GOSPEL MEDITATION

2nd Sunday of Lent Luke 9:28b-36

St. Thomas Aquinas said that friends share three things: time, possessions and secrets. For example, how do I know if you're my friend? Well, let's say we've been to Mexico together, you've tried my shaky attempts at pasta carbonara, and you know what ridiculous costume I wore in a music video I filmed in my early twenties.

We, dear reader, are definitely friends. We've shared time, possessions and secrets.

How does friendship with Jesus develop? The same way. Jesus lives and eats with his disciples. Then he takes Peter, James and John to Mount Tabor and there reveals to them his deepest secret: his glorious, divine Sonship. The majesty of God shines from within his humanity in a way that goes beyond description. God the Father confirms this "secret," saying, "This is my chosen Son, listen to him" (Luke 9:35). It's all so precious that "they fell silent and did not at that time tell anyone." Do we take time to be alone with Christ, to allow him to mystically share this "secret" with us as his dear friends?

Lenten challenge: This week, identify one time when you experienced an awareness of some specific aspect of Jesus – perhaps on a retreat, at Mass, in prayer or in an act of service. Spend ten minutes consciously re-living that experience in your heart. If you can't recall one, set aside at least two hours this Lent as a mini retreat, either alone in nature or in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament. Focus on him and ask him to share the secrets of his heart with you. He will. Then, as his friend, share the secrets in your heart. – Father John Muir ©LPi

For those in our community who have passed away...

All Souls

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

Proposed Projects Meeting Rescheduled

The OLA Parish proposed projects meeting has been rescheduled for Sunday, March 30th from 12:00 p.m. to 1:30 p.m. in Affinito Hall – Lucchetti Gym. We will present various projects for our parish and would like your input.

Youth Stations of the Cross and Parish Fish Fry

Join us for our parish Youth Stations of the Cross followed by the annual OLA Lenten Fish Fry on Friday, March 28th. The OLA Youth Stations of the Cross will be featuring youth from our parish school, Faith Formation program, and Youth Ministry. Stations of the Cross begins at 6:00 p.m. in the church. We are looking for student readers (grades 2-8) for the Stations of the Cross. The readings are short and simple, and the readings will be emailed to you as soon as you sign up. We will meet in the church at approximately 5:30 p.m. that night to briefly review the readings and the order. We are also looking for students to help sing in the choir. Please email Casey Oliver at worship@olaparish.net if your student is interested in volunteering to read or sing.

Doors open for the Lenten Fish Fry at approximately 6:30 p.m. after the Youth Stations of the Cross, and dinner will be served after Fr. Eduino gives the blessing. The menu includes fish, fries, apple slaw, and Leatherby's Ice Cream for dessert. Gluten free options are available. All are welcome! The dinner is free of cost, but donations are appreciated. Please RSVP by Monday, March 24th. RSVP forms are available in the church and in the parish/school offices. You may also RSVP online via our parish website: <https://olaparish.net/>, or you can scan the QR code above using your smartphone camera. We hope to see you there!

Farewell to PERT Club

The PERT club will no longer be meeting at OLA after the March 18th meeting. Due to low attendance, we are joining St. John's Senior club. They have a very active group and some of us have been joining them since the Fall Apple Hill trip. Their club meets Wednesday afternoons with various outings and events. On March 18th we will meet in OLA's St. John's room, at 10:30 a.m. for set-up and visiting. We will be bringing our own lunch as many of us eat differently during Lent. We'll have a short meeting and decide what we want to do with our stuff. We should remove everything from the cabinets and drawers. For information, call or text Mary Ellen Hofmann at 916-837-0229.

Prayer & Discussion with author and parishioner Richard Strawn

Our parishioner, Richard Strawn, has authored a new book on prayer! Please join Richard Tuesday, March 25th, at 7:00 p.m. in Affinito Hall for an evening of prayer and discussion based on his book "Open My Lips, Lord."

Catholic Q & A: Lenten Reading

Question: What are some good books for Lenten spiritual reading?

Answer: On more than one occasion, a coach being interviewed about his team—successful or not—will be asked about the next step. The inevitable response includes something about getting back to basics. Reviewing the fundamentals of the sport strengthens performance and builds confidence.

The best Lenten reading takes us back to the fundamentals. If Lent is the time for the Church to be on retreat, then we should focus on the texts that help us deepen our understanding of our faith. Spend time reading one of the Gospels and use a Scripture commentary to learn all you can about the passion of Jesus. Read about the lives of the saints, especially your patron saint and that of your parish. Perhaps there is some local candidate for sainthood, like Father Walter Cizek, SJ, who wrote several faith-inspiring books. Finally, you can use the Catechism of the Catholic Church to learn more about the church's teachings and beliefs. The sections on prayer and the Mass are really great reflections. Focusing on the basics really helps us take another step forward in our faith. We have not only a better understanding of what we believe and practice, but also why we believe. With that belief comes the confidence we need to be better, more faithful witnesses to Christ.
