This Thanksgiving, as we reflect with gratitude for the many blessings God has given us, Catholics throughout the Diocese are invited to view the 2018 Annual Catholic Appeal “Report of Gratitude.” By coming together as Catholics, see how parishioners have helped social service agencies in Northern California to provide hope and help to our brothers and sisters in need. More than 253,000 individuals and families, through love and care inspired by Jesus Christ, moved closer to independence and dignity. Take a moment to see the difference you’ve made this year. Visit www.scd.org/annual-catholic-appeal. The 2018 Appeal is approaching $3.7 million in commitments so far. If you have not yet participated, prayerfully consider a donation. No contribution, no act of charity is ever too small or insignificant. Envelopes are available here at the parish, or donate online at www.scd.org.

Featured Scripture

Colossians 2:6-7

As therefore you received Christ Jesus the Lord, so live in him, rooted and built up in him and established in the faith, just as you were taught, abounding in thanksgiving.

Featured Saint

Bl. Solanus Casey
Dates: 1870-1957
Feast: Not yet declared
Solanus was a Capuchin friar in the United States who spent most of his life as a porter (or doorkeeper) at the midwestern friaries in which he lived.

Although many people considered him unintelligent, he never allowed this to make him angry. Instead he was always grateful to God for His many blessings. Fr. Solanus frequently said, "Thank God ahead of time," because he knew that God would always do good to those who love Him.

OLA Youth Choir and Music Ensemble for Advent and Christmas

All parish and OLA school children (grades 1-8) are invited to participate! Singers and instrumentalists welcome. We will be serving at the 9:30 am Mass for the Second Sunday of Advent (December 9) and at the 4:00 pm Christmas Eve Mass (December 24). We are hoping for a large ensemble this year, and we need everyone's help to make that happen. Please encourage the youth in your life to participate! The participation of our youth in the liturgy is a special gift. In addition to learning beloved Advent and Christmas songs, participants will also learn the structure and sequence of the Mass and the basics of vocal technique and healthy singing.

Practices are from 6:00-6:55 on most Wednesday evenings beginning November 7th through December 19th. (No rehearsal the Wednesday before Thanksgiving, 11/21.) Please contact our Music Director, Casey Oliver, with any questions at 481-5115 or worship@olaparish.net.

Prayers to Help the Departed Seek Eternal Life

It has become quite common practice for Catholics to display flowers or candles to remember their loved ones who have passed on. This gesture is done almost instinctively to honor their memory and perhaps even as a way of offering a prayer for them.

It is expected for all to want to find a fitting way to remember those who have left us. Unfortunately, some have come to question why we pray for the dead. In the Catholic Church, there has been a long-standing tradition to pray for the souls of the deceased.

How did this tradition come about and why is it still important today?

Our Catholic custom of praying for the dead is rooted in our belief in the very nature of Heaven.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church in describing the vision of the New Jerusalem of God's eternal kingdom:

“All who die in God's grace and friendship, but still imperfectly purified, are indeed assured of their eternal salvation; but after death they undergo purification, so as to achieve the holiness necessary to enter the joy of Heaven.” (CCC 1030).

Many believers who die have not lived as perfectly in God's friendship and do not die in a state of perfection. Thus, they are not yet prepared to enter Heaven and behold God's face.

However, at the same time, they have not made the choice to totally separate themselves from God and may have expressed regret for their sins and been forgiven. But their love of God at the time of their death may not have been as profound and as perfect as it should have been.

Thus, souls of departed individuals who have not yet been completely purified of their sins, must undergo purification after death.

How can we assist the souls of our departed loved ones? The Fathers of the Second Vatican Council cited that the Church has honored the memory of the dead from the beginning (Lumen Gentium 50). The early Christian community in Rome gathered in the catacombs under the city to pray for those faithful followers of Christ who had been buried there. They believed that their prayers served to assist those who had died.

The Church today refers to the souls in Purgatory as “our brethren ... who having died are still being purified” (Lumen Gentium 51). Hence, they continue to be important members of the Church, of the Mystical Body of Jesus Christ according to the belief in the communion of saints. We are able to assist the faithful departed by our prayers, just as they can also help us by their prayers (CCC 958).

This fact demonstrates that God's mercy does not stop at the moment of death. Instead, divine mercy continues even after that moment to prepare a soul to receive God's loving embrace in Heaven.

The Catholic Church has taught for centuries that by offering our prayers, we assist those who have died in commending their soul to God's unfailing mercy. We can also assist the souls of our departed loved ones not only by our prayers, but also by offering a Mass in their name, by giving alms, by indulgences or by doing other works of penance consciously for their benefit (CCC 1032).

During this month of November, a month in our Catholic calendar dedicated to prayer for the Holy Souls in Purgatory, let us remember to keep them especially in our prayers and works of charity. Let us remember that these prayers and works can be extremely powerful in assisting the souls of our loved ones in their journey to attaining eternal life and peace.

Did you know?

Pope St Gregory the Great (540-604) would often offer Masses on behalf of the souls in Purgatory. He recounted the story of a monk who repented of his sins while lying on his deathbed. St Gregory, who was the abbot, instructed that Masses should be said in his favor. After 30 days, his soul appeared to a brother announcing that he was now free of Purgatory and had entered Heaven – traditionally these Masses are known as Gregorian Masses for the Dead.

Questions of the Week

Theme: Jesus will come again.

Breaking Open the Word

Suggested text for faith sharing: Today's Gospel

Step One: Listen to the Word

As you hear this rather strange Gospel today, what words or phrases strike you? What image or idea lingers in your memory?

Step Two: Look into Your Life

Question for Children: If Jesus came to visit you today, what would you do? What would say? How would you act?

Question for Youth: If today was your last day, what would you be most thankful for? What would you regret?

Question for Adults: If today was your last, what would you do with it?

Marian Reflection

“She opened to us the unspeakable abyss of God's love for us. Through her the old enmity against the Creator is destroyed. Through her our reconciliation with him is strengthened, peace and grace are given to us, men are made the companions of angels, and we, who lived in dishonor, are made the children of God. From her we've plucked the fruit of life. From her we've received the seed of immortality. She's the channel of all our goods. In her, God was Man, and Man was God. What could be more marvelous or more blessed than that?”

"The Four Last Things" Inspired though we are through hope in the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, death remains shrouded in mystery. For unbelievers death is simply the end, but as Christians we believe that in death life is changed, not ended. In this talk we will take an unflinching look at the four last things: death, judgment, heaven and hell – something everyone, believers and unbelievers alike, will have to face someday.

OUR PARISH

Our Inheritance

The Liturgy proclaims Psalm 16 today which expresses the joy and hope that we Christians have been promised and which the Scriptures proclaim this Sunday. In the Gospel, Jesus teaches us that He will come in Glory and Power and send His angels to gather the elect, those whom He saved by His offering of Himself to forgive sins and make perfect those who are being consecrated. These are the ones who lead the many to justice and who will shine like the stars forever. They waited for Christ and witnessed to His Salvation and led others to repent and convert to Jesus. This is our great inheritance: to live forever without sin and death and to live eternally in the love and glory of the Lord. Let us desire His eternal Peace and love.
