OUR PARISH

Jesus Christ, true King of the Universe

In answer to Pilate's questioning Jesus if He was a king He said: "For this I was born, for this I came to witness to the truth." Jesus Christ came freely to proclaim the truth that God so loved the world that He sent His Only Son to save the world. He through Whom all things exist, Who is life and truth, loved us, washed away our sins and made of us a kingdom of priests. He Who is true Lord and King of Kings, Who has all Power in Heaven and on Earth has through the Power of His love has been gathering all peoples and all nations into His everlasting Kingdom. To Him all Power and Glory be forever and ever.

Christian Meditation Group

In an age of rush and noise, it is essential that we find time to be still and quiet. "Be still and know that I am God," says the Psalmist. In this prayer of silence called Christian Meditation we find God who dwells in our own heart. And, in finding Him, we find our own selves and thus, are renewed. A Christian Meditation Group regularly meets Mondays at 4:00pm in the Chapel. Please call Fran at 488-4229 to learn more about this program.

Eucharistic Adoration

Tuesdays and Thursdays, following the 8 a.m. mass, and continuing until 7 p.m. First Saturday of the month following the 8 a.m. mass until 1 p.m. For additional information please call Joan at 335-3532.

Anointing of the Sick

Featured Saint

Bl. Solanus Casey

Dates: 1870-1957

Feast: Not yet declared

Solanus was a Capuchin friar in the United States who spent most of his life as a porter (or doorkeeper) at the midwestern friaries in which he lived. Although many people considered him unintelligent, he never allowed this to make him angry. Instead he was always grateful to God for His many blessings.

Fr. Solanus frequently said, "Thank God ahead of time," because he knew that God would always do good to those who love Him.

Christ the King

There are two kinds of time. One is called chronos and it is the time that something happens; it is about quantity. The other is called Kairos which you may have heard about before and it is about quality. Kairos is sacred time. It is the moment of something significant and it is an opportunity. You're probably wondering why I am telling you this now. Today is one of those moments of Kairos. Today is the Solemnity of Christ the King and it is the last Sunday in Ordinary Time. Starting next Sunday, December 2nd, not only do we begin the counting again, we change the liturgical color to purple to signify the start of Advent. It is the beginning of a new year which begins with awaiting the birth of the Christ.

So what is the significance of Christ the King? First, a solemnity is when we celebrate events, beliefs, and personages of great importance and universal significance in salvation history. Christ is obviously in that category since salvation would not have been accomplished without Him! The feast was instituted by Pope Pius XI in 1925 to combat the growing secularism and atheism of his time. It is one of the so-called "idea feasts" that do not celebrate an event in the life of Jesus but rather some aspect of His identity. In it we recognize and honor Christ as ruler of all. The original feast of Christ the King is the Ascension, in which the Church celebrates the exalted Christ, crowned with glory at the right hand of God the Father. As the liturgical year comes to a close, today's celebration should remind us of that more important feast.

In the Old Testament the Israelite people, in turn, have various leaders they look to. They have priests to teach them. They have prophets to guide them closer to God. They even have kings on occasion. They learn the hard way that human kings are not infallible, like God is. "Samuel was displeased when they said, 'Give us a king to rule us.' But he prayed to the Lord. The Lord said: Listen to whatever the people say. You are not the one they are rejecting. They are rejecting me as their king." (1 Samuel 8:6-7) Yet, they asked for the king and they got kings: good and bad. The last king was David. Christ is the promised new king even though they don't recognize Him as such. He is also the gathering of all three of these offices into one: priest, prophet, and king.

The Catechism tells us that we share in these offices as well through the nature of our baptism. "Finally, the People of God shares in the royal office of Christ. He exercises his kingship by drawing all men to himself through his death and Resurrection. Christ, King and Lord of the universe, made himself the servant of all, for he came 'not to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.'" (CCC 786)

So, let us remember the significance of Christ's office as our King. Let us not be as the Israelites of Samuel's time, looking for a human king, when we have the greatest King in front of us. Happy feast day!

Something to think and pray about this week

Since spiritual wellness is all about being aligned with the Spirit, we should ask, What is God fired up about? I think he is most fired up by selfless love. Mercy. Compassion. Justice. God's great imagination envisions a world in which the hungry are fed, the thirsty are given drink, the sick are tended to, the homeless are sheltered, the imprisoned are visited, the naked are clothed, and the estranged are welcomed. A healthy spirituality compels us to be present to people in need, offering them the possibility of seeing the presence of God, which is obstructed by the pain in their lives. Dorothy Day insisted that everything a baptized person should do every day should be directly or indirectly related to the corporal and spiritual works of mercy. She knew that God's fire could be found there. If you are looking for God—the goal of spirituality—these are the places to look. As the traditional Christian hymn Ubi Caritas reminds us: "Where charity and love prevail, there God is ever found."

The God we seek is on fire, has a mission, and invites you and me to be a part of it.

Imagine that.

"The Four Last Things" Inspired though we are through hope in the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, death remains shrouded in mystery. For unbelievers death is simply the end, but as Christians we believe that in death life is changed, not ended. In this talk we will take an unflinching look at the four last things: death, judgment, heaven and hell – something everyone, believers and unbelievers alike, will have to face someday.

Advent Day of Prayer 'For Unto Us A Child Is Born' Wednesday, December 12, 2018 9:30 am – 2:30 pm

This has been a very difficult year for children around the World. We cannot help but remember the "Word made Flesh" was born to us as a child so all children might be reborn in the Word that reminds them of their dignity, liberates them in difficult times and blesses them at all times. This Advent we remind ourselves in prayer, study, friendship and worship we are all the children of God no matter where we are from or where we live. May we be for one another what Christ is for us.
