GOSPEL MEDITATION

27th Sunday in Ordinary Time

As a young pastor years ago, I met with a middle-aged couple who had been divorced and civilly remarried. They were frustrated that an annulment had to precede a Church marriage. Sympathizing with their plight, I promised to walk with them along their journey. Once as we sat in my office, the man said to me, "Why is the Church so difficult on marriage?" I replied, "Actually, Jesus' teaching is what's difficult." He furrowed his brow and asked what I meant.

We opened the Bible and together read today's gospel passage from Mark 10:12 in which Jesus says, "Whoever divorces his wife and marries another, commits adultery with her..." My two friends sat in silent astonishment. Surely Jesus understands the complexities of human life and sexual love. The words hung thick and heavy in the air. How could the merciful Lord be so seemingly unrealistic in his expectations, especially with so much divorce and remarriage in our world?

I didn't know what to say. So, we kept reading. Next, Jesus says, "Let the children come to me." The innocence of children allows them to receive and give love, to trust unconditionally, to believe in love that endures. Most children aren't yet jaded by statistics, broken hearts, or dysfunctional relationships. Children remind us of the world to come. The couple and I began to talk about child-like trust in Jesus and his teaching, and we continued to move forward. When it comes to the Church's demanding teaching on marriage, it's best to approach it as trusting children, whatever situations in which we find ourselves.

— Father John Muir ©LPi

All Souls

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

Amen.

PARISH AND SCHOOL NEWS

SVdP Feast Day Reflection

Last week, on September 27, OLA's SVdP volunteers celebrated St. Vincent's feast day with a special Mass and breakfast. OLA's SVdP volunteers recommitted themselves to the calling of the poor, most especially those within our parish boundaries. Carmichael may not appear to have needy people, but just like every other parish, we have our share of those who come upon hardship, who live from paycheck to paycheck, and those who are desperate.

St. Vincent asks us "to see Christ in the poor, and to be Christ to the poor." Be part of St. Vincent's Food Locker Team or the Service Assistance Team that helps with rent, utilities and other necessities. We are mindful about being "good stewards" of your charity by verifying information and doing home visits whenever possible.

Be part not only of a "relief organization" but one that tries to transform lives by donating to SVdP today. Thank you for your commitment to live your faith in action. You can also support SVdP next Saturday, October 12th, for Shred Day from 8:30 a.m.-11:30 a.m., (or until such time the truck is full), in the Walnut Avenue parking lot.

For more info about volunteering or about Shred Day, please see page 7 of this weekend's bulletin.

Diocesan Altar Server Recognition Event

OLA recently participated in the Diocesan Altar Server Recognition Event on September 21st at Vietnamese Martyrs Parish with Bishop Jaime Soto. Certificates were distributed for one year of service and three or more years of service. An Altar Server of the Year from each parish was recognized.

Eagle Project Update From John Rockenstein For the Natural Grass Area Outside St. John's Hall

I met with a contractor on Friday to get an updated quote and include the changes needed by SMUD. I am hoping to use metal poles and a lightweight metal frame instead of wood for the lattice that needs to swing open for full access to the utility box. The metal will last much longer than the wood. Unfortunately, the price of the artificial turf has increased as well. This means I still need to raise another $3,000. The good news is it looks like it can be completed late fall. If you would like to support me, John Rockenstein, on my Eagle project, you can donate via the Venmo app: @Mike-Rockenstein-2, or you can drop by a check at the church office made out to Troop 328. Thank you! Please contact johnmrockenstein@gmail.com and rockusc@gmail.com with any questions you have.

K of C #4970
Tootsie Roll Drive

On October 12th and 13th, the Knights of Columbus will be outside the church doors after all Masses offering free Tootsie Rolls and accepting donations for their annual Intellectual Disability Drive. All money raised helps send children and adults with developmental disabilities to Camp ReCreation, a camp under the patronage of the Diocese of Sacramento.

Please be as generous as you can in support of this worthy event. You can also contribute by writing a check made payable to the COLUMBIAN FOUNDATION ID (a 501(c)(3) charitable organization (tax deductible) and mailing it to: Joe Romanazzi, ID Drive Chairman, 6322 Appian Way Carmichael, CA 95608.

Breakthrough Junior Challenge Update from Parishioner Lexi Mauricio

Dear OLA Parishioners,

Thank you so much for all your support for the Breakthrough Junior Challenge! I found out that I am now in the Top 15 Finalists! And the Regional (North America) Champion! 🏆 This would not be possible without all your support and inspiration!

This year, the Breakthrough Junior Challenge had more than 2,300 participants! Humbly, that is less than 0.6 percent in being in the top 15!

The next step is for another panel, the Selection Committee (of scientists), to come up with the top 5. From there, another process will happen to determine the ultimate winner!

I am hopeful that I can continue to bring honor and the prize to CB! 😊

Again, thank you so much to all our OLA families and parishioners! 😊😊😊

Respectfully, Lexi Mauricio
