OUR MISSION STATEMENT

The Mission of the parish community at Our Lady of the Assumption Church is to proclaim the Word of God more fully, to gain a more intimate knowledge of God through our Catholic traditions, and to serve the people of God, especially in our efforts to meet the needs of the poor in our community, and when possible around the world. We strive to build a sense of community among our parishioners, with the entire family of God.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

November 28, 2021

1st Sunday of Advent

Staying awake can often be a challenge, especially when we are exhausted. Life's demands have a way of zapping every last bit of energy out of us. When we are tired it affects us not only physically, but psychologically and spiritually as well. All of our senses are dulled and diminished. We can overlook details, become disinterested, lethargic and apathetic, and detached. Getting sufficient physical rest only helps so much. We need to be rejuvenated, refreshed, and reenergized in other ways. If we are psychologically exhausted, we need to understand what is draining our emotions and taxing our relationships. If we are spiritually tired, we need to find the necessary "shot in the arm" to put us back in touch with God.

Unfortunately, exhaustion is seldom limited to just one part of who we are. When we lack energy and zeal it is usually the case that everything suffers. We not only are affected physically, but psychologically and spiritually as well. In short, when we run out of gas the engine stops. And yet, our Lord's directive is clear, "Be vigilant at all times." Even Jesus knew what "the anxieties of daily life" can do to us.

One day pours into another and time quickly flies by.

Any one of us can take a moment and reflect on how many wonderful, creative opportunities we miss because there is always so much "stuff" to do and so little time to do it. Usually these are missed moments of love, and if we are missing love encounters we are also missing God.

Sleepwalking through life, we check the boxes next to our list of "must and have to dos" and justify it all by convincing ourselves that tomorrow is another day and there'll be more time. It may surprise us, but tomorrow is here, and time is running out. While we may like to believe that we have an "eternity" of time to do all those things that require the focus, energy, and desire we do not currently have, we don't. We're on a limited ride and time is short.

Jesus is also clear on another point.

"That day [will] catch you by surprise like a trap." If we are going to be judged on love and so easily justify not having all that much time to do so, then it seems we must shift focus a bit. St. Teresa of Calcutta tells us, "We desire to be able to welcome Jesus at Christmas-time, not in a cold manger of our heart, but in a heart full of love and humility, a heart so pure, so immaculate, so warm with love for one another."

Getting to this place doesn't "just happen." It requires vigilance and discipline both with a knowledge of what is really of importance and what really needs to be the focus of our energy and time. Pray, starting now and not tomorrow, that we can stay alert, be strengthened in our faith, and prepared for whatever will come. Don't miss another opportunity to love.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHTS

Stewards Stand Erect

November 28, 2021

1st Sunday of Advent

"But when these signs begin to happen, stand erect and raise your heads because your redemption is at hand." (Luke 21:28)

We celebrate Advent each year in preparation for the birth of Jesus, His first coming, as we await His second coming. What will you do differently this Advent season to grow in friendship and love with Jesus? How will you live Stewardship? How will you inspire others to do the same? Start by sharing your God story with others, especially those closest to you. Invite and accompany them on their faith journey this Advent.

Fritz Stark, cancer survivor

Partnering with the UC Davis Comprehensive Cancer Center, the Starks and Flowers families launched the Super Fritz & Friends Fund to enhance services for pediatric cancer families.

Through the generosity of many other supporters inspired by this initiative, we have hired a Pediatric Resource Specialist position to help families navigate stressors outside of clinical care, such as juggling new family routines for siblings, educational loss, employment responsibilities, and insurance hurdles.

Ben, Mayne, Fritz, Anna & Dean Stark

HOLIDAY GIFT DRIVE

Please join us for the Super Fritz & Friends Holiday Gift Drive, benefiting the pediatric cancer patients and families of the UC Davis Comprehensive Cancer Center. Together, we can ensure that all pediatric cancer patients and siblings receive a special gift to make their holidays a little brighter!

1. Between Monday, November 29th and Thursday, December 2nd, drop any toys and age-appropriate activities for infant, preschool & school age children in the Super Fritz boxes.

2. We have an immediate need for preteen & teenager gifts. For this age range, we encourage gift cards in increments of $10-25. Some suggestions are: Amazon, Target, Walmart, Starbucks, Dutch Brothers, Jamba Juice, Game Stop, Ulta, Sephora, and Best Buy, Door Dash, restaurants.

All donations received will be collected Friday, December 3rd to create a "Holiday Store," in a secret location at the Pediatric Cancer Center. Our goal is for each parent with a child undergoing active treatment to have an opportunity to shop for gifts for immediate family members. The Holiday Shop will be open for families December 13th - December 24th.

Toy Donation Guidelines: We only accept new and unwrapped items. Toys should be sturdy and free of any parts that may pinch or break off. All craft materials (markers, glue, paints, etc.) must be non-toxic. We are unable to accept stuffed animals, or candy-food items.

Thank you for providing toys and gift cards to support our pediatric cancer patients and their siblings this holiday season.

If you are interested in giving a financial donation to enhance services for our childhood cancer warriors, please visit give.ucdavis.edu/Go/SuperFritz to give online or scan the QR code.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Preparing the Manger

Where do you fall in the "Christmas-songs-in-November" debate — do you like them, tolerate them, or outright hate them? There's no theological problem with Christmas songs in November outside of worship, even if it's not everyone's cup of tea. But there is a problem with getting so caught up in the baggage of the season — the trimmings, the gifts, the celebrations, all of which are marvelous in their own way — that you forget to prepare the manger.

Every good Catholic knows that Lent is a penitential season. It's hard to miss that point — Lent doesn't even have any fun songs you can groove to on the radio. We are pretty good at recognizing that Lent calls us to examine ourselves. To deny ourselves. To give of ourselves. And most of all, Lent calls us to prepare, as a good steward does, for the return of our master.

It's harder for us to remember that with Advent, but Advent is just as much of an opportunity for penance, preparation, and reconciliation to God — and just as much reason, too. The very name of the season — "advent" — encourages us to focus on what is coming, not what is already here. Be on guard, the readings tell us today, "so that your hearts are not weighed down with dissipation and drunkenness and the worries of this life, and (the coming of the Lord) catch you unexpectedly, like a trap."

So let us not forget — our master's advent is upon us. And let us ask ourselves: how can we prepare the manger?

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

LIVE THE LITURGY

Any human success requires vigilance. Opportunities and powerful moments of encounter can easily be missed when we are not attentive. It is all too easy today to live distracted and preoccupied lives. There is so much vying for our attention that it can be hard to be selective and really focus. Caught up in this whirlwind of busyness and anxiety, we become tired and almost sleepwalk through life. Advent is a time to selectively focus. These beautiful four short weeks are a time to look backward and forward and be attentive to the human journey and God's revelation. From the beginning of time, God has been seeking our attention. He constantly reminds us of the justice he desires to bring and the promise of his abiding unconditional love. Understanding and growing in these truths requires alertness so that we can be strengthened in our faith and prepared for whatever will come.
