many.” Mark 10:45

If you held a mirror up to your life, would it reflect God’s love and mercy? If you are struggling with this, try changing your attitude from “I want more” to “thank you God for everything you have given me, I have enough to share”. This change in perspective will bring you joy through service to others.

Ministry Spotlight

Knights of Columbus - Arden-Carmichael Council 4970

In a time when parish and fraternal societies were popular, Father Michael J. McGivney, a parish pastor in New Haven, Connecticut, felt there should be some way to strengthen the religious faith of his flock and provide financial support for families overwhelmed by illness or the death of the breadwinner. Father McGivney saw these hardships on a daily basis. Having had the same experience as a child, he knew firsthand of the difficulties faced by these families. Left without pensions or means of support, they turned to their parish community for help.

In October 1881, Fr. McGivney and a handful of Catholic laymen, met in the basement of St. Mary's Catholic Church. His aim was to set up a parish-based lay organization to help Catholic men remain steadfast to their faith, and offer protection for Catholic families.

In 1882 Father McGivney responded by bringing together the concerned men of his parish to form a new fellowship of care and protection... The Knights of Columbus. Its primary goal:

To render financial aid to its members and the beneficiaries of its members."

On March 29, 1882, the Connecticut legislature granted a charter to the Knights of Columbus, formally establishing it as a legal corporation.

Since that first council was formed in New Haven, CT, the Order has grown to include councils in the USA, Canada, Mexico, the Philippines, Puerto Rico, Cuba, the Dominican Republic, the Bahamas, the Virgin Islands, Guatemala, Guam, Saipan, Poland, Ukraine, Lithuania. Our Council, Arden-Carmichael Council 4970 was formed in May 1960. Over the years, we have hosted the parishes of Our Lady of the Assumption, St. Ignatius, St. John the Evangelist, Presentation, St. Philomene and Holy Wisdom parishes. However, as the council membership grew, pastors from all but OLA and SI decided to form a council in their respective parishes. So today, we fully support OLA and SI with over 150 members. Although our council membership has dwindled, the Order itself has grown immensely with over 1.9 million men plus their families.

Today, we have begun a new journey, Faith in Action, with far reaching services branching in all aspects of Catholic life within our parishes as well as our community. We meet twice monthly in St. John Hall here at the parish; our business meeting (second Tuesdays), open to only members but our pre-meeting dinner is open to all. Our planning meeting (fourth Tuesdays) is open to all and at this meeting we get input from many members and non-members as to enhancing our current programs but also new programs to fulfill our Faith in Action commitments.

In 1985 we were also incorporated as a non-profit organization in the State of California as Arden-Carmichael, Inc. Our members and their spouses are direct members of the Corporation without any additional dues or fees. The Corporation funds most of our charitable donations. It meets annually in January.

More of the Knights and many links are included on our temporary website <http://www.herbertholeman.com/kofc4970/#>, Facebook <https://www.facebook.com/knights.of.columbus.council.4970/>, our monthly bulletin, the Paladin, stopping by the parish office, or contacting our parish coordinator, Mike Dougherty at madphd@comcast.net or 916-470-7599. Dues are quite nominal so “Just Ask” for further information. The Order and Catholic community need us.

Dear Family and Friends of OLA's Class of 2019,

Our 8th grade class will be selling fresh Holiday Evergreens this year as a fundraising project starting the week of October 8, 2018. All proceeds of this sale go towards the students' trip to D.C. in the Spring. We would appreciate it if you would please take a minute to look over the attached flyer and our catalog.

Our program will be offering evergreens to decorate your own home and also the opportunity to send a Gift Item across the country or across town. Please spread the word about our sale to your friends, neighbors, and family as well! We appreciate your help with our sales drive.

Our sale kicks off on Monday, October 8, 2018 and the last day that we can accept orders will be Thursday, November 1, 2018. Orders will be available on or about December 3, 2018. Direct Delivery items will be delivered during the two weeks after Thanksgiving.

You can contact Amy Kuzmich at ackuzmich@gmail.com or 916.804.7377 if you have additional questions.

Thank you for your support,
