Parish Mission Statement

The Mission of the parish community at Our Lady of the Assumption Church is to proclaim the Word of God more fully, to gain a more intimate knowledge of God through our Catholic traditions, and to serve the people of God, especially in our efforts to meet the needs of the poor in our community, and when possible, around the world. We strive to build a sense of community among our parishioners, with the entire family of God.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ADVENT 2024 – WEEK 3: JOY

I remember a movie where one of the characters said that she felt more excitement and delight in falling in love than being in love. We get caught up in the excitement of events. We get caught up in our expectations and anticipation. The thrill of what may come animates us and invigorates us. We see as much in our Gospel reading, as folks see in John and baptizing, their way to the kingdom of heaven. They were caught up in the moment “filled with expectation . . . asking in their hearts whether John might be the Christ.”

But what happens after the excitement and delight of falling in love wanes? Do we become anxious and impatient, looking for the next thing? Do we turn away? Look at the folks in the Gospel reading. What happened after falling in love with Jesus faded? They crucified him.

Graciously, God gives us this wonderful gift through Jesus – love. We find joy in being in love. There is something in the long, steady growth love fills within us. There is a calmness, a contentment, a comfort – joy. In our longest relationships, we are filled with the joy of being with someone, of being in their presence. Such a relationship we received in Christ’s first advent, as he spread the good news born in love for us and sustained through the Holy Spirit, though we’re surely not worthy.

It is this joy that often assists us in the worst of times or circumstances. We feel satisfied; we are filled with hope and promise that feeds our emptiness. In our joy, can we allow Jesus’ presence to fill us with the wonders of this world? Can we prepare a place in our hearts for him?

— Deacon Michael Tateishi

All Souls

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

Amen.

Catholic Q and A: Confessing Sins

Question: If I go to the Sacrament of Penance and end up repeating the same sins, does that mean I do not have a strong enough intention to amend my life?

Answer: There is a popular expression that says, "Be patient. God isn't finished with me yet!" Growing in faith and holiness is an ongoing, life-long project, and our struggle with sin is at the heart of it.

When we confess our sins, we are to come with a fully contrite heart. You need to reflect on your true feelings toward your actions before approaching the sacrament. After confession, there are strategies you can make to avoid falling into the same traps of sin. First, pray for and seek out strength and perseverance through multiple sacraments, charitable work, and personal sacrifice. Second, avoid occasions of sin when you might fail or be sorely tempted. In doing these things, remind yourself daily that it is a spiritual war we wage, and with God's grace, we will succeed. ©LPI

Faith Enrichment and Formation Resources from Flocknote Engage

Did you know that our parish has Flocknote Engage, which includes free access to Bishop Barron's Word on Fire ENGAGE video library and study programs? All that is required is a OLA Parish Flocknote account. Sign up for free at <https://app.flocknote.com/olaparish/>.

Login to Flocknote and visit Word on Fire (WOF) Digital to watch any of the videos at any time. This is a robust faith formation resource that includes access to the popular Catholicism series and other study programs (including free pdf study materials).

Fr. Eduino encourages parishioners to gather in small groups to learn more about our faith. The Flocknote Engage library is a great resource if you want to bring together a small group to learn about a variety of topics. On Flocknote Engage, the educational series available include Catholicism, The Mass, The Sacraments, The Creed, The Pivotal Players, and so much more. If you have any questions or are interested in leading a group, please contact Casey Oliver at worship@olaparish.net.

Radiate Love December 2024

Your Mission, Should You Choose to Accept It...

In families, husbands and wives marry in love, then see their love deepen through the myriad good times and challenges of a lifetime of marriage. The mission of the family is not for the fainthearted. It entails sacrifice and sometimes heartache, but all of that is meant to bring spouses closer together and further along the path to holiness. If they are blessed to become parents, they are tasked with teaching their children how to be human. What a concept!
