GOSPEL MEDITATION

15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

It's not uncommon to hear people complain that we Catholics often fail in communicating our faith. Fair enough. We can and should improve there. But it's interesting to notice that Jesus himself was implicitly accused by his disciples of a similar failure. This week in Matthew's gospel they are perplexed that he speaks to the crowds in ambiguous parables. The Lord's riddles leave many people more confused than before. He responds by pointing out that his parables have an intentional dual purpose: to hide (for some) and to reveal (for others) his Gospel: "Because knowledge of the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven has been granted to you, but to them it has not been granted" (Matthew 13:11). Is Jesus being unnecessarily difficult, obscurantist, or, worse, elitist? No. We have to remember that all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge lie hidden in him (c.f., Col. 2:3). He is the word of God from heaven to be planted in the earth of our humanity to bear great fruit. However, like a lover delicately pursuing his beloved, we're dealing with a relationship, not new data. When we aren't willing to personally accept Jesus into our lives, the "info" of the Gospel will simply not make sense to us. It'll seem bizarre, esoteric, or like incoherent religious-speak. But when we are willing to accept Jesus into our lives, everything else starts to make sense. When others don't understand the Church or the Lord, let's be patient. Love is patient. Sometimes it has to hide before it is revealed. -Father John Muir ©LPI

For those in our community who have passed away...

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

Amen.

For more information, call SVdP at (916) 481-6352.

Interested in volunteering for SVdP? We currently need shoppers and client visitation members. If you can help, please call (916) 481-6352 and leave a message, or email SVdP president Marylee Johnson at jmjohn@surewest.net.

Thank You from Fr. Michael Kiernan

Dear Family of Our Lady of the Assumption Parish, Greetings to you in Our Lord Jesus Christ! Humbled by the faith and sweetness of so many, I express my thanks to all who were so lovingly expressive during the celebration of my 50th anniversary of priesthood this past weekend. I'm so grateful to Fr. Eduino for giving overall approval and Deacon Michael and Robert Love as parish leaders! Thanks to the marvelous committee who organized everything: Carmy Baca, plus daughters Carly and Carmy, Caroline Albers, Patty Read, Lynn Sweeney, Theresa Parulan, Marie Leatherby, Casey Oliver, Jane Ricci, Joan Cotton, Ryan Breault and my longtime personal assistant, Donna Pineda.

The liturgy, the fine food and arrangement of everything in the beautiful Affinito Hall were just perfect. Unable to express adequately my appreciation, I simply praise God for this faith community of loving, holy and kind people who have enriched my life. I am so grateful to all who have helped me over the years with prayer or their own committed sacrifice and encouragement or in many other ways. Your openness and availability for everything I asked meant sometimes I had to stop asking, as people were just too good.

I can't believe all the beautiful life experiences I have had in a variety of situations. God has constantly blessed me despite my faults and failings and given me Faith, Hope and Love, forgiven my sins and allowed me to serve in many endeavors. God's Grace has made my life easy, fun, satisfying, meaningful and a joy! There has never been a dull moment, but always exciting challenges and fulfilling opportunities and I pray that my ministry has helped some people along the way. I loved every minute of it, in God's holy providence, all the time in the constant leadership of the Holy Spirit!

May God bless you, as you read this, and help us all to continue in the holy life God has given us in his service and our service to one another - all the days of our life, as we travel to the Joys of Heaven.

In conclusion, I share some phrases chosen from the great hymn of Johann J. Schultz: "Sing praise to God who reigns above, the God of all creation. The God of power, the God of love, the God of our salvation. Then, all my gladsome way along, I sing aloud your praises, that all may hear the grateful song, my voice unwearied raises; Be joyful in the Lord, my heart, both soul and body bear your part: to God all praise and glory. The Lord is God, and he alone: to God all praise and glory." Peace and all good to all God's holy people! Fr. Michael

Catholic in Recovery

Join Catholic in Recovery at Our Lady of the Assumption on Wednesdays at 6:00 p.m. in St. Anne's Room. Meetings combine the spiritual principles of 12-step recovery and the sacraments of the Catholic Church. Join others in recovery as we overlap scripture from Sunday's Mass readings, liturgical themes, and recovery topics with honest discussion and prayer. Confidentiality is protected.

For more information about Catholic in Recovery, visit www.catholicinrecovery.com, or email Bill B. at bbefort@bellsouth.net or call (561) 827-0624.

Upcoming Training for Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion

There will be a training for Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion on Monday, July 24th at 6:00 pm in the church. This training is for current ministers as well as those who are interested in becoming extraordinary ministers. We need more people who are trained to serve in this essential ministry.

As an extraordinary minister, you are integral to the sacramental sharing that is the highlight of the Mass. You assist the priest and deacon (the Ordinary Ministers) in the distribution of Holy Communion. Extraordinary ministers take their spiritual growth seriously. They have a rich prayer life and a deep reverence for the Blessed Sacrament.

Those who are at least 16 years of age and fully initiated Catholics (Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist) are invited to participate as extraordinary ministers of holy communion for the community.

For more information or to volunteer for service, please contact Deacon Paul Friedrich at 481-5115 or deaconpaul@olaparish.net.

Parish and Diocesan Vocations News

Are you interested in supporting vocations in our parish and diocese? Join our parish Vocations Committee! If you are interested, please contact the parish office at parish@olaparish.net or (916) 481-5115.

Deus Vocat Retreat (God is Calling) Boys ages 13 to 17 can learn more about the various vocations: marriage, diaconate, religious life, or priesthood. The weekend has time for prayer, fellowship, and games. July 28 - 30, 2023 at Trinity Pines Catholic Center in Colfax, CA. Reserve a spot for your son at www.scd.rog/quovadis.

OLA Vocations Prayer: Loving God, You speak to us and nourish us through the life of this church community. In the name of Jesus, we ask you to send your Spirit to us so that men and women among us, young and old, will respond to your call to service and leadership in the church. We pray, especially in our day, for those who hear your invitation to be a priest, sister, brother, or deacon; and also for those called to be a spouse or single person. May those who are opening their hearts and minds to your call be encouraged and strengthened through our enthusiasm in your service. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen
