A Catholic Journey through Recovery

The Pastoral Council is very pleased to announce that we will inaugurate a new ministry, Catholic in Recovery, in early January. The twice-monthly meetings will focus on the healing of addiction and unhealthy attachments. Together we will aim to supplement each other's personal recovery with a sacramental understanding of God's mercy using the traditions of the Catholic Church. During these meetings we'll tie together liturgical themes, scripture from Sunday's Mass readings and twelve step recovery principles. Loved ones of those struggling with addiction or unhealthy attachments are welcome to participate. Our first meeting will be held on Monday, January 7, from 6:00 - 7:00 pm in St. Paul's room. Confidentiality will be fully supported. Please join these joyful meetings full of honesty, openness, and gratefulness. If you have any questions related to our Catholic in Recovery ministry, please contact Jenny Teeters at jennyteeters@gmail.com or 916-265-3935.

REST IN PEACE

We extend prayers of comfort to the families and friends of:

Note: her funeral will be Friday, January 11th, at 10am at St. Anthony's Church.

Martha and Mary Ministry

"On their journey Jesus entered a village where a woman named Martha welcomed him to her home. She had a sister named Mary, who seated herself at the Lord's feet and listened to his words." Luke 10:38-42

The Martha and Mary Ministry meets each month in the spirit of hospitality demonstrated by Martha and Mary.

We provide funeral receptions for parishioners as part of that ministry. Next year, we plan to incorporate bible study into our meetings to further emulate Martha and Mary, who set aside their work to listen to Jesus.

We also enjoy a light luncheon with our meetings and also welcome guest speakers who can enlighten us on topics of interest to the group.

All ladies of the parish are encouraged to stop by on the first Thursday of each month, in St. John's Hall at 11:00 to join in faith and fellowship. For additional information, please contact Joan Cotton at faithformation@olaparish.net.

Reflecting On the Manger The Mystery Revealed to us in the Hay

An ox knows its owner,
and an ass, its master's manger;
But Israel does not know,
my people has not understood.
- Isaiah 1:2

The story of the birth of Jesus, as told to us by Luke, is full of joy in the midst of great conflict and sadness - even irony and rejection. It prepares us for the scandal of the cross by helping us see, in such a beautifully told story, that Jesus' mission is revealed to us in how he came to us - in poverty and humiliation. There, in the hay, we begin to know. There, in the manger, we begin to understand. Our God is revealed to us by coming in the lowliest of possible places. It is a meditation for our whole lives. This story is here to bring us light in the midst of any darkness, poverty, rejection, emptiness, sinfulness we experience. By reminding us of where he comes, the Good New is also a revelation of who we are. We are the "people who walk in darkness." We are people who experience parts of our lives as dry and unwelcoming as that hay. We are people who, on our own, not only fail to know and understand; we are capable of tremendous infidelity and stubborn independence.

We get our word "manger" from the Latin (and so French, Italian, Spanish) root, which means simply "to eat." Jesus comes, into the greatest place of our poverty, not only to be "with us" but to nourish us. The manger can be the place we go this Christmas to be fed with the acceptance, love, and peace we need. There is no place of darkness in which we need ever feel alone. There is no situation, no loss, no tragedy that need ever leave us empty. There is no sin, no matter how selfish that will ever leave us apart from God's love.

We have prayed, "Come, Lord Jesus. Come and visit your people. We await your coming. Come, O Lord." Now, our eyes are opened to the wondrous joy of his coming to us in that manger 2,000 years ago, so that we will know and understand his coming to us in our hunger today, and ultimately so that we will long for his final coming to bring us to the banquet that has been prepared, to fill all our longing.

The Twelve Days of Christmas Explained

The "True Love" one hears in the song is not a smitten boy or girlfriend but Jesus Christ, because truly Love was born on Christmas Day. The partridge in the pear tree also represents Him because that bird is willing to sacrifice its life, if necessary, to protect its young by feigning injury to draw away predators.

According to Ann Ball in her book, Handbook Of Catholic Sacramentals:

The two turtle doves were the Old and New Testaments.

The three French hens stood for faith, hope, and love.

The four calling birds were the four gospels of Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John.

The five golden rings represented the first five books of the Old Testament, which describe man's fall into sin and the great love of God in sending a Savior.

The six geese a-laying stood for the six days of creation.

Seven swans a-swimming represented the sevenfold gifts of the Holy Spirit-----Prophecy, Serving, Teaching, Exhortation, Contribution, Leadership, and Mercy.

The eight maids a-milking were the eight beatitudes.

Nine ladies dancing were the nine fruits of the Holy Spirit-----Charity, Joy, Peace, Patience [Forbearance], Goodness [Kindness], Mildness, Fidelity, Modesty, Continency [Chastity].

The ten lords a-leaping were the Ten Commandments.

The eleven pipers piping stood for the eleven faithful Apostles.

The twelve drummers drumming symbolized the twelve points of belief in The Apostles' Creed.

Questions of the Week

Theme: Jesus is God made flesh. (Emmanuel = God is with us!)

Breaking Open the Word

Suggested text for faith sharing: Today's Gospel

Step One: Listen to the Word

What one word or thought in this reading really strikes you? What overall sense of the Christian life do you get from this reading?

Step Two: Look into Your Life

Question for Children: When you pray, how do you hear God's voice in response?

Question for Youth: God speaks to us in our intuitions and imagination, as he did to Joseph in this dream. What is your experience of hearing God speak in this way? What is God asking of you?

Question for Adults: What experiences do you have of God "speaking to you" and directing your life and work? How does God speak to you in prayer?

“For behold, when the voice of your greeting came to my ears, the babe in my womb leaped for joy.” (Luke 1:44)

When you hear the scripture readings and Gospel reading each Sunday, do you “leap for joy?” If not, don’t blame the lecturer or priest, rather look inside yourself. Do you prepare for Mass each week or do you just show up and expect to be entertained? We are called to be active participants, not passive bystanders.

Second Collection December 22nd/23rd

This weekend the second collection will be for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development.

CCHD works to break the cycle of poverty by helping low-income people participate in decisions that affect their lives, families and communities. CCHD offers a hand up, not a hand out.

Next weekend, December 29th/30th, the Second Collection will be for St. Vincent de Paul Society.

St. Vincent de Paul’s Services, Operation and Support

On December 29th and 30th, the second collection will be for Our Lady of Assumption’s St. Vincent de Paul ministry. You, our OLA parishioners, have been most generous in your support for the poor living within OLA’s parish boundaries. Since October, needy families were helped with $6,098.45 for rent, utilities, beds, furniture, clothing and other essentials. Also since October 1st, 3,002 people were given food including full Thanksgiving dinners for 173 families totaling 626 people. The food locker is open two mornings a week, giving a minimum of three meals for three days for each member of the household. Clients may come every 14 days. Food donations are appreciated from the OLA ministries, OLA students, and individual parishioners dropping off non-perishable items in the containers in the back of church. The Youth Group’s “Soap for Souls” toiletries bags are also greatly appreciated. Almost daily, volunteers pick-up food at Winco and Save Mart stores and twice-weekly trips are made to the Sacramento Food Bank for much needed basics. Anyone interested in being a part of OLA’s St. Vincent de Paul ministry as either a Food Locker or Home Visitation volunteer may talk with a member or call (916) 481-6352 for information. Our local needy would not be assisted without your OLA parishioner support. Stamped envelopes for your use are in the pew racks. If you are away for the Fifth Sunday collection, envelopes may be dropped in another collection or left at the parish office. Thank You! May God’s blessings be yours at this most holy season!

Thank you very much for your exceptional generosity! Many needy families enjoyed a wonderful Christmas because of you. They send you their heartfelt thanks.

What do you do that requires only 10% of you? What do you do that leverages 50 or 60% of who you are? And what do you do that engages 90% of you?
