OUR PARISH

Called to joy

Writing from prison as he awaits his death, St Paul calls on Christians to rejoice in the Lord and to be kind to all. He says that we are to rejoice because the Lord is near and he tells us to put our faith in God by praying for all things. In the First reading the Prophet Zephaniah echoes the same call saying that the Lord is in our midst and has removed His judgement against us. St John the Baptist announces the cause for our joy: Jesus came to baptize us in the Holy Spirit Who consoles and guides us. Through faith and prayer, as well as repentance, we receive the Holy Spirit Who fills our hearts with peace and love inspiring us to be kind and live in joy.

A Catholic Journey through Recovery

The Pastoral Council is very pleased to announce that we will inaugurate a new ministry, Catholic in Recovery, in early January. The twice-monthly meetings will focus on the healing of addiction and unhealthy attachments. Together we will aim to supplement each other's personal recovery with a sacramental understanding of God's mercy using the traditions of the Catholic Church. During these meetings we'll tie together liturgical themes, scripture from Sunday's Mass readings and twelve step recovery principles. Loved ones of those struggling with addiction or unhealthy attachments are welcome to participate. Our first meeting will be held on Monday, January 7, from 6:00 - 7:00 pm in St. Paul's room. Confidentiality will be fully supported. Please join these joyful meetings full of honesty, openness, and gratefulness. If you have any questions related to our Catholic in Recovery ministry, please contact Jenny Teeters at jennyteeters@gmail.com or 916-265-3935.

OLA Youth Choir and Music Ensemble for Advent and Christmas

All parish and OLA school children (grades 1-8) are invited to participate! Singers and instrumentalists welcome. We will be serving at the 9:30 am Mass at the 4:00 pm Christmas Eve Mass (December 24). We are hoping for a large ensemble this year, and we need everyone's help to make that happen. Please encourage the youth in your life to participate! The participation of our youth in the liturgy is a special gift. In addition to learning beloved Advent and Christmas songs, participants will also learn the structure and sequence of the Mass and the basics of vocal technique and healthy singing.

Practices are from 6:00-6:55 on most Wednesday evenings beginning November 7th through December 19th. Please contact our Music Director, Casey Oliver, with any questions at 481-5115 or worship@olaparish.net.

Gaudete Week

Our week begins with "Gaudete Sunday." Gaudete means "rejoice" in Latin. It comes from the first word of the Entrance antiphon on this Sunday. The spirit of joy that begins this week comes from the words of Paul, "The Lord is near." This joyful spirit is marked by the third candle of our Advent wreath, which is rose-colored, and the rose-colored vestments often used at the Eucharist.

The second part of Advent begins on December 17th each year. For the last eight days before Christmas, the plan of the readings changes. The first readings are still from the prophecies, but now the gospels are from the infancy narratives of Matthew and Luke. We read the stories of faithful women and men who prepared the way for our salvation. We enter into the story of how Jesus' life began. These stories are filled with hints of what his life will mean for us. Faith and generosity overcome impossibility. Poverty and persecution reveal glory.

Preparing our Hearts and asking for Grace

We prepare this week by feeling the joy. We move through this week feeling a part of the waiting world that rejoices because our longing has prepared us to believe the reign of God is close at hand. And so we consciously ask:

Prepare our hearts and remove the sadness that hinders us from feeling the joy and hope which his presence will bestow.

Each morning this week, in that brief moment we are becoming accustomed to, we want to light a third inner candle. Three candles, going from expectation, to longing, to joy. They represent our inner preparation, or inner perspective. In this world of "conflict and division," "greed and lust for power," we begin each day this week with a sense of liberating joy. Perhaps we can pause, breathe deeply and say,

"My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord, my spirit rejoices in God my savior."

Each day this week, we will continue to go through our everyday life, but we will experience the difference our faith can bring to it. We are confident that the grace we ask for will be given us. We will encounter sin - in our own hearts and in our experience of the sin of the world. We can pause in those moments, and feel the joy of the words,

"You are to name him Jesus, because he will save his people from their sins." Matthew 1:21

We may experience the Light shining into dark places of our lives and showing us patterns of sinfulness, and inviting us to experience God's mercy and healing. Perhaps we wish to celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation this week. We may want to make gestures of reconciliation with a loved one, relative, friend or associate. With more light and joy, it is easier to say, "I'm sorry; let's begin again."

Each night this week we want to pause in gratitude. Whatever the day has brought, no matter how busy it has been, we can stop, before we fall asleep, to give thanks for a little more light, a little more freedom to walk by that light, in joy.

Our celebration of the coming of our Savior in history, is opening us up to experience his coming to us this year, and preparing us to await his coming in Glory.

*Come, Lord Jesus. Come and visit your people.
We await your coming. Come, O Lord.*

O Antiphons

The Roman Church has been singing the "O" Antiphons since at least the eighth century. They are the antiphons that accompany the Magnificat canticle of Evening Prayer from December 17-23. They are a magnificent theology that uses ancient biblical imagery drawn from the messianic hopes of the Old Testament to proclaim the coming Christ as the fulfillment not only of Old Testament hopes, but present ones as well. Their repeated use of the imperative "Come!" embodies the longing of all for the Divine Messiah.

Dec. 17 - O' Sapientia (meaning O Wisdom), from Isaiah 11:2-3.

Dec. 18 - O' Adonai (O Leader/Ruler), Isaiah 11:4-5 and 33:22

Dec. 19 - O' Radix (O Root of Jesse), Isaiah 11:1

Dec. 20 - O' Clavis (O Key of David), Isaiah 22:22

Dec. 21 - O' Oriens (O Radiant Dawn), Isaiah 9:1

Dec. 22 - O' Rex Gentium (O King of the Nations), Isaiah 2:4

Dec. 23 - O' Emmanuel (O God with Us), Isaiah 7:14.

Invitation to Help Carmichael's Homeless “There but for the grace of God go I.”

At the beginning of the New Year, our parish has the opportunity to help the homeless even more, in a very simple but profound way. Three of our neighbor churches, will each host one of the nine weeks of Winter Sanctuary, with the guidance of Carmichael HART. They need our help. The three churches and the dates that will need help include:

- St. John the Evangelist (5751 Locust Ave.): Wednesday, January 2 from 4:30 pm through Thursday, January 3 at 6:30 a.m.
- American River Community Church (3300 Walnut Avenue): Wednesday, January 16 from 4:30 pm through Thursday, January 17 at 6:30 a.m.
- Crossroads Church (7100 Fair Oaks Boulevard): Wednesday, February 27 from 4:30 pm through Thursday, February 28 at 6:30 a.m.

Each church will host 20-25 guests that have been screened and bussed to their church. OLA will need a minimum of 18 volunteers to sign up for various shifts, and most especially late night and overnight. We will need volunteers to plan and cook a simple dinner and pack a light breakfast, as the guests leave in the morning. In addition to the preparation of meals, we will need volunteers to cover the following shifts:

Each Wednesday

- 4:30pm – 7:30 pm: 5 volunteers for Dinner and Clean Up
- 5:30 pm – 8:00 pm: 4 volunteers for Hospitality and Serving
- 7:30 pm – 11:30 pm: 2 males and 1 female for the Night Shift

Each Thursday

- 11:30 pm – 6:30 am: 2 males and 1 female for the Overnight Shift
- 5:15 am – 6:30 am: 3 volunteers for Wake-up and Boarding of the Busses

If you are interested in volunteering for one or more shifts, please contact Juan Yñiguez (jcyniguez@att.net or 916.207.9512). This is also a good opportunity for our parish ministries to volunteer as groups. Teens are welcome to participate, but they must be accompanied by their parent or guardian.
