GOSPEL MEDITATION

22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Purity isn't popular at the moment. Or is it? Look at a rack of health magazines or at popular podcasts. You'll see an infinite ocean of regulations and rituals of diets, intermittent fasting, morning sun rituals, intense juice detox practices, lists of dangerous foods, mental practices, as well as long lists of dos and don'ts for the proper cleaning of clothes, dishes, cars, houses, pets, and children. Like it or not, we long to be pure, clean, and without blemish.

This question of purity haunted people in Jesus' day, too. The Pharisees and scribes (the leading purity authorities of the day) criticize Jesus, asking, "Why do your disciples not live according to the tradition of the elders, but eat with defiled hands?" (Mark 7:5) Jesus responds by saying, "There is nothing outside the person that can defile him if it goes into him; but the things that come out of the person are what defile the person." (Mark 7:15) What does he mean, and how can it help us be pure?

We've probably all heard the somewhat shopworn interpretation that Jesus replaces the ritual, exterior notion of purity with a moral, interior one. Christianity is thus seen as a kind of moral re-tooling, as if religion doesn't make us pure. Good moral intentions do. But this doesn't take the rest of Jesus' ministry seriously enough, nor our obsession with purity. The better reading is that Jesus audaciously offers himself as the ultimate source of human purity – from within each human heart. Both our religious ritual practices and our moral actions are meant to flow from this encounter with Jesus the Lord. When we are in friendship with him, everything becomes pure for us.

– Father John Muir ©LPI

PARISH AND SCHOOL NEWS

Parish Feast Day Dinner Recap

Our annual Parish Feast Day Dinner took place on Saturday, August 17th, in Affinito Hall after the 5:00 p.m. vigil Mass. The OLA Social Committee, along with many volunteers from the school and parish, helped make the wonderful dinner possible. Over 180 people attended!

Fr. Eduino started the dinner off with a welcome and blessing. Fr. Kiernan joined in on the festivities, and our volunteer servers were joyful and hardworking.

Special thanks to Ryan Breault and his team for preparing the delicious food, and to Julia Meyer for helping coordinate the parish and school volunteers. Thanks to all of the volunteers and to all who attended!

OLA School Auction Update – Save the Date and Seeking Live Auction Donations

As we prepare for our upcoming Oktoberfest OLA School Auction on October 19th, 2024, we are asking for your support in securing exciting items for our Live Auction. This segment of the event is always a highlight, and we are hoping to feature unique and valuable items or experiences that will generate enthusiasm and help us raise essential funds for our school. If you have connections to businesses, personal experiences, or unique items that you think would make a great contribution to the Live Auction, we would love to hear from you. Some examples might include vacation packages or weekend getaways, special event tickets (concerts, sports, theater), exclusive experiences (private dining, behind-the-scenes tours), or high-end products or services. Your donation not only supports our school but also provides valuable exposure to your business or a cause you care about. We appreciate any contributions you can make to help us create an unforgettable event.

If you have an item or experience you'd like to donate, please contact us at catha.cawi@gmail.com (Catherina Riehl). Thanks for your support! Catherina Riehl and Yvonne Harty, OLA School Auction Co-Chairs

OCIA (RCIA) Inquiry Sessions

Are you interested, or do you know someone who is interested, in learning more about our rich Catholic faith and possibly becoming Catholic? Did you know that a person is brought into full communion with the Catholic Church through the reception of the three sacraments of Christian initiation: Baptism, Confirmation, and Holy Eucharist? This occurs through the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults - OCIA (formerly known as the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults - RCIA). The OCIA is for those who have never been baptized, those who have been baptized in another faith, or those who have been baptized Catholic and have not completed the Sacraments of Confirmation and the Holy Eucharist. If you are over the age of 16 and interested, inquiries will be held on the following Wednesdays: 9/4 and 9/11. All sessions will be from 7:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. in Affinito Hall, Meeting Room 3 (accessed via Cottage Way). You are welcome to join us at both sessions and learn more! We will answer your questions and share the OCIA process. If you will be joining us, or if you have any questions, please contact Jordan Holmes via email at ocia@olaparish.net.
