GOSPEL MEDITATION

Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Of all the things Jesus says which seem totally bat-crazy, this one might take the cake: "But I say to you, love your enemies, and pray for those who persecute you." An enemy is someone who desires the destruction of you, your projects, or those you care about. To love and pray for them is to want their health, strength, and flourishing. But if they thrive, they are more likely to hurt you and others. So, aren't you indirectly willing your own destruction, or that of your friends? If you doubt that this problem is embedded in this teaching, when was the last time you actually prayed honestly for the people you really hate?

How can we solve this riddle so we might actually live this command? Recall that enemy-love is the surest sign that you love someone with God's love, and not with indirect egotism. After all, if my love for my enemy ends up hurting me or my loved ones, it can't be for me. Enemy-love costs more because there are no tit-for-tats. No reciprocity – just loved poured out, and often pain in return. That's why it is so precious and rare. "What is unusual about that?" asks the Lord about love for our friends. Jesus wants us to experience the unusual love which only comes from him.

When Jesus was being killed on the cross, he was loving his executioners. In fact, he was holding them in being as they nailed him to the cross. He loved those who were spiritually piercing his Mother's heart, while they were doing it. And when he rose from the dead, he showed us that this kind of love is always worth it. It's stronger than death. Real love is unusual.

PARISH & SCHOOL NEWS

Resources to Help You Grow in Faith and Knowledge During Lent and Beyond

This weekend, copies of the Word Among Us Lent 2023 resource, "Praying With Jesus This Lent," are available in the church. The books are on the tables by the church doors.

Did you pick up a copy of Holy Moments during Advent? If so, check out Dynamic Catholic's BEST LENT EVER program, which is based on the Holy Moments book. We will be offering the Best Lent Ever emails through Flocknote during Lent for those who sign up.

Our parish also has Flocknote Engage, which includes complete access to Bishop Robert Barron's Word on Fire ENGAGE video library! All that is required is a Flocknote account. Visit Word on Fire Digital through Flocknote to watch any of the videos at any time. This is a robust faith formation resource that includes access to the complete Catholicism series, multiple study programs (including free pdf study materials), and more. You can even start a small study group with your friends and family using these free resources if you wish.

Looking for scripture study at our parish? Check out our Living the Word group! This group meets weekly on Thursday evenings at 7:00 pm in Affinito Hall Meeting Room 3 and discusses the Sunday Mass readings.

Check our parish website for more resources to help you grow in faith:

PERT Club February Meeting

PERT (PEOPLE ENJOYING RETIREMENT TOGETHER) meets this Tuesday, Feb 21, in St. John's Hall. Gather at 11am and help set up. At 11:30 sharp, we will have a speaker from the Renaissance Society. NO, you don't have to get out you armor. Come and hear about the classes online and in person at Sacramento State especially for seniors. The variety is amazing, one low price includes them all (too many to handle). They have something for everyone, almost. Learn how to use your cell phone, history, current events. Join a walking group or health support, DNA, science, history, and current affairs, etc. Even if you don't want to learn anything new, you'd at least know what others might be up to in our area.

Bring your own sack lunch to dine with fellow parishioners, renew old and make new friendships. Help decide future events for PERT, maybe even play a game after?

Any questions call Kathi and Carl at 707-496-0736. All are welcome.

OLA Vocations Prayer: Loving God, You speak to us and nourish us through the life of this church community. In the name of Jesus, we ask you to send your Spirit to us so that men and women among us, young and old, will respond to your call to service and leadership in the church. We pray, especially in our day, for those who hear your invitation to be a priest, sister, brother, or deacon; and also for those called to be a spouse or single person. May those who are opening their hearts and minds to your call be encouraged and strengthened through our enthusiasm in your service. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

COMMUNITY

Come together in the charity of Christ to restore dignity and hope to others.

25% comes back to our parish for our own outreach to those in need.

This weekend we join together through the Annual Catholic Appeal. We may not all be social workers, yet through the Annual Catholic Appeal, the whole Catholic community leans in to help our Catholic charities...and our own parish...to sustain programs and ministries that help lift our neighbors and friends out of the hardships of poverty.

The Annual Catholic Appeal is dedicated solely to the social mission of the Church here in Northern California. Last year, 380,000 people were helped by Appeal funded charitable works. In our parish, the Annual Catholic Appeal support St. Vincent de Paul and our school.

Please be as generous as you can. Every gift makes a profound difference in someone's life.

Shepherds Field Olive Wood Handcrafts

A group from the Holy Land (Bethlehem & Jerusalem) will be selling religious articles after Masses this weekend to support the Catholic Christian minorities in Bethlehem. As a tradition, many of the Catholic families in the Holy Land work to produce religious articles from olive wood. Sales will be used to help support these families.
