GOSPEL MEDITATION

April 16, 2023

2nd Sunday of Easter

(Sunday of Divine Mercy)

A young, engaged couple sat on the couch in front of me as we chatted about their upcoming marriage. The young lady was struggling to trust her future husband. She told me her father had been unfaithful to her mother. She said of her fiancé, "I want him to prove to me that he won't cheat on me." The young man looked at me helplessly, raised his eyebrows and shrugged his shoulders. What evidence could he possibly give to validate such a proof? Nothing. All he could do was invite her to trust him.

We all are wounded by experiences of imperfect love. We also are tempted to demand from God proof of His fidelity and goodness. We are like St. Thomas the Apostle who, on that second Sunday of Easter, demands proof of the Lord's resurrection. "Unless I see the mark of the nail ... I will not believe." Our science, technology and mathematics can indeed prove a great deal. But there are some things that require trusting another person. We prove promises of love only by trusting.

St. Thomas indeed saw the wounds of Jesus and believed. But there is an even greater blessing for us who simply trust Him – and all the truths the Church proclaims – because of the trustworthiness of the Risen One who speaks. This week let's trust Jesus without seeing him.

PARISH & SCHOOL NEWS

RCIA Update and Congratulations!

The Sacraments of Initiation and the Rite of Reception into the Full Communion of the Catholic Church were beautifully celebrated at the Easter Vigil last Saturday, with our Father Eduino presiding and Father Brendan McKeefry concelebrating. Along with Jacob Benjamin and Nancy Cunha who were baptized at the Easter Vigil, Adele Hall, Christian Suyat, Joni Novak, Reinea Hunter, Stacie Nieves, Timothy Kassouni, and Zackary Whitney were received into full communion with the Catholic Church! They will be attending the 5:00 pm Mass on April 15 together for the first time, as full members of the church. Please see the group photo that was taken after the Vigil. Let's be sure to introduce ourselves and congratulate them when we see them.

Fr. Eduino, Deacon Paul, the RCIA Elect and Candidates, Lori and Todd Allen, Juan Yniguez, and Sharon Friedrich led the Stations of the Cross on Good Friday. Then Holy Saturday began with a morning retreat of reflection and prayer for the RCIA Elect and Candidates. At the same time, many were in the church beautifying it for the Easter Vigil. Victoria Yniquez coordinated a delicious lunch to feed their souls and for those who joined us for lunch before attending the Easter Vigil rehearsal. The five Altar Servers who said "Yes!" to serving fulfilled important tasks to make the night special (See the photo with their shining faces before the Service of Light held outside). The Knight of Columbus provided critical support for the procession and other components. The Lectors spoke so eloquently as messengers of Christ. The music provided by the Choir and instrumentalists, with Casey Oliver's leadership, was magnificent and enveloped us in the mystical experience of the Holy Spirit's presence. This special evening would not have happened without the Elect and Candidates saying "yes" to the formative RCIA process, or if their Godparents/Sponsors and families had not provided their valuable support. Most importantly, Father Eduino's counsel and leadership, our retired Deacon Michael's historical perspective and guidance, and the catechesis from the RCIA Team strengthened the formative experience. Tim Flanigan and Bill Simpson truly led the way with their invaluable wisdom that they shared weekly. Father Michael Hebda also provided his wisdom regarding some of the Sacraments.

For all these people, and the many others, including Lori and Todd Allen, who helped ensure the RCIA process and the Easter Vigil moved smoothly and meaningfully, we are grateful, and we thank you. May God bless you abundantly with his merciful love, grace, and mercy during this Easter Season, and always!

Mother's Day Rose Sale is Back!

The Mother's Day Rose Sale will take place on Saturday May 13th (after the vigil Mass) and after Masses on Mother's Day, Sunday May 14th.

Long-stemmed Red Roses will be available for a donation of $10.00 for 1 rose, or 3 roses for $20.00.

The rose sale is sponsored by the Sacramento Life Center to support women in the greater Sacramento Area, with sales assisted by members of the OLA Gabriel Project.

Your donation will help the Sacramento Life Center continue to offer compassion, support, resources and free medical care to women and couples facing an unplanned or unsupported pregnancy.

This will be a resumption of this project, as it was halted during COVID. Thank you for your continued support of the Sacramento Life Center!

Parish and Diocesan Vocations News

Deus Vocat Retreat (God is Calling) The Office of Priestly & Religious Vocations invites girls ages 13 to 17 to our Deus Vocat weekend retreat at Trinity Pines Catholic Center in Colfax. The dates are April 21-23, 2023. You may register your daughter at www.scd.org/DeusVocat. Cost: $85 (after March 31st, registration will go up to $90). No registrations will be accepted after April 10th. Space is limited. If you have any questions, please contact our office at (916) 733-0258 or by email to msmith@scd.org.

OLA Vocations Prayer: Loving God, You speak to us and nourish us through the life of this church community. In the name of Jesus, we ask you to send your Spirit to us so that men and women among us, young and old, will respond to your call to service and leadership in the church. We pray, especially in our day, for those who hear your invitation to be a priest, sister, brother, or deacon; and also for those called to be a spouse or single person. May those who are opening their hearts and minds to your call be encouraged and strengthened through our enthusiasm in your service.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen
