GOSPEL MEDITATION

Third Sunday of Easter

When I was a kid, a friend at my home parish told me, "If you get to Mass by the Gospel reading, it counts!" As a lifelong late-arriver, it's something I have told myself many times, especially in my earlier years as a Catholic. If the "it counts" is justifiable on a pathetically minimal scale of liturgical legalism, then the Gospel reading today shows how insanely wrong-headed it is, and how helpful it is to re-think the Mass in its light.

The famous "Road to Emmaus" story recounts, on that first Sunday of the Resurrection, the basic two-fold structure of the Mass: Word, followed by Eucharist. Jesus spends a significant period of time with two dismayed disciples, as he connects a wide swath of the Hebrew scriptures with his own suffering, death, and resurrection. They would later report that this Liturgy of the Word touched their hearts with an inexplicable fire. This Word-induced flame alone is what leads the two disciples to discover Jesus' presence in the "breaking of the bread."

With this in mind, how can we possibly think that the Liturgy of the Word is unnecessary or incidental? The two disciples needed the Scriptures explained to them in order to experience Jesus alive in the eucharistic breaking of bread. Sure, we say, but they had the Risen Jesus. But that's precisely the point: Jesus is risen and accompanies us in both parts of the Mass. Imagine how much our experience of Jesus in the Eucharist would deepen if we (preachers and listeners) took even more seriously that Jesus himself sets our hearts ablaze with his Word so that we know him in the Eucharist. That Word-induced fire counts, too!

-Father John Muir ©LPI

PARISH AND SCHOOL NEWS

More Buildings and Grounds News

Both the parish and our school were successful last year in receiving federal funding for security projects through the State Office of Emergency Services (OES). This included $400,000 for the school and $400,000 for the parish. We have just completed our first project which is to install safety ballistic film on our school buildings and on our parish facilities. This included classrooms, offices, meeting rooms, e.g., St John Hall, St Paul and Affinito Hall meeting room. You may have noticed in passing by our facilities that the windows now have a reflective look. This is the ballistic film, which provides safety and hinders outsiders from looking into our facilities.

We are actively working on the remaining projects which include adding more security fencing and electronic key door locks. If you would like more information on the approved projects, please feel free to contact Deacon Michael Tateishi via email at deacon@olaparish.net.

Parish Movie Night Recap

On Saturday, March 23rd, OLA hosted its first parish movie night in Affinito Hall. The film "The Prince of Egypt" was screened. It depicts the life of Moses, and the scene in the picture above shows Moses parting the Red Sea. There was a nice turn out, and several families with young children were in attendance.

Thank you to Megan Hall and Ryan Breault for organizing the movie night, as well as the school parent volunteers who helped set up and serve popcorn and lemonade.

Special thanks to Peter Tateishi and family for donating the funds for the licensing required to screen movies in Affinito Hall. We hope to host another movie night in the near future. Details will be available soon.

April PERT Club Meeting

This month PERT Club (People Enjoying Retirement Together) will gather at Mark and Monica's for pizza on Tuesday, April 16th. Arrive by 11:00 am (that's when they open) to do minimal setup and to decide how many pizzas to order. Meeting will start at 11:30 am with pizza being ready by 12:00 pm. We will order at least one personal pizza with vegan cheese and one gluten-free. The club will pay for member's pizza, and guests will pay $5.00 each. Everyone must pay for their drinks of choice. You do not need to be retired to attend. Hope to see you there!

Faith Formation Resource for the Easter Season

Did you know that we celebrate the Easter season for 50 days? By now, most if not all retail stores have taken down Easter decorations and products; but as Catholics, we continue to celebrate the Easter season and proclaim Jesus Christ, our Risen Lord until the feast of Pentecost. Even then, because our faith is rooted in the Resurrection of Christ, we are called to always remain Easter people!

To dive deeper into this Easter season, follow Dr. Tim Gray on the Formed website as he shares daily reflections for Easter. Dr. Gray is a biblical scholar and the current president of Augustine Institute. Formed is a Catholic formation resource to help Catholics grow in their faith. Visit <https://watch.formed.org/daily>.

Celebrating Easter as a Family

Christ is Risen! Alleluia! How are you celebrating this Easter season as a family? Need help with ideas on how to move beyond the Easter bunny, eggs, and candies, and to share about the significance of Easter? Here is a resource from Growing Up Catholic to help parents tell (or re-tell) the story of Easter with their children.

The Catholic Children's Bible

Empower and inspire kids to read, understand, and love the Word with The Catholic Children's Bible! This full-color Bible features large print for easy reading, wondrous illustrations to bring Bible stories to life, and special sections that help kids go deeper into the Word. Newman Ministry

Is your child a graduating High School senior? It's not too early to connect him or her to a Catholic Community on Campus. Over 80% of students stop practicing the faith in college, that's most of the campus! The problem is many students struggle to find great friends that share their faith. It can be overwhelming to walk onto a new campus with no friends. There's so many opportunities and decisions to make. Faith usually isn't at the top of the list. Newman Ministry can help. Register your child today: <https://www.newmanministry.com/>.

Camp Pendola is for the Whole Family

Family Camp at Camp Pendola will be July 5-7. Campers of all ages will have an opportunity to experience all the fun of camp including arts and crafts, archery, hiking, campfires, and more! On Saturday night we will have a special guest speaker for the parents with some wine and cheese while the children have a movie night with the Camp Pendola Camp Counselors! Come spend some quality family time up in the pines!

For more information and to register, go online to <https://www.pendola.org/familycamp.html>, or contact Jennifer Campbell at jcampbell@scd.org.
