3rd SUNDAY OF EASTER

Jesus said to them, "Come, have breakfast." And none of the disciples dared to ask him, "Who are you?" because they realized it was the Lord. Jesus came over and took the bread and gave it to them, and in like manner the fish.
- Jn 21:12-13

May 31st/June 1st we will take up the Catholic Communication Campaign. 50% will remain in our Diocese to help support our local communications efforts.

Last weekend we took up the Catholic Home Missions Appeal.

Today, over 40% of dioceses in the United States and its territories are unable to fund the essential pastoral work their communities need. Your support of this appeal helps them meet these faith formation and sacramental needs. Please prayerfully consider how you can support this appeal. For additional information go to: www.usccb.org/home-missions. If you would still like to donate online, go to: <https://www.scd.org/homemissions>.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

3rd Sunday of Easter
John 21:1-19

I eat breakfast. If I don't have something substantial, I'm fading by midmorning. Breakfast is my key meal because it sets up my physical wellbeing for the rest of the day.

Spiritually speaking, we need sustenance to get us going. This is true for the Apostles in this Sunday's remarkable Gospel reading. The risen Jesus makes his third appearance to them in the early morning light and calls, "Come, have breakfast" (John 21:12). The exhausted and cold fishermen sit, and he feeds them bread and fish as the dawn breaks. They are overwhelmed by his presence to the point of awestruck silence. As they eat, their bodies and their hearts come alive. Once refreshed by their morning meal, they will be ready to feed others – indeed, the whole world – with the love of the risen Jesus. But first, they need breakfast from him.

Do you realize how essential early morning prayer is? Jesus desires to refresh us every morning with his word of love, with his grace-filled presence. This week, hear Jesus calling to you: "Come, have breakfast!" Embrace some form of spiritual, meditative practice each morning for spiritual strength to get you going.

– Father John Muir

Catholic Q and A: The Pope

Question: Why do Catholics have a pope?

Answer: To answer the question of why Catholics have a pope, we have to pull the lens back and think about the very nature of the Church herself. According to the Nicene Creed (which is the statement of beliefs that we recite each Sunday at Mass), we profess that the Church is “one, holy, catholic, and apostolic.” These adjectives are called the marks of the Church, and they help us see that the Church is bigger than just our individual parish communities or even the Christians living in a particular region or country.

To ensure that the community of disciples would remain united in a communion of love, Jesus entrusted the Apostles with special authority to teach, heal, and forgive sins in his name. From among this group, Jesus chose Simon Peter to play a special role, designating him as the “rock” on which the Church was to be built (see Matthew 16:18-19; John 21:15-17). Peter “the Rock” became the visible sign of union within and among the Apostles. In time, as Peter and the other Apostles passed away, other men were chosen to take their place. The successors of St. Peter – who we honor as the first Bishop of Rome – and the successors of the other Apostles (the bishops) continued the work entrusted by Jesus to that first generation of Church leaders.

According to long-standing tradition, the successor of Peter was Linus, who was followed by Cletus, who was followed by Clement I, etc. This line of succession continues to Pope Francis in our own time. Following the period of mourning for Pope Francis, an assembly of Cardinals will meet at the Vatican beginning May 7th, 2025 to elect the next pope. This assembly is called a conclave. “Conclave,” meaning “with key” in Latin, is a reference to how cardinals used to be locked in until a new pope was selected.

Over the centuries, these Bishops of Rome – who came to be known as the “pope” (from papa, which means “father” in Latin) – still continue to act as the “rock” of the Church and as the visible sign of unity for all the Catholic Christians. The pope, more than any other bishop, stands as the Church’s primary teacher and as pastor of the Church throughout the world, helping to ensure that the Church remains what Jesus intended her to be: one, holy, catholic, and apostolic.

To learn more, see the “Catechism of the Catholic Church” (no. 857-862 and 880-882). ©LPI

As Pilgrims of Hope: We share in Christ's prophetic mission when we profess the Creed, and when we praise, Him, who has called us "out of the darkness of sin into the light of life and glory" (1 Peter 2:9). Reflection for the week:

How do I encourage others to become "living stones" in holy temple with Christ as the cornerstone, that is the Church? In my family? At my school? In my workplace? In my community? For further reflections on theme 2, please visit www.scd.org/Jubilee2025. -Bishop Soto
