GOSPEL MEDITATION

April 30, 2023

Fourth Sunday of Easter

I recently rescued a dog. She's a terrier and rather adorable. And she's crazy about me. She could spend all day with me. But I'm a pastor at a parish and sometimes I leave her at the front desk of the church office. She constantly amazes me by her ability to distinguish between my voice and that of everyone else. If I say one word, even if I'm hidden around a corner, she'll sprint toward me and jump up into my arms.

This week the readings focus our attention to the voice of the risen Jesus Christ. Comparing his disciples to sheep and himself to a shepherd, he says, "They recognize his voice." He speaks to us and wants us to respond. When we hear his voice, we follow. Throughout this coming week, we will experience many interior promptings to receive God's love, and to love Him in return. That's his voice. Follow it into the safe and tender arms of Christ.

By contrast, some voices we will hear do not convey God's concern and love for us, but rather produce fear, despair, and other harmful mischief. Jesus calls these voices those of robbers. Does an idea or thought make it harder for you to love God? If so, run away. Let it go. It is most likely not the voice of the Risen Lord. Keep waiting for him to speak. You will recognize his voice. Then run to him as fast as you can.

Father John Muir ©LPi

This weekend we have our 5th Sunday collection for the OLA Conference of the St. Vincent de Paul Society, which helps those in need in our community.

Next week we will take up the Catholic Home Missions Appeal. Today, over 40% of dioceses in the United States and its territories are unable to fund the essential pastoral work their communities need. Your support of this appeal helps them meet these faith formation and sacramental needs. Please prayerfully consider how you can support this appeal.

A special "thank you" to the markets that support the Food Locker: Bel Air at Arden/Eastern, SaveMart at Loehman's Plaza, and Winco at Country Club.

Your donations during our 5th Sunday Second Collections are greatly appreciated and make a tremendous difference in our community. "So then, as we have opportunity, let us do good to everyone, and especially to those who are of the household of faith." Galatians 6:10

Special Events Volunteers Needed: Do you feel the desire to use your unique talents to make a difference in your community? In our busy lives in an ever-busier world, sometimes we cannot commit the time and energy to join that club that we always wanted to or take part in that committee asking for new members. But if you feel that calling as we all do to help, there are plenty of opportunities around the parish that do not require joining a club or committee. No committee membership needed, no monthly meetings, the only requirement is a smile on your face and an outreached hand. Volunteering for a special event is a wonderful opportunity to meet new people, share your individual talents with the community and know that you are making a positive change in our parish community.

If you are interested in volunteering for special events, please sign up for our parish Flocknote!

Requests for special event volunteers will be made via Flocknote when needed. (See below for Flocknote sign up info.) You may also leave your name and a phone number where you can be reached at the Parish Office, if you prefer. A coordinator will reach out 2 weeks before an upcoming event and again 4 days before. We thank you for being a beloved member of our parish, and we look forward to teaming with you!

Update regarding our Strategic Pastoral Plan: The team is working on putting the Top 5 Objectives together. The Great News: We have already received a grant for our Campus Security from OES. There is a team that is working on the implementation of this plan. More to come!

OLA Vocations Prayer: Loving God, You speak to us and nourish us through the life of this church community. In the name of Jesus, we ask you to send your Spirit to us so that men and women among us, young and old, will respond to your call to service and leadership in the church. We pray, especially in our day, for those who hear your invitation to be a priest, sister, brother, or deacon; and also for those called to be a spouse or single person. May those who are opening their hearts and minds to your call be encouraged and strengthened through our enthusiasm in your service. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen
