Pope Francis has asked our parish to support the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, which helps Christians in the Holy Land, where they are now less than

2% of the population. Your support is essential to help the Church minister in parishes, provide Catholic schools, and offer religious education. This collection also helps to preserve the sacred shrines of Christianity, including in Jerusalem, Nazareth, and Bethlehem, to name only a few. For more information about Christians in the Holy Land, visit www.myfranciscan.org or www.custodia.org.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Palm Sunday
Luke 19:28-40

“As he rode along, the people were spreading their cloaks on the road.” (Luke 19:36)

Consider how useless it is to spread your clothes on the ground for a donkey to walk on. The clothes get smeared with hooves, and who knows the grimy places where they've been? The animal may leave some unsavory presents on them. They may get stolen by a thief looking to make a buck. The thorns, thistles, rocks and muck of the road will leave stains. The clothes may never be useful again, and you'll probably walk home shivering without your normal covering. Yet this is precisely the gesture the people employ to welcome Jesus and his donkey. Why does this detail matter?

Wastefulness is an essential part of celebration. Consider the unnecessary extravagance of Christmas decorations, confetti and ticker tape parades, baseball players spraying each other with bottles of champagne after a victory, birthday gifts for kids and so on. This wastefulness signals celebration and therefore participation in higher identities (as believers, winners, and parents, to mention the above examples). That's what the wasted cloaks are all about. Those who donate their cloaks participate in Christ's kingship in Jerusalem — and we savor it two thousand years later.

The lesson? Learn how to “waste” money, time, clothes, and food on Christ. We do this at Mass, but in so many other ways, too, like serving the poor, going on retreats, and doing prayerful study. When we practice this holy wastefulness, Jesus will ride into our lives and we'll be more deeply members of his kingdom.

— Father John Muir

Catholic Q & A: Easter Triduum and Holy Thursday Foot Washing

Question: I haven't attended Triduum services before. What happens that's different from a normal Sunday Mass?

Answer: The liturgies during Holy Week are unique and rich in symbolism. The Mass for Palm Sunday follows the pattern of the day 2,000 years ago when Jesus entered Jerusalem. It includes a Gospel reading outside the church building and the entrance of the priest into the sanctuary while the congregation waves palms.

The Holy Thursday Mass also follows the rhythm of the ancient Last Supper. The presider washes the feet of members of the congregation, like Jesus washed the feet of the disciples. After Mass, all remaining hosts are taken to an altar of repose, where adoration of the Blessed Sacrament occurs late into the night. Parishioners can remain like the disciples in Gethsemane, when asked to “watch and pray.”

On Good Friday, we celebrate another special liturgical service. Following the Liturgy of the Word, there is a communal reverencing of the cross. The intercessions are solemn and include prayers for many different groups of people, reminding us that Jesus' passion is for the whole world. There is no Liturgy of the Eucharist. Hosts consecrated on Holy Thursday are distributed, after which the tabernacle is empty. The tabernacle remains empty through Holy Saturday – just as Jesus departed from this earthly world in death – and we wait in hope for Easter Sunday!

Question: What is the significance of foot washing on Holy Thursday?

Answer: Foot washing is an ancient practice of hospitality. In Israel in Jesus' day, with its deserts and dusty roads, washing of feet was an act of honor on the part of the host. However, the host himself would not do the washing. That was the role of the servant. The Apostles would have been accustomed to this tradition. At the Last Supper, Jesus takes on the role of the servant, washing the feet of his followers and friends. He models the humble, loving service to which the Apostles would soon be called.

Holy Thursday is the commemoration of the Last Supper. We celebrate many things, including the institution of both the Eucharist and the priesthood – “This is my body, which will be given for you; do this in memory of me.” (Luke 22:19B). When the priest washes the feet of his parishioners, he is modeling the service of Christ. While foot washing is no longer a common practice in our society, we too are invited to imitate Christ's sacrificial service to others. ©LPI

What to expect for the Holy Thursday Foot Washing at OLA:

There will be foot washing stations, four of them, in front of the sanctuary. After someone has his/her feet washed, he/she will in turn wash the feet of the next person in line until everyone in the line has had his/her feet washed. Those having their feet washed should remove their shoes and socks before entering the line and put their shoes and socks back on after returning to their seat.

Jubilee Reflection Theme Three

In the passage of time, we are not exempt from pain and suffering. In this suffering we express our longing and desire and trust in God's love and promises. We share with creation, in the expectation of the bodily resurrection to which we are predestined in Christ the Lord. As Pilgrims of Hope, we must listen to the groans of creation, of which we are a part. Caring for our common home, we unite with creation giving voice to our reliance on God's merciful as well as commanding presence in our midst. We work with patient hope, as we look forward to the fulfillment of his plan which is joy, love, and peace in the Holy Spirit.

CRS - Called to Share the Bread of Life

Holy Week, a sacred time in the liturgical year, invites us to journey with Christ through his Passion, Death, and Resurrection. As we witness the Last Supper and Jesus' gift of the Eucharist, we are reminded of our call to be bread broken for others. Let us draw strength from the Bread of Life and dedicate ourselves to serving our sisters and brothers who bear heavy crosses, bringing hope and the joy of the resurrection to the world. Visit www.crsricebowl.org to learn more.

If you are interested in donating to CRS Rice Bowl, you may place physical donations to CRS via the small basket on the top of the altar. For online donations, visit: www.crsricebowl.org the QR codes on the double-sided CRS Rice Bowl Flyers located in the flyer stands by each church exit.
