GOSPEL MEDITATION

15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Once I asked a fallen-away Catholic friend of mine what he remembered about the parish priest from his youth. He said, "He was a gentle, nice guy. Kind of Vanilla. Kept to himself." It struck me that he, perhaps like many, perceive Catholic priests as the following: lonely, harmless, and self-sufficient. As a challenge both to his perception (accurate or not) and to us priests who perhaps feel a pull in that uninspiring direction, stands the mighty image of what we see in the Gospel this Sunday.

Jesus sent out his apostles, "two-by-two, with power over demons, and without money belts." Two-by-two: they enjoyed deep fellowship and brotherhood. Power over demons: they were anything but harmless. These men wielded enormous power against evil. Without money belts: they were not self-sufficient. They needed others to help them. Not lonely, but in community. Not harmless but armed with massive spiritual energy. Not self-sufficient, but poor and in need of help.

This is a challenge to me, and perhaps to all of us, living in a rich, secularized, and individualized culture. Do I embrace my priestly ministry in deep fellowship with other priests? Do I speak and act boldly to drive out evil where it is found? Do I live poorly and simply, trusting in the help of those around me even for basic needs? The fruitfulness of priestly ministry largely depends on these three traits. Let's pray for all priests – and, by extension, all of us Christians – to live more like Jesus' communal, poor, and powerful apostles. – Father John Muir ©LPI

For those in our community who have passed away...

All Souls

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

Amen.

PARISH AND SCHOOL NEWS

Mass for the Month of the Diaconate Ordinations in the American River Deanery

On June 30, 2024, Deacon Paul and Sharon were honored to participate in a special Mass celebrated by our new Auxiliary Bishop Rey Bersabal at St. John the Evangelist in Carmichael. The Mass included honoring our new Bishop's first month of service and the month of the Diaconate ordinations in the ten-parish American River Deanery. Please pray for vocations to the diaconate and priesthood.

OLA Vocations Prayer: Loving God, You speak to us and nourish us through the life of this church community. In the name of Jesus, we ask you to send your Spirit to us so that men and women among us, young and old, will respond to your call to service and leadership in the church. We pray, especially in our day, for those who hear your invitation to be a priest, sister, brother, or deacon; and also for those called to be a spouse or single person. May those who are opening their hearts and minds to your call be encouraged and strengthened through our enthusiasm in your service. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen

BSA Eagle Project Fundraising Update – St. John's Landscaping

Thank you to all who have donated towards John Rockenstein's Eagle Scout project, and thank you to John for embarking on this ambitious project to create a beautiful new space for prayer and contemplation at OLA. John spoke at the weekend Masses on June 29th and June 30th, and so far he has raised 25% of his fundraising goal of $9,000.

John will be installing turf in place of the grass on the right side of St. John's Hall (opposite side from Mary). He will also be putting in new rose bushes, as well as new wood benches.

If you would like to donate to this project, you can drop off a check to the church office addressed to Troop 328, or you can also donate via the Venmo app: @Mike-Rockenstein-2. Bench sponsorship is also available if you are interested.

Please contact johnmrockenstein@gmail.com and rockusc@gmail.com with any questions you have. Any help is appreciated. Thank you for your support!

Catholic Q&A – Mass Celebrated Around the World

Question: Is the Catholic Mass really celebrated the same throughout the whole world?

Answer: One of the truisms of the Catholic Faith is that “wherever you go in the world, the Mass is the same.” In fact, the answer to this question is both “yes” and “no.”

On the one hand, the essential elements of the Roman Rite are the same. The structure of the Mass as it is presented in the Roman Missal is consistent and this is one of the beauties of belonging to a liturgical tradition.

On the other hand, however, there are elements of celebrations that can vary depending on the country or even local region you might be in. For example, in certain parts of the world, certain feasts and solemnities are celebrated on different days (even here in the United States the Solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord can be celebrated on Thursday of the Sixth Week of Easter or it may take the place of the Seventh Sunday of Easter, depending on what diocese you are in). Whether it is the use of certain liturgical colors, local celebrations of regional saints, special seasonal blessings of crops or produce, or the use of dance and processions all demonstrate a sort of organic variety that can exist even within our established liturgical tradition. While we always respect what is essential to the rite, such local variations and traditions are very much in keeping with the vision of liturgical renewal and adaption envisioned by the Second Vatican Council’s Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy (nos. 37-40). ©LPI
