GOSPEL MEDITATION

31st Sunday in Ordinary Time

Last Easter season a new convert to Catholicism at my parish asked me with a grave tone in her voice: "Why do we call priests 'father' if Jesus says, 'Call no man on earth your father, for you have one Father, who is in heaven'?" Thinking myself clever, I asked, "Do you think it's okay to call someone your 'teacher' or 'mister' or 'dad'?" She said, "Yes, I do." I responded, "Well, Jesus seems to forbid that, too. So, it's obviously hyperbole that he's using." She thought for a moment and declared, "Then I will stop using those words, too!" And she walked away. Not the outcome I was seeking.

We shouldn't be too hasty in dismissing this complaint voiced by many non-Catholics. The expression "father" for ordained priests is not honorary for the individual man. The priest's fatherhood doesn't begin or end in him at all. Rather, the title "father" indicates that he is a sacramental sign of God's Fatherhood revealed in Jesus. I can tell you, as a very unworthy bearer of that title, we should give and receive that title with some trepidation (because of God's awesomeness) and with a little sense of humor (because of the lowliness of the men with the title).

The longer I'm a priest, the more I'm comfortable with people not using the title "father" and just calling me "John." After all, only God is Father in the truest sense. At the same time, Jesus has brought the Father close to us, very close. We honor this closeness in some men with the title "father." Who are the priests in your life whom Christ has sent to you? How wonderful that Christ has surrounded us with humble signs of his Father's love. It's good to celebrate that love with gratitude for the priests in our lives.

-Father John Muir ©LPi

National Vocations Awareness Week

National Vocation Awareness Week, celebrated November 5-11, 2023, is an annual week-long celebration of the Catholic Church in the United States dedicated to promoting vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, and consecrated life through prayer and education, and to renew our prayers and support for those who are considering one of these particular vocations.

Thank you to Fr. Eduino Silveira, Fr. Brendan McKeefry, Fr. Michael Kiernan, Deacon Paul Friedrich, and Deacon Michael Tateishi for their dedicated service over the years.

OLA Vocations Prayer: Loving God, You speak to us and nourish us through the life of this church community. In the name of Jesus, we ask you to send your Spirit to us so that men and women among us, young and old, will respond to your call to service and leadership in the church. We pray, especially in our day, for those who hear your invitation to be a priest, sister, brother, or deacon; and also for those called to be a spouse or single person. May those who are opening their hearts and minds to your call be encouraged and strengthened through our enthusiasm in your service. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen

Eucharistic Miracle Series

Ettiswil, Switzerland, 1447

For the parish year of the National Eucharistic Revival, we will be featuring information in the bulletin about the Real Presence of Christ

At Ettiswil, there is a shrine dedicated to the Eucharistic miracle that happened in 1447. Ann Vögtli, a member of a satanic sect, was able to steal the pyx containing the large Host from the church on Wednesday, May 23, 1447. The Host was found close to a fence in the middle of some nettles bushes by Margaret Schulmeister (a young lady and swineherd), listed high up and surrounded by vivid light, divided in 7 pieces united among them so that they looked like a flower. Margaret stated "Once I arrived with my pigs close to the place where the Blessed Sacrament had been thrown, my animals did not want to go further. I asked the help of two men who were passing by on their horses."

After close investigation, the police arrested Ann Vögtli who confessed everything saying, "Having slipped my hand in the narrow iron gate, I got hold of the large Host. But as soon as I went beyond the cemetery wall, the Blessed Sacrament became so heavy that I was unable to carry it any longer. Being unable to go forward and to go backward, I got rid of the Host by throwing it close to a fence, in the nettles." The local parish priest was informed. He, at once, together with all the parishioners, went there to pick up the Host and bring it back to the church. He picked up the six sections, but when he wanted to pick up the main central section, this stuck to the ground before everybody's eyes. This partition was interpreted as a sign and it was decided to build a chapel precisely at the place where the Host had disappeared. Good did many miracles there. Many Popes granted indulgence to the shrine's visitors. The great feast of the miracle's chapel takes place on the "Laetare" Sunday and on the two following days.
