GOSPEL MEDITATION

May 14, 2023

Sixth Sunday of Easter

My dad was adopted as a baby. It's a big part of my family's story. His birth mother placed him in a Catholic orphanage not long after birth. A young couple longing for a baby strolled among the bassinets. My father, then only a few months old, looked at the husband and smiled. The man said, "That's my son." They took him home and the family grew. This moment of adoption was a wonderful truth they celebrated even when my dad was a young boy. They told him, "You're even more special than the other children, because we chose you to be our son." My dad's eyes well up with tears of gratitude whenever he tells the story, even eighty-three years later.

What is your story? Do we think or act like unwanted orphans? Who do we believe ourselves to be? As we continue to ponder Jesus' resurrection, we hear him say to us this Sunday, "I will not leave you orphans." God doesn't leave us alone like spiritual orphans. The power that raised Jesus from the dead is the Holy Spirit, who is also called the Spirit of Adoption. He chooses us to be His children, to share God's life forever. He gives us a future filled with hope.

We are not orphans anymore! This Easter, that's the story we should share with others. It's the true story we are living right now.

Thank You from Deacon Paul

My thanks to OLA's Boy Scout Troop 328!

On behalf of the Interfaith Council of Greater Sacramento, I take this time to thank Boy Scout Troop 328 for helping make the annual "Power of One" event a success. The event was held Sunday May 7th in Bannon Hall, and the scouts and their parents generously volunteered their time assisting our committee in setting up tables before the event and taking them down after the event. A great example of faith and service in action.

"I recognize the Neocatechumenal Way as an itinerary of Catholic formation, valid for our society and for our times."

- Pope Saint John Paul II – August 30, 1990

Is there an event in your life that you don't understand or accept?

Do you find yourself incapable to "love your enemy and pray for those who persecute you" (Mt 5:44) as Christ invites us to?

Incapable to forgive someone who has wronged you?

Is there someone that you know who is suffering, alone, maybe saddened by the events of life?

to our suffering, our incapability!

"Dear brothers and sisters, your charism is a great gift of God for the Church of our time. I accompany and encourage you: Go forth! And please, do not forget to pray for me, who remain here!"
