GOSPEL MEDITATION

30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Near my house there is a school for the blind. Often, I see blind people learning how to navigate the world with only a walking stick, even on a busy street with roaring traffic. I'm amazed to see how adept and carefully they get around without sight.

Nevertheless, often a sadness arises in me that he or she cannot see all the beautiful colors, images, and persons filling the world around them. Those days, I find myself deeply grateful for the basic privilege of sight.

That's part of why the mystery of Jesus as the sight-giver is so moving to me. This week, it's wonderful how Bartimaeus the blind man is no longer content with his limitation and bellows out his desire for Jesus' mercy. In beautiful simplicity, he cries out to the Lord, "Master, let me receive my sight." Jesus quietly heals his sight. And off he goes, fully taking in the world around him. Imagine the delightful new way in which he is able to respond to the world.

Like blind Bartimaeus and the courageous people in my neighborhood, we may be able to get around reasonably well in our daily lives. But we are blind to the gestures of heroic love of people close to us. We can't see the desperate need of the hungry, thirsty, imprisoned, exploited, endangered, and so on, in our midst. We can't see Jesus drawing near to us in so many ways, but he is. This Sunday let's cry out to him: Lord have mercy on me! I want to see! And little by little – or perhaps in a flash – we'll see once again, or perhaps for the first time.

– Father John Muir ©LPI

CB Mass Recap

On Friday, October 11th, Fr. Eduino was invited to celebrate Mass at Christian Brothers High School in their beautiful Chapel of St. Joseph.

The Lasallian Student Life Office at Christian Brothers (CB) is working to connect CB students with their parish priest on campus, while also strengthening ties with local parishes. This initiative, which also welcomes alums from their parochial schools, is a significant step towards fostering unity and community engagement in our diocese.

Current CB students from OLA participated in the Mass, along with CB teacher and parishioner Courtney Hendry.

Call for Pastoral Council Members

Our pastor Fr. Eduino would like to invite those who are interested to consider becoming part of the OLA Pastoral Council. The Pastoral Council is a consultative body which is pastoral in nature because it strives to discern the movement of the Holy Spirit among God's people in the parish.

Prospective candidates must be baptized, confirmed, and members of the parish in good standing. They must possess characteristics aligning with the parish vision and be willing to give of their time and talents. We strive to have the OLA Pastoral Council membership represent the diversity of the parish.

Pastoral Council meets on the third Monday of the month from 6 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. via Zoom. If you are interested in being considered for nomination or wish to propose another parishioner, please contact Carmy Baca, Pastoral Council Chair. You can reach Carmy via email at cbaca\_929@yahoo.com, or call the parish office at (916) 481-5115 to leave her a message. Every parishioner should feel free to express thoughts and concerns to any member of the Pastoral Council at any time. For more information about Pastoral Council, visit our parish website: <https://olaparish.net/pastoral-council>.

COMMUNITY

St. Vincent de Paul Society - OLA Conference

Thank you for your continued support! Did you know that the Society of St. Vincent de Paul is a member of a broad faith-based coalition which sent a letter to President Biden and every member of Congress asking them to support important anti-poverty measures pending in the House of Representatives and Senate? The letter specifically asks legislators to support the Child Tax Credit, the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance program and the Women's Infants and Children (WIC) nutrition Program.

We need soup and green beans for the Food Locker. We also need paper grocery bags and empty egg cartons. Drop donations at the parish office or in the church SVdP collection boxes.

For those who need assistance and live within our parish boundaries, the food locker is open Tuesdays and Thursdays from 10 A.M.-12 P.M. We can also help with utility and rent payments. Call (916) 481-6352 for more information.

Interested in volunteering for SVdP? We are still looking for volunteers for helping at the Food Locker, helping with our telephone teams, and more. Please call (916) 481-6352 to leave a message, or email Marylee Johnson at jmjohn@surewest.net.

Weekly Meetings at OLA

Join Catholic in Recovery at OLA on Wednesdays at 6:00 p.m. in St. Anne's Room. Meetings combine the spiritual principles of 12-step recovery and the sacraments of the Catholic Church.
