GOSPEL MEDITATION

Feast of the Holy Family

As a first-time pastor in a parish, I received a phone call one afternoon from a young married couple, "Father, our 2-year-old son drowned in our pool this morning. We are at the hospital. Please help us." I sped over. The little boy was gone, his body cold, slightly blue, laid out on a bed. His parents were distraught and in shock. For the next few years, I walked with the couple along their difficult and painful road. They openly shared with me how they were often tempted to blame and accuse each other for the loss. And yet, by God's grace, their love for each grew stronger and deeper as the years went by.

The Holy Family was not without its pain and loss, either. Luke tells us, after losing their twelve-year-old son, Joseph and Mary "after three days found him in the temple area, sitting among the teachers..." (Luke 2:46). We don't know specifically what those three days were like for them except for what Mary says: "Your father and I have been looking for you anxiously." The three days of his absence foreshadow his death and burial. His finding in the temple is a kind of resurrection for his family. They had to learn, again and again, that their family was becoming a place where death and resurrection was not only accepted but welcomed and celebrated. But surely they deeply felt the dangerous agony of their loss – just like every couple who has lost a child.

What losses in your experience of family still cause you anxiety? In what ways has God's presence seemingly vanished in your family? Will you keep searching for Jesus? Remember, he will rise and be found. Your family may be suffering, but when he is found, it will be stronger than ever before.

– Father John Muir ©LPI

For those in our community who have passed away...

All Souls

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

Amen.

OLA Parish and School Celebrate Our Lady of Guadalupe Feast Day

On Thursday, December 12, OLA Parish and School celebrated the Our Lady of Guadalupe Feast Day with a Mass and reception. Our Lady appeared in Mexico in 1531 with a message of reconciliation and forgiveness for all the Americas. Highlights of the celebration included a bilingual Mass celebrated by Father Eduino with wonderful, reverential music and singing by the duo Luz y Cielo (Light and Heaven). The reception followed with tasty Mexican tamales, pan dulce (sweet bread) and hot drinks, along with more music.

Numerous students assisted Father Eduino with the Mass. OLA Faith Formation students Gabriel and Valentina Gomez and OLA School student Abril Negrete Piz all participated as altar servers, and OLA student Alex Negrete Piz (pictured above) served as the lector.

The celebration marks the first time OLA has hosted a bilingual Mass and reception in honor of Our Lady of Guadalupe. Both the Mass and reception were very well attended. Many thanks go to the Planning Committee composed of Yesenia Piz, Sofia Gomez, Rosa Laura, Carmy Baca, Juan and Vicky Yñiguez, Deacon Paul, Sharon Friedrich, Deacon Michael, Robert Love, Casey Oliver, and of course Father Eduino. All signals point to making the celebration an annual event.

Our Lady of Guadalupe, pray for us!

Rachel's Ministry Retreat

There are claims stating that abortion will solve the problem. However, these claims do not address the landslide of problems it creates - feelings of sadness, guilt, grief, isolation, and depression. Rachel's Ministry Retreat allows the healing process to begin for those who suffer from the traumas of abortion by offering Jesus' forgiveness and healing love and the hope and promise of resurrection. Two retreats will be offered next year:

-February 28-March 2, 2025 (in Spanish)

-June 6-8, 2025 (in English)

If you or someone you know would benefit from the weekend retreat, to experience God's love, mercy, and compassion, please call Project Rachel at 916-733-0161 and start the process of accepting God's loving mercy. More information is available on the diocesan website at www.scd.org/postabortioncare.
