OUR PARISH

Just in faith

In the first reading God says that His just person lives by faith. St Paul in the second reading encourages St Timothy to keep the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus for which St Paul became a prisoner. In the Gospel the disciples ask Jesus to increase their faith. Jesus responds that if they have faith they can move mountains. The disciples asked Jesus for an increase of faith probably because Jesus had told them not to be a scandal to anyone and to forgive. When we live by faith in God and hear His Word, we forgive and are good examples to others by the Grace of the Holy Spirit.

PARISH NEWS & EVENTS

Priest Convocation

October 7-11 there will be a priest convocation held for all the priests of the Diocese. This is an opportunity for the Bishop to call all priests together for fraternal prayer and fellowship, fostering among them an "intentional presbyterate" united to Jesus, the Good Shepherd.

Due to this convocation, there will be no daily Masses at OLA from Tuesday through Friday. If you wish to attend daily Mass at that time, St. Ignatius will be having daily Mass at 8:00am. Thank you.

SPIRITUAL GROWTH

WORDS FROM THE POPE

Baptized and Sent: The Church of Christ on Mission in the World

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

For the month of October 2019, I have asked that the whole Church revive her missionary awareness and commitment as we commemorate the centenary of the Apostolic Letter Maximum Illud of Pope Benedict XV (30 November 1919). Its farsighted and prophetic vision of the apostolate has made me realize once again the importance of renewing the Church's missionary commitment and giving fresh evangelical impulse to her work of preaching and bringing to the world the salvation of Jesus Christ, who died and rose again.

The title of the present Message is the same as that of October's Missionary Month: Baptized and Sent: The Church of Christ on Mission in the World. Celebrating this month will help us first to rediscover the missionary dimension of our faith in Jesus Christ, a faith graciously bestowed on us in baptism. Our filial relationship with God is not something simply private, but always in relation to the Church. Through our communion with God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, we, together with so many of our other brothers and sisters, are born to new life. This divine life is not a product for sale – we do not practice proselytism – but a treasure to be given, communicated and proclaimed: that is the meaning of mission. We received this gift freely and we share it freely (cf. *Mt*10:8), without excluding anyone. God wills that all people be saved by coming to know the truth and experiencing his mercy through the ministry of the Church, the universal sacrament of salvation (cf. 1 Tim 2:4; Lumen Gentium, 48).

~Message for World Mission Day

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

Question for Children: Jesus teaches us that our faith is powerful and with it, we can do great things. We can forgive, love, and share with others. Which of these do you do most often?

Question for Youth: The Gospel tells us even a little bit of faith is enough to make amazing things happen. How are you keeping your faith alive and growing? What good things happen in your life because of your faith?

Question for Adults: Being “in Christ” means living as Christ teaches. What signs do you see in your life of generosity, forgiveness, hospitality, or any other of Jesus' teachings?

WORD OF LIFE

The Right to Life is Fundamental

In the Preamble to the Declaration of Independence, Thomas Jefferson made it very clear that all human beings "are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights". Chief and first among those he enumerated was the Right to Life.

Jefferson and our founding fathers knew that without the right to life, no other rights are possible. How can one have the right to vote or the right to free speech, for example, if one does not firstly have the right to exist?

The rights mentioned in the Declaration are no less valid than those articulated in our Constitution. In fact, they are foundational to all the rights and protections which the Constitution guarantees. This applies especially to the right to life, which is not only paramount but is also clearly protected under the 14th Amendment by due process of law.

We need to impress upon our children the importance of these two documents and how they already guarantee every American, born or unborn, weak or strong, the blessings of Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHTS

October 6, 2019

27th Sunday in Ordinary Time
Power

Stewardship

"For God did not give us a spirit of cowardice but rather of power and love and self-control." 2 TIMOTHY 1:7

Many of us compartmentalize our Faith, we bring it out only when we attend Mass or when we attend a parish event. Being a good Steward requires discipline and striving to put God first in everything, all the time. The next time you are at a neighborhood party, at work or out shopping, would your actions signal to others that you are a good and faithful servant of our Lord?

STEWARDSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Bulletin Preparation

We are looking for an industrious person who can help with bulletin preparation! Our bulletin is designed through Publisher, so a working knowledge of Publisher would be good. You would work in conjunction with another person who takes care of all the preparation and with our secretary, Shannon Langer. Please call or email Shannon for further information. Shannon can be reached at 916-481-5115 ext. 203 or ministrycoordinator@olaparish.net.
