GOSPEL REFLECTION

God Delights in You

A single mother who has a child with special needs works two jobs and sacrifices much of her own pleasures in order to be available for her son. Being the best mother possible is important to her and brings her joy. We are willing to make great and often heroic sacrifices for those people and things that matter most to us. Unless there is something of obvious importance to us in our immediate path, we can easily approach life in a more haphazard and chaotic way. We jump from one thing to another, responding to whatever it is that is competing for our attention at that moment. When everything is important, nothing is important.

If we do not wear the right pair of glasses, we can get all too easily caught up in the superficial stuff and neglect paying attention to the things that really matter. The kingdom of God is like the pearl of great price that is worth selling everything for so that it can be obtained. Based on where I invest my time and energy each day, I really wonder whether I am serving God's kingdom or my own. Have you ever considered tracking how you spend your time? You may be surprised! We allow our agendas to set the clock of our lives. We forget that joy and a true sense of purpose are not going to be found in following that timepiece. Joy is the expression of the happiness that is discovered when living in the kingdom of God. When our agenda matches God, not only do we leap for joy but God leaps with delight as well. Our well-being is what matters most to God.

Can you imagine God delighting in you? It is easy to deaden our senses to the whole reality of God and the joy that living the Gospel can bring. The demands of secular life and the agendas competing for our attention can quickly do that. We can get tired and spiritually apathetic. But if we can see our way through all of the conflicting voices and hear the voice of God, we can rediscover our zeal and passion and redirect our efforts. When we begin to see as God sees, we can rise each day and notice what really needs our attention and embrace it with exuberance. Be careful, though. It may not be what we originally had on our list. Responding to it, however, will be worth putting everything else aside.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHTS

JULY 26, 2020

STEWARDSHIP FAITH

17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

We know that all things work for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose." - Romans 8:28

Do you really trust God? Do you really believe that God will provide all that you need? Stewardship faith is a challenge for everyone at times. Putting our trust in God, in everything we do, in good times and in bad, means that God's plan for our lives may be quite different than what we planned. When one door closes, another one opens. Trust in God, His plan is always better.

STEWARDSHIP SAINT

ST. CAMILLUS DE LELLIS PATRON SAINT OF SICK, HOSPITALS, NURSES AND PHYSICIANS

Feast Day: July 18

Canonized: 1746

St. Camillus de Lellis was born in 1550. When he was 16, Camillus joined his father in the army and fought in the war against the Turks.

After many years of serving in the military, Camillus worked at a Capuchin friary in Manfredonia. The guardian of the friary worked hard to bring Camillus to God, and eventually, he converted in 1575 and entered the novitiate of the Capuchin friars. He was denied admission because of an incurable leg wound he received during the war.

Camillus then went to the San Giacomo Hospital in Rome to receive treatment. He became a caregiver, and eventually the hospital Superintendent. He studied under St. Philip Neri and lived a strict life of penance and prayer.

Camillus was ordained to the priesthood in 1584 and founded the Order of Clerks Regular, Ministers of the Infirm, also known as the Camillians. He and his followers helped wounded soldiers on the battlefield. The group was recognized by Pope Sixtus V in 1586, and they began to expand in Naples and Milan.

Camillus continued to suffer from his own wound, but allowed no one to help him, instead tending to the sick at all costs. He fell ill during a trip to inspect the hospitals of his order in Italy, and died in Rome in 1614.

Pope Benedict XIV canonized Camillus in 1746.

SHARING THE GOSPEL

Your toys can break. Your books can tear. Your clothes can shrink and stain. Things don't last forever. The kingdom of heaven does last forever. It is like a treasure. Heaven is worth more than anything you own. In both stories, the person who found the treasure sold everything else just to be a part of God's kingdom.

PRAYER

God, help me to love your kingdom more than the things I have.

SOMETHING TO DRAW

Draw a picture of yourself finding a buried treasure.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK

Put God's kingdom first. Read a Bible story every morning.

POPE TALKS TO YOUTH

35TH WORLD YOUTH DAY - APRIL 5, 2020

Dear friends,

Look at the real heroes who come to light in these days: they are not famous, rich and successful people; rather, they are those who are giving themselves in order to serve others. Feel called yourselves to put your lives on the line. Do not be afraid to devote your life to God and to others; it pays! For life is a gift we receive only when we give ourselves away, and our deepest joy comes from saying yes to love, without ifs and buts. To truly say yes to love, without ifs and buts. As Jesus did for us.

FUN FACTS!

The most valuable earthly treasure ever found (The Cuerdale Hoard) was discovered in 1840 by a group of workmen in a river near Preston in England. Inside was one of the biggest hoards of Viking treasure ever found—more than 8,600 items were documented, including silver coins, various bits of jewelry, and silver ingots. It has an estimated worth of $3.2 million.

POPE SPEAKS

CATECHESIS ON PRAYER - I The mystery of prayer

Prayer is the breath of faith, a cry arising from the hearts of those who trust in God. We see this in the story of Bartimaeus, the beggar from Jericho. Though blind, he is aware that Jesus is approaching, and perseveres in calling out: "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!" (Mk 10:47). By using the phrase "Son of David", he makes a profession of faith in Jesus the Messiah. In response the Lord invites Bartimaeus to express his desire, which is to be able to see again. Christ then tells him: "Go; your faith has saved you" (v. 52). This indicates that faith is a cry for salvation attracting God's mercy and power. It is not only Christians who pray but all men and women who search for meaning on their earthly journey. As we continue on our pilgrimage of faith, may we, like Bartimaeus, always persevere in prayer, especially in our darkest moments, and ask the Lord with confidence: "Jesus have mercy on me. Jesus, have mercy on us!"

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

Question for Children: If you could be with Jesus, what would you trade from your own things for that?

Question for Youth: Today's gospel reminds us that God's kingdom is worth sacrifice. What do you need to sacrifice in order to follow God in your own life? Why are you willing to make that sacrifice?

Question for Adults: Using Jesus' parable as your starting point, describe in your own words what the Reign of God is for you personally, and use a parable to describe it: "The reign of God is -----."
