GOSPEL MEDITATION

Third Sunday of Lent

I am the Lord your God ... You shall not have other gods beside me. – Ex 20:2-3

One of the greatest golfers of all time – if not the greatest – was Jack Nicklaus. Which is why it is baffling that at the beginning of each season he would return to his childhood coach and re-learn how to grip the golf club. It's like Shakespeare re-learning the alphabet and grammar. Why would he do that? Because Jack knew that the fundamentals are always relevant. Perfecting and obsessing over his grip allowed him to do everything else in the game well. In sports and life, the best ones love the basics.

Similarly, as we begin Lent, we re-learn the spiritual basics in the Ten Commandments. Consider the first, to "have no other gods besides me." This is our "grip." Is our connection to God one of absolute fidelity and exclusive worship? Am I willing to let go of my precious idols, the things I cling to instead of God? Once we say "yes" to this fundamental question of our spiritual "grip," then we are ready to properly engage with everything else in life. See how beautifully the game of life unfolds in the next nine commandments (numbered in parentheses): how we speak to God and others (2 and 8), how we organize our week (3), how we relate to our family (4) and the wider community (5 and 7), how we live our sexuality (6), and how we order all the other desires of the human heart (9 and 10). But don't rush to these later Commandments too soon! Everything in life is built on the first Commandment. The more we focus on worshiping God alone, the better we navigate the complexity of life with panache, effectiveness, and love.

Lenten challenge: This week, identify what you can do to better worship God alone. If you're not sure, scan the last nine commandments to identify what you are most likely to worship instead of God. Power, pleasure, control of your time, possessions, family, health, reputation, money? Commit to concrete action to help you let go of this "idol" to better hold on to God alone in faithful worship. Remember: the best love the basics.

–Father John Muir ©LPi

PARISH AND SCHOOL NEWS

Parish Mission Recap

Thank you to Father Bart Hutcherson for conducting an inspirational parish mission, "Becoming a Eucharistic People."

If you weren't able to pick up a copy at the parish mission, Fr. Bart's book "For the Beauty of the Earth: Experiencing the Glory of God in the Wonders of the 49th State" is available for purchase on his website, <http://www.frbart.com/>.

Fr. Bart passionately preached about the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist. He called the parishioners of OLA to renew our commitment to the church's teachings about the Eucharist, asked us to examine how the Eucharistic liturgy offers a pattern for a rich Christian life, and finally challenged us to fulfill Jesus' command to take the Gospel to four corners of the world.

All three of Fr. Bart's inspirational talks can be viewed on our parish website, <https://olaparish.net/ola-live>.

Thank you to our Pastoral Council for organizing the hospitality and meals for the morning and evening sessions. Thank you to Fr. Eduino, Deacon Paul, and Deacon Michael for inviting Fr. Bart to come and preach. Finally, thank you to all of the parishioners and community members who attended!
