GOSPEL MEDITATION

20th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The suffering of a child symbolizes uniquely terrible evil as well as despair about the future. This week's Gospel gives a "limit" case in which Jesus encounters this evil in the form of a mother with a suffering daughter. What he does is stunning and massively helpful for us if we bravely ponder the details. The Canaanite woman comes to Jesus and begs his mercy. "My daughter is tormented by a demon," she declares to him. Shockingly, he responds first with silence, then with a dismissive comment, and only then finally accedes to her third request. Is this simply a lesson in perseverance in our petitions to God, who is like a genie in a bottle? Does that justify the humiliation and pain this woman suffers? Is the Lord cruel?

I don't think so. Notice how the encounter ends. She compares herself to a dog at the table of a master. Jesus responds by praising her great faith and fulfills her deep desire. Somehow this non-Israelite woman intuits that this harrowing situation is not dumb suffering. She senses that the door of God's family is, in Jesus, being opened to her and her loved ones. She trusts she is at the Lord's table, and her desires will be fulfilled and that all her sufferings – and her daughter's, too – will lead a great banquet. In our sufferings this week, the Lord wants us to treat him less like a genie in a bottle and more like the Master who has taken us – lost little dogs that we are – into his home forever. Trust that and keep praying in the face of evil. -Father John Muir ©LPi

For those in our community who have passed away...

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

Amen.

PARISH AND SCHOOL NEWS

Children's Liturgy of the Word Update

We have been thrilled to have so many children attending Children's Liturgy of the Word (CLOW) at 9:00 a.m. Mass. Because our group has gotten so large, we will be splitting into two groups starting in September.

Our youngest CLOW attendees will remain with Ms. Tracy and continue lessons which are geared for their understanding and often include a project or activity to enrich the topic.

Children grades 3 and up will be lead in a more structured lesson by Mrs. Breault and/or Mrs. Maroun. They will read the Mass readings and have an age-appropriate discussion together.

We look forward to continuing to deepen the faith of OLA's youngest parishioners!

St. Vincent de Paul Society - OLA Conference

Thank you for your continued generosity!

We need pasta, pasta sauce, and paper grocery bags for the Food Locker. You can drop them off at the parish office or in the SVdP collection boxes in the church.

Save the date for our next Shred Day, Saturday, October 21st. More information to follow.

For those who need assistance and live within our parish boundaries, the food locker is open Tuesdays and Thursdays from 10 A.M.-12 P.M. We give enough food for each member of the family to have 3 days of meals, breakfast, lunch, and dinner. We can also help with utility and rent payments. For more information, call SVdP at (916) 481-6352.

Interested in volunteering for SVdP? We currently need people to answer phone calls and help clients by phone. If you can help, please call (916) 481-6352 and leave a message, or email SVdP president Marylee Johnson at jmjohn@surewest.net.

OLA Faith Formation Update

The Faith Formation Program is looking for people willing to share their faith and help children grow in theirs. The program begins September 10th and is held on Sundays from 10:15-11:30 am in Bannon Hall. Whether you are available periodically for special activities or willing to make a weekly commitment, please reach out to Tracy Urban at faithformation@olaparish.net.

RCIA Update RCIA Inquiry Information Sessions

Are you interested, or know someone who is interested, in learning more about our rich Catholic faith and possibly becoming Catholic? Did you know that a person is brought into full communion with the Catholic Church through the reception of the three sacraments of Christian initiation: Baptism, Confirmation, and Holy Eucharist? This occurs through the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA). The RCIA is for those who have never been baptized, for those baptized in another faith, or for those baptized Catholic that have not completed the Sacraments of Confirmation and the Holy Eucharist.

If you are over the age of 16 and interested, OR know someone who is interested, we will be holding one more Inquiry Information Session on Wednesday 8/23 from 7:00 pm to 8:00 pm in Affinito Hall, Meeting Room 3 (accessed via Cottage Way). Formal instruction will begin in early October.

Please feel free to join us at the remaining sessions and learn more! We will address your questions about our rich Catholic faith and share the RCIA process. If you will be joining us or have questions about RCIA, please contact Tim Flanigan at (916) 481-5115 or parish@olaparish.net. God bless!

Eucharistic Miracle Series

Eucharistic Miracle of Bordeaux - France, 1822

For the parish year of the National Eucharistic Revival, we will be featuring information in the bulletin about the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist.

In the Eucharistic Miracle of Bordeaux, Jesus appeared giving a blessing for more than 20 minutes in the Host exposed for public adoration. In addition, someone testified to have heard Jesus saying: "I am He who is." This event was approved by the ecclesiastical authorities among whom were the Archbishop of Bordeaux – Monsignor D'Aviau – who heard personally the witness of the faithful who attested to the marvel. Even today it is possible to visit the chapel of the miracle and venerate the previous relic of the monstrance of the apparition.

Lay Mission Project

FREE Life-Changing Formation – Ignite your parish's zeal for the Faith with the Lay Mission Project!

The Church needs passionate and holy lay Catholics to evangelize the secular world. But for the most part, the Church has not adequately formed the laity toward this end, and many have become lukewarm and are drifting into complete mediocrity and indifference. The Church will never fully realize its calling without a devout and passionate laity, which is why Bishop Soto has brought the Lay Mission Project to the diocese of Sacramento, and is offering it to ALL parishes for FREE!
