OUR PARISH

Walk Tall in the Light of Christ

We have excuses for not praying, for not attending Mass, and for not following Christ's teachings. We have excuses for not giving something up for Lent, for not reading the Bible, and for not spending time with our families. All the while, we miss out on what God has to offer us. So many gifts of peace and joy are lost because we are too busy making excuses, rather than taking the risk of following the path Jesus calls us to.

The story of Zacchaeus has much to teach us about all the blessings that can come our way once we put our excuses aside and take a risk for Jesus. Zacchaeus had plenty of excuses why he shouldn't try to get a look at Jesus.

OUR MINISTRIES

Martha and Mary Ministry Meeting Thursday, November 7th, 2019

All ladies of the parish are invited to our next meeting on Thursday, November 7th, at 11:00 in St. John's Hall, to be followed by lunch. Our key ministry is providing funeral receptions, but we are also active in almost every aspect of the parish. We welcomed several new members last month, but there is always room for more! This month, we will continue work on our December Boutique (held in conjunction with the Pancake Breakfast with Santa). If you would like to participate in any of our ministries, but think that you don't have the time, we urge you to let us know- if you only have an hour or two a month, we would love to have you join us!

SPIRITUAL GROWTH

SOMETHING TO PONDER ON

God Is Mercy

The older we become, the more we realize how limited we are in our ability to love, how impure our hearts are, and how complex our motivations are. And there is a real temptation to want to look inside of ourselves and clean it all out, and become people with a pure heart, unstained intentions, and unconditional love. Such an attempt is doomed to failure and leads us to ever greater despair. The more we look into ourselves and try to figure ourselves out, the more we become entangled in our own imperfections. Indeed, we cannot save ourselves. Only Jesus can save us. That is why it is so important to remove your inner eye away from the complexities of your own broken heart toward the pure but broken heart of Jesus. Looking at him and his immense mercy will give you the ability to accept your own imperfections and to really let yourself be cared for by the mercy and love of Jesus.

I remember how Thomas Merton once wrote: "God is mercy in mercy in mercy." This means that the more we come to know ourselves, the more we come to know God's mercy, which is beyond the mercy we know. Letting go of the desire to be perfect lovers, and allowing God to love our people through us, that is the great spiritual call that is given to you and to me. There in the pure heart of God, embraced by his unconditional love, you will find the true joy and peace your heart is longing for.

"The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure hidden in a field. When a man found it, he hid it again, and then in his joy went and sold all he had and bought that field."

MATTHEW 13:44 (NIV)

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHTS

31st Sunday in Ordinary Time Stewardship Sharing

"But Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, 'Behold, half of my possessions, Lord, I will give to the poor, and if I extorted anything from anyone I shall repay it four times over.'" LUKE 19:8

We are all called in Stewardship to gratefully give back to the Lord in proportion to the blessings we have been given. This means everyone isn't called to give the same amount, but is called to give equal sacrifice. No amount is too small or insignificant! Open your heart, how is God calling you to be more generous with your financial resources and possessions?
