GOSPEL MEDITATION

June 25, 2023

Solemnity of the Anniversary of the Dedication of the Cathedral of the Blessed Sacrament

Luke's story of Zacchaeus, the tax collector, is one of repentance and conversion. Moreover, it is also a reflection of Jesus's loving desire to save all of God's children, even the blatant sinner and the tax collector reviled by his fellow Jews for cheating them of their money and collaborating with their Roman overlords.

When Zacchaeus, a man of small stature, climbed a sycamore tree to see Jesus, the implication in the story is that he had a genuine spiritual longing for salvation. It is interesting to note that the sycamore tree was an important spiritual symbol in the ancient world of the eastern Mediterranean. It had various symbolic implications, particularly to the Jews, such as love, protection, and divinity. Thus, the climbing of the tree would symbolize his seeking a divine resolution of his sinfulness. Jesus recognized this and immediately invited himself to the tax collector's house. The lesson, of course, is that no matter how sinful we may be and out of step with the faithful, Jesus is always ready to answer our sincere plea for mercy and forgiveness. He will even invite us to his table.

As the Catechism of the Catholic Church states, "During his public life Jesus not only forgave sins, but also made plain the effect of this forgiveness: he reintegrated forgiven sinners into the community of the People of God for which sin had alienated or even excluded them. A remarkable sign of this is the fact that Jesus receives sinners at his table, a gesture that expresses in an astonishing way both God's forgiveness and the return to the bosom of the People of God." Next week, we will take up the Peter's Pence Collection, which unites us and Catholics around the world more closely with the Holy Father in two ways: it supports the structures of the Holy See through which the Pope governs the Church as well as his charitable efforts to assist victims of war, oppression, natural disasters, and others most in need.

PARISH & SCHOOL NEWS

Support our parish school through the Knights of Columbus

Over the years, Knights of Columbus Council 4970 has supported our school through sales at its fireworks booth. This year the fireworks booth, located in the parking lot at St. Ignatius parish on Arden Way, is open from June 28th through July 4th.

With your support, proceeds from the fireworks booth will continue donating 10 percent of your firework purchases to the school. Last year our booth had gross sales of over $50,000 which allowed us to award over $14,000 in scholarships to our three sponsored parish schools at OLA, St. Ignatius, and St. Johns. Funds, including donations to our parishes and a number of non-profit organizations, amounted to over $20,000.

This year there is no need to purchase scrip at the school, just note your affiliation with OLA at the booth. For information on the Knights fireworks sales or other KofC programs contact Frank Consulo at 916-366-7131 or fconsulo@sbcglobal.net or Peter Kilkenny at 916-692-5446 or pakcantor@gmail.com. PS: Bring your tattered American Flag to the booth for proper disposal.

St. Vincent de Paul Society - OLA Conference

Thank you for your continued generosity! Your support makes a big difference in our community. During the month of May, SVdP helped provide food, rent, and appliances for 1,059 people.

For those who need assistance and live within our parish boundaries, the food locker is open Tuesdays and Thursdays from 10 A.M.-12 P.M. We give enough food for each member of the family to have 3 days of meals, breakfast, lunch, and dinner. We can also help with utility and rent payments. For more information, call SVdP at (916) 481-6352.

Interested in volunteering for SVdP? We currently need shoppers and client visitation members. If you can help, please call (916) 481-6352 and leave a message, or email SVdP president Marylee Johnson at jmjohn@surrewest.net.
