Special COLLECTIONS

The November 16/17 special collection will be for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development which is committed to helping people create permanent solutions to the problem of poverty in their community. In our own country, 37 million Americans struggle in poverty, many despite working full-time. Our community can help break the cycle of poverty by supporting the work of the CCHD. 25% of the funds collected will remain in our Diocese to help support our local anti-poverty efforts.

We encourage parishioners to enroll in our automated donation program called WeShare.

This program provides a convenient way to make your donations to our church from the comfort of your home.

To enroll please follow these simple steps:

Go to <https://olaparish.net> and click on Donate.

This will take you to our "Contribute" page, where you will find the WeShare link to enroll and donate.

WeShare Donor Support Phone: (877) 316 0260 or go to <https://www.wesharegiving.com/support/>.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

31st Sunday in Ordinary Time

Americans have long been fascinated with public debates. Farmers stood in muddy fields for hours to hear Lincoln and Douglas dispute each other in the 1860 presidential run-up. The televised debate between Kennedy and Nixon in 1960 fascinated the nation. These days, cable news outlets and social media parse every word spoken by candidates. We still love seeing public, rational disputes in the service of our nation.

In his day, Jesus also captured attention as a public debater. Mark tells us, "And one of the scribes came up and heard them disputing with one another, and seeing that he answered them well, asked him, 'Which commandment is the first of all?'" Jesus' brief but all-encompassing response is the double command to love God and neighbor. Notice that he includes the importance of loving God with "all your mind." Loving God is not simply a question of affection, loyalty, good deeds, and religious dedication. It demands honest and intense intellectual engagement — just like an accomplished debater. How do we do this practically? One simple way is by embracing ourselves as life-long learners. Setting aside time for reading, book studies, online classes, and, perhaps most difficult, engaging in open, honest, and curious conversation with those who think differently from us. These are all great ways to love God with our minds. Our country and our Church depend greatly on souls who love God in this way with their minds. Let's commit to loving God with all our minds in tireless pursuit of truth.

— Father John Muir ©LPI

For those in our community who have passed away...

All Souls

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

Amen.

Call for Pastoral Council Members

Our pastor Fr. Eduino would like to invite those who are interested to consider becoming part of the OLA Pastoral Council. The Pastoral Council is a consultative body which is pastoral in nature because it strives to discern the movement of the Holy Spirit among God's people in the parish.

Prospective candidates must be baptized, confirmed, and members of the parish in good standing. They must possess characteristics aligning with the parish vision and be willing to give of their time and talents. We strive to have the OLA Pastoral Council membership represent the diversity of the parish.

Pastoral Council meets on the third Monday of the month from 6 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. via Zoom. If you are interested in being considered for nomination or wish to propose another parishioner, please contact Carmy Baca, Pastoral Council Chair. You can reach Carmy via email at cbaca_929@yahoo.com, or call the parish office at (916) 481-5115 to leave her a message. Every parishioner should feel free to express thoughts and concerns to any member of the Pastoral Council at any time. For more information about Pastoral Council, visit our parish website: <https://olaparish.net/pastoral-council>.

God our Father, we thank you for calling men and women to serve in your Son's Kingdom as priests, deacons, and consecrated persons. Send your Holy Spirit to help others to respond generously and courageously to your call. May our community of faith support vocations of sacrificial love in our youth and young adults. COMMUNITY

St. Vincent de Paul Society - OLA Conference

Thank you for your continued support! SVdP's Fiscal Year October 1, 2023 - September 30, 2024 recently ended. The food locker served a total of 15,751 clients in that 12-month period. We couldn't help this many individuals without everyone's continued support helping those in need within our church boundaries. We are truly grateful and blessed to have such generous parishioners.

SVdP would also like to thank the family of Phil and Terri Klaas for donating a new three door refrigerator in their memory.

This refrigerator replaced the one that stopped working over the summer.

We need soup and green beans for the Food Locker.

We also need paper grocery bags and empty egg cartons. Drop donations at the parish office or in the church SVdP collection boxes.

For those who need assistance and live within our parish boundaries, the food locker is open Tuesdays and Thursdays from 10 A.M.-12 P.M. We can also help with utility and rent payments. Call (916) 481-6352 for more information.

Interested in volunteering for SVdP? We are still looking for volunteers for helping at the Food Locker, helping with our telephone teams, and more. Please call (916) 481-6352 to leave a message, or email Marylee Johnson at jmjohn@surewest.net.

Weekly Meetings at OLA
