Promise of the Resurrection

There is a fascination in our culture with what happens when we die. Books and films like "Heaven Is for Real" and "90 Minutes in Heaven" captured the attention of millions of Americans looking for some sense of hope and meaning for their lives. For us, as 21st century Christians, belief in life after death is something that seems to be an obvious and vital part of our faith, despite the fact that it is an experience beyond our understanding or imagining. Eternal life isn't a mystery to be figured out or something that can be captured in books or films. It is a promise and gift based on our hope and confidence that God is at work in us even now. It goes beyond the limits of human existence. In the resurrection, each person lives as God's child, free from the fear of death.

DID YOU KNOW?

Time

By Shannon Langer

Have you ever thought about time? I know, that's a strange question.

There are two kinds of time: chronos and kairos. Chronos is about quantity. It's the time something happens. Kairos is about quality. This last one is a word you may have heard more and more recently. Our high schools all offer kairos retreats to seniors. So, what is it?

Kairos is sacred time. It's the moment of something significant, and it is opportunity. Colossians 4:5 says: "Conduct yourselves wisely toward outsiders, making the most of the opportunity." Ephesians 5:15-16 says: "Watch carefully then how you live, not as foolish persons but as wise, making the most of the opportunity, because the days are evil." And lastly, Mark 13:33 says: "Be watchful! Be alert! You do not know when the time will come." This time is for us to focus on something greater than ourselves, but to whom we owe our lives.

On this note, did you realize that each month is dedicated to a specific part of our faith? You may find the list below:

January: Holy Childhood
February: Holy Family
March: Saint Joseph
April: Holy Spirit/Holy Eucharist
May: Mary
June: Sacred Heart
July: Precious Blood
August: Blessed Sacrament
September: The Seven Sorrows
October: The Holy Rosary
November: Souls in Purgatory
December: Immaculate Conception

SPIRITUAL GROWTH

SOMETHING TO PONDER ON

Welcoming the message of Jesus into our hearts

Pope Saint Paul VI, in an oft-quoted phrase, said that the people of today listen more to witnesses than to teachers, and if they listen to teachers it is because they are witnesses. To expand on this idea, one might say that those who wish to share the Gospel must somehow incarnate it in their own lives and personalities. They must mirror something of the attractiveness of Christ. What was it that drew people to Jesus of Nazareth? Was it his compassion, his mercy, his understanding, his kindness, his joy, his patience? It was surely all of these and much more besides. Somehow, he communicated love to them and they sense in him the presence of the ultimate source of all love, the one whom he addressed as Abba, Father. Christ-like people who, by a combination of the gifts of nature and grace, can reproduce something of that in their own lives and in their manner of relation to others will surely make the best evangelizers.

All this implies that those who wish to share the Gospel message must be deeply steeped in that message themselves. All who wish to bring Christ into the lives of others must first have welcomed him wholeheartedly into their own lives. They must be people of personal holiness. All of this suggests a deep and sustained personal prayer life, the lifelong effort to let the message that Jesus came to bring (and to be) soak its way more and more deeply into the deepest recesses of the heart. Pope Francis has written about what this means in practice in Guadate at Exsultate and the fact that so many people find the personality of Pope Francis so attractive and appealing suggests that he is one good model of what an evangelizer might be like, one who tries to practice what he preaches.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

Question for Children: God always stays with you, no matter what. What signs can you see to help you believe that?

Question for Youth: Death is a hard reality in our human life, but if we believe in the resurrection, we know it isn't the end of the journey. How does your belief in heaven affect the way you live?

Question for Adults: Having faith in difficult times is hard! What makes you believe in the promise that God will be your strength, as Paul says?

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHTS

32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time Stewardship Encouragement

"May our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who has loved us and given us everlasting encouragement and good hope through his grace, encourage your hearts and strengthen them in every good deed and word." 2 THESSALONIANS 2:16-17

There are two important Stewardship lessons here. First, we are called to be generous with our encouragement and hope. As God shows us mercy, we must be merciful to others. Second, joy is contagious! The joy we receive from doing good works not only strengthens us, it encourages others as well. Share the joy of living your faith.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

Patience In All Things

St. Francis De Sales said, "Have patience with all things, but, first of all with yourself." Life has a way of knocking us down or off the path we are traveling. If it is a path that God has called us to, then it will be easier to get back to the journey, but nevertheless, it is difficult. The hardest thing to bear is that too often what we blame on life is really about our own choices or shortcomings. The refrain of many a blues singer sounds something like, "Nobody to blame but me!"

What is the Good News? God's patience is far superior to our own. We do need to follow the words above and cultivate in ourselves a greater sense of patience in all things. However, we should take great comfort in knowing that God's patience will always be there as we struggle to grow and advance in our life as a disciple.

You're trying to live a stewardship way of life but keep falling onto the side of the road? God wants you to reach Him on the road but will wait for you. You want to be holier and more committed to your faith? God will take what you give Him. The danger is when you lose your patience and stop moving toward Him. You decide that it doesn't really matter and that what you can offer God doesn't amount to anything of worth. We must never cease our journey. You and I may get fed up, but our God never will.
