GOSPEL MEDITATION

14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Recently I watched a bunch of YouTube videos on how to optimize willpower in the face of weakness. The message was: do not accept your weakness. Crush it. Dominate it. In one video, however, at the end of a rant by a willpower coach, the muscular stoic admitted, "You'll never actually get what you want, no matter how hard you try." Amazingly, he admitted that willpower alone is not sufficient for us weak-willed humans. What does God want us to do with our weaknesses, if crushing them with willpower won't work? For example, what should I do with my tendency to arrogance and self-isolation? Or my procrastination? Or my intellectual and physical limitations? Or my selfishness?

The counter-intuitive answer is clear in this week's words from St Paul, "I will rather boast most gladly of my weaknesses in order that the power of Christ may dwell in me." (2 Cor. 12:9) Boast of our weaknesses? Paul isn't promoting weak-mindedness or laziness. Rather, he perceives that Jesus loves us not despite our weaknesses but because of them. Boasting of our weakness means claiming human will is not all we have. It means turning to God whenever we feel weak, which—let's face it—is almost all the time. When we do, we learn to love our weaknesses, because it's there that we meet the strength of Christ. This week, I challenge us to find ways to boast not in willpower but in weakness.

-Father John Muir ©LPI

Join the Knights of Columbus

The Knights are a brotherhood with a purpose that celebrate our Catholic faith.

For the brotherhood, we have ice cream socials, attend basketball (Kings) and baseball (Rivercats) games, and sponsor corn hole tournaments.

For purpose, we raised $33,000 and then hosted a dinner for Camp ReCreation. We sold fireworks to provide tuition assistance to students attending Catholic high schools. We gave donations to seminarians and special projects around the council. We hosted fish fries, led stations on Fridays, and we even hosted a half dozen pancake breakfasts.

We provided gifts for our altar servers and hosted free throw events for the students at Catholic schools. We hosted 24 rosaries and 24 bible studies. We celebrated life during the life chain, and we hosted a widow's lunch and provided honor guards at funerals on the other end of life.

If you are a man over the age of 18 that wishes to share your Catholic faith with other Catholic men, scan the QR code or visit <https://kofc4970.com/> and click on the link in the upper right hand corner to let us know who you are.

God Bless, Grand Knight Will Friesen

Catholic Q&A – Gospel of Mark

Question: In Year B, we hear primarily from the Gospel of Mark. Since each Evangelist has a unique perspective, what are the key issues that Mark addresses in his Gospel?

Answer: Gospels are a particular faith community's reflection on Jesus. Each Gospel's author reflected that community's faith in Jesus. Jesus' message is made relevant to the community's situation and context. Mark was the first Gospel to be written. When Matthew and Luke wrote theirs, they imitated and adapted Mark for their communities.

The Gospel of Mark seems to be addressed to a faith community undergoing turmoil, rejection, and persecution – forces that threaten to overwhelm them. This provides the context around which Mark fashions the story of Jesus. He presents Jesus as the One sent by God to confront the forces of evil. That is the good news of Jesus.

Jesus' struggle with the demonic forces leads to confrontation, rejection, outright opposition, and a conspiracy to do away with him. Realizing this, Jesus is not deterred. Rather Jesus calls for total faith in God who helps us to overcome the forces of evil. Suffering and even death seem to be the consequences of this struggle. Yet, that is not the end. The one who suffers for the sake of others, the suffering servant, will be the one through whom redemption and salvation will come to all. For Mark, this is what discipleship demands and what true faith in God can and will accomplish. See if you can detect these themes as you read Mark's Gospel. ©LPi

Loving God, You speak to us and nourish us through the life of this church community. In the name of Jesus, we ask you to send your Spirit to us so that men and women among us, young and old, will respond to your call to service and leadership in the church. We pray, especially in our day, for those who hear your invitation to be a priest, sister, brother, or deacon; and also for those called to be a spouse or single person. May those who are opening their hearts and minds to your call be encouraged and strengthened through our enthusiasm in your service.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen
