GOSPEL MEDITATION

32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Lately I've been enjoying the deep meaning of Eastern icons. I love how they express a tapestry of meaning in a way that can surpass the written or spoken word. Today's parable of the ten virgins from Jesus is a good example. Try googling "wise and foolish virgins icon" and you'll see an image of how Christ meets our heart's deepest needs if we attend to him with the proper attitude. Seriously, take a moment to google and look at it. See how it depicts the risen Jesus behind a closed door with the five wise virgins with lighted lamps. He gazes with them toward the five foolish and lamp-less virgins, symbolizing the outward looking of divine love for the lost. Moreover, the wedding feast is no ordinary one. It takes place in a walled city and garden, indicating it's a new Jerusalem and a return to Eden. The table isn't typical, either. It's a Eucharistic feast. Now we see that the door in Jesus' parable is the way into the church, where Christ is the new light burning amidst the dark midnight of this world.

The richness continues. We notice that the foolish virgins look exactly the same as the wise ones in their clothes, hair, and expressions. The only difference is they departed to buy oil and are now sadly excluded. We often act like consumers in the marketplace to fulfill our need for love and mercy. We'll always end up disappointed if we shop around. Jesus sums up the moral of the story this way: "Watch therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour." Watch, remain, don't spiritually shop. It is always better to quietly remain close to the Eucharistic community of the Church, even if we feel like our oil has run out. This week let's consider placing the icon of the wise and foolish virgins on our phone lock screen or computer desktop to help us remember to stay close to him, especially when life feels dark.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

Amen.

Important Message from the Diocese

From the Office of the Bishop 10/30/23:

It has come to our attention that a man calling himself "Fr. Martin Lopez", claiming to be from Guadalajara, has visited the Rancho Cordova area to offer "sacraments" of baptism, confirmation and first communion in people's homes.

He is accompanied by another man, charges $200 for every sacrament and asks for birth certificates to obtain all the information for issuing the sacramental certificate. Be advised, at this point we cannot verify his claim to be a Catholic priest, but he has NO faculties to administer the sacraments in the Diocese of Sacramento. This makes the "sacraments" he administers canonically illicit and may not be registered in parish registers and should not be recognized as Catholic sacraments.

Liturgical Ministries Meeting

On Monday, November 27th, we will have a meeting at 6:00 p.m. in the church for all those serving in liturgical ministries.

This includes lectors, extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion, ushers, and greeters. Materials for the upcoming 2024 liturgical year will be distributed, and general updates will be provided by Fr. Eduino.

If you are interested in serving in liturgical ministries at OLA, you are also welcome to attend this meeting. We are especially in need of volunteers for our greeter ministry. For more information about serving in liturgical ministries at OLA, please contact Casey Oliver at worship@olaparish.net.

Eucharistic Miracle Series

Saint-André de la Réunion, Island of La Réunion, 1902

For the parish year of the National Eucharistic Revival, we will be featuring information in the bulletin about the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist.

On January 26, 1902, at the parish church of Saint-André, a city on the island of La Réunion (French colony), Abbot Henry Lacombe, pastor, was witness to a miracle that he would recount to thousands of people during the Eucharistic Congress of Angoulême (1904), as well as to the groups of priests gathered for a spiritual retreat in the town of Périgueux. The face of Jesus appeared in the Host which was for many hours witnessed by thousands of people. According to Abbot Lacombe's report, "We were celebrating perpetual adoration (the Forty hours). The Most Holy Sacrament was exposed in the tabernacle. I began to celebrate the Mass. After the elevation, at the moment of the Our Father, my eyes were lifted toward the Host and I saw a bright halo around the rays of the monstrance. I continued to recite the prayers of the Mass, with great agitation in my soul but which I tried to overcome. We came to the moment for Communion and again I looked toward the monstrance. This time I saw a human face, with lowered eyes and a crown of thorns on the forehead. What moved me the most was the dolorous expression painted on the face. The eyelashes were long and thick. I tried not to let on the presence of the turmoil agitating inside of me. After Mass, I went to the sacristy and summoned the older children from the choir to go to the altar and closely observe the monstrance. The children raced back and told me: 'Father, we see the head of a man in the Host. It is the good Lord revealing Himself!' I understood then that the vision was authentic."

Adam de Villiers, a young man who had studied in France, also arrived. Abbot Lacombe asked him, "Go in the church and see if you notice something strange in the tabernacle." He went to the sacristy and returned immediately, saying, "Father, it is the good Lord who appears in the Host, I see His divine face." Since then, Abbot Lacombe's doubts disappeared. Slowly the entire town went to the church to see the miracle. Journalists and people from the capital of Saint Denis also arrived. The face on the Host suddenly became animated and the crown of thorns disappeared. Taking every precaution, fearing the effects from the rays of light, the candles were extinguished and the shutters closed. The phenomenon became even more clear. A young artist faithfully reproduced the face in the Host. Later, the vision changed again and a crucifix appeared. After the Eucharistic blessing and recitation of the Tantum Ergo, the vision disappeared. For more information, please visit: <http://www.miracolieucahistici.org/en/Liste/list.html>
